THE INTERLINEAR BIBLE.

In this edition the large type represents the agreement of the Revised and Authorised Versions. When the two Versions differ, the renderings of both are printed in small type; those of the Revised Version in the upper line, and those of the Authorised Version in the lower line. A blank in the upper or lower line indicates the absence of any corresponding words in the Revised Version or the Authorised Version respectively. Thus the large type read in conjunction with the upper line of small type gives the continuous text of the Revised Version, and read in conjunction with the lower line of small type it gives the continuous text of the Authorised Version.

Where the variations could not conveniently be indicated by the use of upper and lower lines, they have been pointed out by other means, such as the insertion of the words "[R. V. only".

With the exceptions specified below, all the variations have been exhibited, including those of spelling and punctuation. In the case of variations of punctuation, the word preceding the stop has been twice printed for the sake of clearness even when it is identical in the two Versions: thus in Luke i. 3 the upper line "Theophilus;" shews the punctuation of the Revised Version, the lower line "Theophilus," that of the Authorised Version.

The variations which have not been exhibited are as follows:

(1) Variations of arrangement. The division of the text into paragraphs adopted in the R.V. has been followed, with the consequent changes in the use of capitals at the beginning of verses, and the omission of the paragraph marks (¶) of the A.V.

In the poetical books and passages the arrangement of the R.V. in lines, to exhibit the parallelism which is characteristic of Hebrew poetry, has been followed, with similar consequent changes.

The spaces by which a change of subject is indicated in the R.V. also appear without notice.

(2) Matter which forms no part of the text. The headings of the chapters and the headlines of the pages which appear in the A.V. are not given in this edition.

(3) The use of italics. When the only difference between the two Versions consists in the use of italic or roman type, the Revised Version has been followed. To have recorded every variation of this kind would have been to produce an entirely false impression as to the amount of difference between the two Versions. The italics of modern editions of the A.V. are largely due to later editors and not to the translators of 1611; nor is the use of them by any means consistent. The principle which guided the Revisers was, as may be gathered from their Prefaces, to print in ordinary type all words which are plainly implied in the original language and are necessary in English, and to reserve the use of italics for words which do not appear to be distinctly involved in the original.

The central references are those of the edition of the R.V. with references published by the University Presses in 1898. For all explanations the reader is referred to the Preface prefixed to that edition, which is reprinted at the beginning of this book (p. vii).

The marginal notes of the Revised Version, which form an important part of the Revisers' work, and should by no means be neglected, appear at the foot of the pages with figures prefixed: those of the Authorised Version are placed below them, marked by the signs *, †, etc.

PREFACE TO THE EDITION WITH MARGINAL REFERENCES.

THE Companies appointed for the Revision of the Old and New Testaments had the question of marginal references under consideration at an early period in the course of their work. They submitted it to two small Committees, one from each Company, who were requested to confer and report to the Companies. The Committee of the Old Testament Company were of opinion that, until it was known whether the Revised Version would be accepted, it would be premature to furnish it with marginal references, and no further steps were taken by them. The Committee of the New Testament Company, however, the active members of which were Dr. Scrivener and Dr. Moulton, compiled a very elaborate body of marginal references for the New Testament, which were printed for the use of the Company, but for which the Committee alone were responsible.

In preparing these references the Committee were allowed by the Syndics of the Cambridge University Press to make use of the references in the Paragraph Bible edited for them by Dr. Scrivener in 1873. The references so prepared were submitted to the Company, who expressed a general approval of them, but resolved to issue the Revised Version of the New Testament in the first instance without any marginal references, except such as had already been inserted by them. At the same time they conveyed to the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge their earnest wish that, in consideration of the labour care and thought bestowed upon these references, a place might be found for them in their integrity in some editions of the Revised Version. It was therefore agreed by the University Presses to print one edition at least of the Revised Version of the New Testament with the marginal references prepared by the Committee of the New Testament Company of Revisers. After the death of Dr. Scrivener the task of final revision and verification remained in Dr. Moulton's hands, but owing to unforeseen delays it had not been completed at the time of his death in February, 1898.

In 1895 the University Presses undertook to meet the increasing demand, both at home and in America, for an edition of the complete Revised Version with marginal references. A Committee was appointed to superintend the work, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Price, Master of Pembroke College, Oxford; the Ven. Dr. Palmer, Archdeacon of Oxford; Dr. W. Aldis Wright, Vice-Master of Trinity College, Cambridge; and the Rev. Dr. Kirkpatrick, Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Cambridge. On Archdeacon Palmer's death in October 1895, the Rev. Dr. Ince, Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford, succeeded to his place on the Committee.

The general editorship was entrusted to the Rev. Dr. Stokoe of Lincoln College, Oxford, and the following scholars were appointed to assist him in preparing the references for the Old Testament and Apocrypha; the Rev. Dr. Barnes, Fellow of Peterhouse, Cambridge; the Rev. A. W. Greenup, St John's College, Cambridge; the Rev. E. R. Massey, Exeter College, Oxford; and the Rev. J. W. Nutt, late Fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford. In regard to the New Testament references Dr. Stokoe was instructed to confer with Dr. Moulton, who undertook to adapt for this edition the fuller body of references upon which he had been engaged. Since Dr. Moulton's death, this part of the work has been completed, under the Editor's supervision, by the Rev. J. H. Moulton, late Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, and the Rev. A. W. Greenup, both of whom had already been assisting Dr. Moulton.

The marginal references given in the original edition of the Authorised Version of 1611 have been retained as far as possible, and the Contributors have availed themselves largely of the references in Dr. Scrivener's Paragraph Bible, which they were instructed to make the basis of their work.

The references given may be arranged under the following heads:—

1. Quotations, or exact verbal parallels.
2. Passages referred to for similarity of idea or of expression.
3. Passages referred to by way of explanation or illustration.
4. Historical and Geographical references:—names of persons, places, etc., which recur.
5. Passages referred to as illustrating differences of rendering between the Authorised and Revised Versions.

The following modes of indication have been used:—

1. A simple index letter is employed, when there is an exact or close parallel between the passages.
2. "Cited", or "Cited from", is prefixed to cases of actual quotation.
3. "Cp." (compare) is prefixed to references, when the parallel is less exact.
4. "See" is prefixed:—
   (a) When reference is made to a parallel passage, on which a body of references has been collected:
   (b) In referring to longer passages, parallel or explanatory. When one longer passage is given as a parallel to another of similar length, the mode of indication is "For &c., see &c.".
5. "al." (=alibi, elsewhere) is added to indicate that all the parallel passages are not given.

6. "(?)" is placed after a reference, when its appropriateness is doubtful.
7. "(mg.)", "(& mg.)", "(for mg.)", "(mg. for mg.)" are used when references relate solely or partly to the Revisers' marginal renderings.

When several references are given, with different modes of indication, they are arranged in this order:—

1. References with simple index letter:
2. „ which have "Cited" or "Cited from" prefixed:
3. „ which have "Cp." prefixed:
4. „ which have "See" prefixed.

When several references have the same mode of indication, they are arranged as follows:—

1. References to other verses in the same Chapter:
2. „ to other passages in the same Book:
3. „ to passages in other Books, according to the order of these Books in the Bible.

The Revisers' marginal renderings are transferred in this edition to the foot of the page, together with all other notes in the margin of the Revised Version, except:—

(a) When simple references given by the Revisers have been incorporated in the new body of references:

(b) When a marginal note refers to some different division or order in the original.

In previous editions of the Revised Version the numbers of the verses were placed on the inner margin of each page.

PREFACE OF THE REVISERS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.

THE Revision of the Authorised Version was undertaken in consequence of a Resolution passed by both houses of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, as has been fully explained in the Preface to the Revised Version of the New Testament, which was first published in May 1881. When the two Companies were appointed for carrying out this work, the following General Principles, among others, were laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for their guidance:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.'

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.'

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin*.'

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.'

In order to shew the manner in which the Old Testament Company have endeavoured to carry out their instructions, it will be convenient to treat the subjects mentioned in the foregoing rules in a somewhat different order.

It will be observed that in Rule 4 the word 'Text' is used in a different sense from that in Rule 1, and in the case of the Old Testament denotes the Hebrew or Aramaic original of the several books. In this respect the task of the Revisers has been much simpler than that which the New Testament Company had before them. The Received, or, as it is commonly called, the Massoretic Text of the Old Testament Scriptures has come down to us in manuscripts which are of no very great antiquity, and which all belong to the same family or recension[1]. That other recensions were at one time in existence is probable from the variations in the Ancient Versions, the oldest of which, namely the Greek or Septuagint, was made, at least in part, some two centuries before the Christian era. But as the state of knowledge on the subject is not at present such as to justify any attempt at an entire reconstruction of the text on the authority of the Versions, the Revisers have thought it most prudent to adopt the Massoretic Text as the basis of their work, and to depart from it, as the Authorised Translators had done[2], only in exceptional cases. With regard to the variations in the Massoretic Text itself, the Revisers have endeavoured to translate what appeared to them to be the best reading in the text, and where the alternative reading seemed sufficiently probable or important they have placed it in the margin. In some few instances of extreme difficulty a reading has been adopted on the authority of the Ancient Versions, and the departure from the Massoretic Text recorded in the margin. In other cases, where the versions appeared to supply a very probable though not so necessary a correction of the text, the text has been left and the variation indicated in the margin only.

* In the present edition these marginal notes are transferred to the foot of each page. (See Preface to the edition with marginal references.)

[1] The earliest MS. of which the age is certainly known bears date A.D. 916.

[2] See, for instance, 2 Sam. xvi. 12; 2 Chr. iii. 1, xxii. 6; Job xxxvii. 7; Ezek. xlvi. 10; Am. v. 26; Hag. i. 2.

In endeavouring to carry out as fully as possible the spirit of Rules 1 and 2, the Revisers have borne in mind that it was their duty not to make a new translation but to revise one already existing, which for more than two centuries and a half had held the position of an English classic. They have therefore departed from it only in cases where they disagreed with the Translators of 1611 as to the meaning or construction of a word or sentence; or where it was necessary for the sake of uniformity to render such parallel passages as were identical in Hebrew by the same English words, so that an English reader might know at once by comparison that a difference in the translation corresponded to a difference in the original; or where the language of the Authorised Version was liable to be misunderstood by reason of its being archaic or obscure; or finally, where the rendering of an earlier English version seemed preferable, or where by an apparently slight change it was possible to bring out more fully the meaning of a passage of which the translation was already substantially accurate.

It has been thought advisable in regard to the word 'JEHOVAH' to follow the usage of the Authorised Version, and not to insert it uniformly in place of 'LORD' or 'GOD', which when printed in small capitals represent the words substituted by Jewish custom for the ineffable Name according to the vowel points by which it is distinguished. It will be found therefore that in this respect the Authorised Version has been departed from only in a few passages, in which the introduction of a proper name seemed to be required.

Terms of natural history have been changed only where it was certain that the Authorised Version was incorrect and where there was sufficient evidence for the substituted rendering. In cases of doubt the alternative rendering has been given in the margin; and even where no doubt existed, but where there was no familiar English equivalent for the original word, the Old Version has been allowed to remain[1], and the more accurate term has been placed in the margin.

In some words of very frequent occurrence, the Authorised Version being either inadequate or inconsistent, and sometimes misleading, changes have been introduced with as much uniformity as appeared practicable or desirable. For instance, 'the tabernacle of the congregation' has been everywhere changed to 'the tent of meeting', on account of Exodus xxv. 22, xxix. 42, 43, and also because 'the tabernacle of the congregation' conveys an entirely wrong sense. The words 'tabernacle' and 'tent', as the renderings of two different Hebrew words, are in the Authorised Version frequently interchanged in such a manner as to lead to confusion; and the Revisers have endeavoured throughout the Pentateuch to preserve a consistent distinction between them. Their practice in regard to the words 'assembly' and 'congregation' has been the same in principle, although they have contented themselves with introducing greater consistency of rendering without aiming at absolute uniformity. In consequence of the changes which have taken place in the English language, the term 'meat offering' has become inappropriate to describe an offering of which flesh was no part; and by the alteration to 'meal offering' a sufficiently accurate representation of the original has been obtained with the least possible change of form.

As regards the use of words, there are only a few cases in which it has been found needful to deviate from the language employed in the Authorised Version. One of these deviations occurs so frequently that it may be well to state briefly why it was adopted. The word 'peoples' was nowhere used by King James's Translators in the Old Testament, and in the New Testament it occurs only twice (Rev. x. 11, xvii. 15). The effect of this was to leave the rendering of numerous passages inadequate or obscure or even positively misleading. Thus in one of the best known Psalms (Ps. lxvii.), where the Septuagint has λαοί and the Vulgate populi, the English had 'Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee'; leaving it at least doubtful whether the 'nations' of verse 4, or God's people, Israel, be referred to. And in Isaiah lv. 4, 'Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people', the word 'people' is naturally understood by the English reader to refer to Israel.

Again, the Hebrew word goyim 'nations', which is applied to the nations of Canaan dispossessed by the Hebrews, and then also to the surrounding nations among whom the people of Israel were afterwards dispersed, acquired in later times a moral significance, which is represented in the Authorised Version by the rendering 'heathen' or 'Gentiles'. While recognizing this moral sense of the word, the Revisers have employed it much more sparingly than their predecessors had done.

Similarly, the Hebrew Sheôl, which signifies the abode of departed spirits, and corresponds to the Greek Hades, or the under world, is variously rendered in the Authorised Version by 'grave', 'pit', and 'hell'. Of these renderings 'hell', if it could be taken in its original sense as used in the Creeds, would be a fairly adequate equivalent for the Hebrew word; but it is so commonly understood of the place of torment that to employ it frequently would lead to inevitable misunderstanding. The Revisers therefore in the historical narratives have left the rendering 'the grave' or 'the pit' in the text, with a marginal note 'Heb. Sheol' to indicate that it does not signify 'the place of burial'; while in the poetical writings they have put most commonly 'Sheol' in the text and 'the grave' in the margin. In Isaiah xiv. however, where 'hell' is used in more of its original sense and is less liable to be misunderstood, and where any change in so familiar a passage which was not distinctly an improvement would be a decided loss, the Revisers have contented themselves with leaving 'hell' in the text, and have connected it with other passages by putting 'Sheol' in the margin.

In connexion with this it may be mentioned that 'Abaddon', which has hitherto been known to the English reader of the Bible only from the New Testament (Rev. ix. 11), has been introduced in three passages (Job xxvi. 6; Prov. xv. 11, xxvii. 20), where a proper name appears to be required for giving vividness and point.

The Hebrew word Ashêrah, which is uniformly and wrongly rendered 'grove' in the Authorised Version, most probably denotes the wooden symbol of a goddess; and the Revisers therefore have not hesitated to introduce it as a proper name in the singular (Judg. vi. 25, &c.), with the plurals Asherim (Ex. xxxiv. 13, &c.) and Asheroth (Judg. iii. 7, &c.), following the analogy of the Baalim (Judg. iii. 7) and the Ashtaroth (Judg. ii. 13), which are already familiar.

In regard to the language of the Authorised Version, the Revisers have thought it no part of their duty to reduce it to conformity with modern usage, and have therefore left untouched all archaisms, whether of language or construction, which though not in familiar use cause a reader no embarrassment and lead to no misunderstanding. They are aware that in so doing they will disappoint the large English-speaking race on the other side of the Atlantic, and it is a question upon which they are prepared to agree to a friendly difference of opinion. The principle by which they have been guided has been clear and consistent. Where an archaic word or expression was liable to be misunderstood or at least was not perfectly intelligible, they have substituted for it another, in equally good use at the time the Authorised Version was made, and expressing all that the archaism was intended to convey, but more familiar to the modern reader. In such cases the gain was greater than the loss. But in other instances where the word or expression, although obsolete, was not unintelligible, it was thought that the change would involve greater loss than gain, and the old rendering was therefore allowed to stand. More especially was this the case when the archaism was a perfectly correct rendering of the original and there was no exact modern equivalent for it. The principle adopted by the Company will be best illustrated by two typical examples. The verb 'to ear' in the sense of 'to plough' and the substantive 'earing' for 'ploughing' were very reluctantly abandoned, and only because it was ascertained that their meaning was unknown to many persons of good intelligence and education. But it was easy to put in their place equivalents which had a pedigree of almost equal antiquity, and it would have been an excess of conservatism to refuse to substitute for an unintelligible archaism an expression to which no ambiguity could be attached. On the other hand the word 'bolled' (Ex. ix. 31), which signifies 'podded for seed' and is known in provincial dialects, has no synonym in literary English. To have discarded it in favour of a less accurate or more paraphrastic expression would have been to impoverish the language; and it was therefore left, because it exactly expresses one view which is taken of the meaning of the original.

One of the few instances in which the language of the Authorised Version has been modified in accordance with later usage is the change of the neuter possessive pronoun from 'his' to 'its'. It is well known that 'its' does not occur in the Bible of 1611, and it does not appear to have been introduced into any edition before 1660. But it is found ten times in Shakespeare, and there is other evidence to shew that at the time of the Authorised Version it was coming into use. It was found necessary in some cases to substitute 'its' for 'his' in order to avoid obscurity, and there seemed no good reason, when it was once introduced, for refusing to admit it generally when it referred to purely inanimate objects.

In making minor changes, whether in translation or language, the Revisers have followed the example of the translators of the Authorised Version, who allowed themselves in this respect a reasonable freedom, without permitting their liberty to degenerate into license.

It will be at once seen that the old division of the books into chapters and verses has been abandoned in favour of the arrangement in paragraphs, the numbering of the chapters and verses being however retained for convenience of reference. Where the change of subject seemed to require a greater break than was marked by the beginning of a new paragraph, it has been indicated by a space before the paragraph. Occasionally the divisions of the chapters in the Authorised Version differ from those in the common Hebrew Bibles. In such cases the variations are given in the margin. In the Psalms, the titles are printed in smaller type, as in some modern English Bibles, which differ in this respect from the edition of 1611. One consequence of the arrangement in paragraphs has been the omission of the headings of chapters, which for other and more important reasons it was thought advisable to abandon, as involving questions which belong rather to the province of the commentator than to that of the translator. With the headings of chapters the head-lines of pages naturally disappeared also, and for the same reason.

In the poetical portions, besides the division into paragraphs, the Revisers have adopted an arrangement in lines, so as to exhibit the parallelism which is characteristic of Hebrew Poetry. But they have not extended this arrangement to the prophetical books, the language of which although frequently marked by parallelism is, except in purely lyrical passages, rather of the nature of lofty and impassioned prose.

In the use of italics the Revisers departed from the custom of the Authorised Version and adopted as their rule the following resolution of their Company:

'That all such words now printed in italics, as are plainly implied in the Hebrew and necessary in English, be printed in common type.'

But where any doubt existed as to the exact rendering of the Hebrew, all words which have been added in order to give completeness to the English expression are printed in italic type, so that the reader by omitting them may be able to see how far their insertion is justified by the words of the original. This of course is especially true of those renderings for which an alternative is given in the margin, where the roman and italic type play exactly opposite parts.

To complete the account of the Revised Version it remains only to describe the marginal notes. These will be found to contain

(1) The renderings of such variations in the Massoretic Text as appeared to be of sufficient importance. These variations are known by the technical names of K'ri (read) and C'thib (written), which denote that the K'ri, or reading in the margin of the Hebrew Bible, is to be substituted for the C'thib which appears in the written text. The Revisers have generally, though not uniformly, rendered the C'thib in the text, and left the K'ri in the margin, with the introductory note 'Or, according to another reading', or 'Another reading is'. When the K'ri has been followed in the text, the C'thib has been placed in the margin, if it represented a variation of sufficient importance.

(2) Alternative renderings, introduced by 'Or'. These are either different meanings of the word or passage, or they serve to connect it with other renderings elsewhere.

(3) Literal renderings of the Hebrew or Aramaic, indicated by the prefix 'Heb.' or 'Aram.'

(4) Changes of text made on the authority of the ancient Versions.

(5) Readings from ancient Versions which appeared to be of sufficient importance to be noticed.

(6) Renderings of the Hebrew consonants as read with different vowel points, or as differently divided. These are introduced by the words 'Or, as otherwise read'.

(7) Marginal references to other passages, which are either strictly parallel, or serve the purpose of illustrating or justifying a particular rendering.

(8) Explanations of certain proper names, the meaning of which is referred to in the text.

In the Proper Names the Revisers have endeavoured to ascertain the system of transliteration adopted by the Translators of the Authorised Version and to carry it out with somewhat greater consistency. They have not however attempted anything like rigid uniformity, and have left unchanged all those names which by usage have become English; as, for instance, Moses, Aaron, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the like.

Among the Rules laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for the guidance of the Revisers was one that no change should be finally made in the text of the Authorised Version except by the vote of two-thirds of the Company present and voting; and this Rule has been invariably acted upon. The result has been that in many cases a rendering which was preferred by the majority of the Company voting has been recorded in the margin, the majority not being sufficient to give it a place in the text. But all questions of marginal readings, as well as of punctuation and division into paragraphs, except where these affected the sense of a passage, were decided by a simple majority.

It may be of some interest to describe the method observed by the Company in their work, if only to shew that every question raised was carefully and deliberately considered. In the first Revision it was the practice for the Secretary to read over each verse, first in the original and then in the Authorised Version: the proposals for change were then taken; first those communicated in writing by absent members, and next those made by the members present. Each proposal was moved, and if seconded was discussed and voted upon; the decision in the first Revision being by a majority only. If a proposal met with no seconder, it was not discussed but allowed to drop. In the second Revision, the Secretary read out in order the changes which had been made at the first Revision; if these were unchallenged they were allowed to remain, otherwise they were put to the vote and affirmed or rejected according as they were or were not supported by the requisite majority of two-thirds. In the second Revision new propositions could only be made by special permission of the Company, and discussion was limited, as far as possible, to exceptional cases. In the final review, which was in reality the completion of the second Revision, the Company employed themselves in making a general survey of what they had done, deciding finally upon reserved points, harmonizing inconsistencies, smoothing down roughnesses, removing unnecessary changes, and generally giving finish and completeness to their work. Everything in this final survey was decided by the vote of a majority of two-thirds.

The Revisers had already made some progress, and had in fact gone twice through the Pentateuch, before they secured the co-operation of the American Old Testament Revision Company. The first Revision of the several books was submitted to the consideration of the American Revisers, and, except in the case of the Pentateuch, the English Company had the benefit of their criticisms and suggestions before they proceeded to the second Revision. The second Revision was in like manner forwarded to America, and the latest thoughts of the American Revisers were in the hands of the English Company at their final review. In every instance the suggestions from America were treated with the same consideration as those proceeding from members of the English Company, and were adopted or rejected on their merits. It was a part of the terms of agreement with the American Company that all points of ultimate difference between them and the English Revisers should be placed on record, and they will accordingly be found fully stated at the end of the Old Testament, or at the end of the several portions, according as the Revised Version appears in one or more volumes. Many of them will be found to be changes of language which are involved in the essentially different circumstances of American and English readers; others express a preference for the marginal rendering over that given in the text; others again involve a real difference of opinion; but all shew that they have been dictated by the same leading principle, the sincere desire to give to modern readers a faithful representation of the meaning of the original documents.

It could not but be expected that in the course of fourteen years many changes would take place in the members of the Company. Of the original number who first put their hands to the work on the 30th of June 1870, only fifteen now remain. Ten of the Company have been removed by death, and two resigned: the places of these were filled from time to time by others; but since October 1875 no new members have been added. The Revision was completed in eighty-five sessions, ending on 20th June, 1884; and it occupied 792 days. The greater part of the sessions were for ten days each, and each day the Company generally sat for six hours. The labour therefore has been great, but it has been given ungrudgingly; and now with a feeling of deep thankfulness to Almighty God, and the earnest hope that their endeavours may with His blessing tend to a clearer knowledge of the Old Testament Scriptures, the Revisers bring their long task to a close.

Revelation	319

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

[R.V.] COMMONLY CALLED
[A.V.] CALLED

1 IN the [a]beginning God created the heaven and the earth. 2 And the earth was [b]waste and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the spirit of God [1]moved upon the face of the waters. 3 And God said, [d]Let there be light: and there was light. 4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided [*]the light from the darkness. 5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. [†]And there was the evening and there was the morning, one day.

6 And God said, [e]Let there be a [2‡]firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. 7 And God made the firmament, and [h]divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were [i]above the firmament: and it was so. 8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And there was the evening and there was the morning, a second day.

9 And God said, [k]Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. 10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. 11 And God said, [c]Let the earth put forth bring [§]grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree bearing yielding fruit after its his kind, wherein is the seed thereof, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. 12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after its his kind, and the tree bearing yielding fruit, wherein is the seed thereof, whose seed was in itself, after its his kind: and God saw that it was good. 13 And there was the evening and there was morning, a the morning were the third day.

14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide [‖]the day from the night; and let them be for [f]signs, and for [g]seasons, and for days, and years: 15 and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. 16 And God [j]made the two great lights; the greater light []to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. 17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, 18 and to [l]rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good. 19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and let fowl fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. 21 And God created the great sea-monsters, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kinds, and every winged fowl after its kind: and God saw that it was good. 22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth. 23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after its kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after its kind: and it was so. 25 And God made the beast of the earth after its kind, and the cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the ground after its kind: and God saw that it was good. 26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. 27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. 28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. 29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat: 30 and to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so. 31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. 2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. 3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God had created and made.

4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, 5 And no plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprung up before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground;

6 but But *there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. 7 And the LORD God formed man †of the [c]dust of the ground, and [d]breathed into his [e]nostrils the breath of life; and [g]man became a living soul. 8 And the LORD God planted a [h]garden eastward, eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed. 9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; [i]the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, [j]and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. 10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads. 11 The name of the first is [l]Pishon Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of [m]Havilah, where there is gold; 12 and the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the [1]onyx stone. 13 And the name of the second river is [p]Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of ‡Cush. Ethiopia. 14 And the name of the third river is [2r]Hiddekel: that is it which goeth [3]in front §toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates. 15 And the LORD God took ‖the man, [t]and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. 16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: 17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, [u]thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof ††thou [v]shalt surely die.

18 And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; [a]I will make him an help ‡‡meet for him. 19 [b]And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and [f]brought them unto §§the man Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever the man Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof. 20 And the man Adam *gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for 5man Adam there was not found an help meet for him. 21 And the LORD God caused a [k]deep sleep to fall upon the man, Adam, and he slept; slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof: thereof; 22 and the rib, which the LORD God had taken from the man, 6†made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. 23 And the man Adam said, This is now [n]bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called 7‡Woman, because she was [o]taken out of 8§Man. 24 [q]Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. 25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

3 1 Now [s]the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, ‖Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of 9any every tree of the garden? 2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat: 3 [w]but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. 4 [a]And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: 5 for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as [1]God, gods, knowing good and evil. 6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was [a]*pleasant delight to the eyes, and [that the a] tree [was] [2]to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, [e]and did [eat; eat,] and [she and] gave also unto her husband with [her, her;] and [g]he did eat. 7 And [i]the eyes of them both were opened, [j]and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves [3]†aprons. 8 And they heard the [4]voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the [5]‡cool of the day: and [the man Adam] and his wife [m]hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. 9 And the LORD God called unto [the man, Adam,] and said unto him, Where art thou? 10 And he said, I heard thy [4]voice in the garden, and I was afraid, [q]because I was naked; and I hid myself. 11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? 12 And the man said, [t]The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. 13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, [v]The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. 14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, [cursed art thou thou art cursed] 6 above all cattle, and [6]above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and [b]dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: 15 and I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and [e]her [seed seed;] [d]it shall [7]bruise thy head, and thou shalt [7]bruise his heel. 16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; [f]in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; [h]and thy desire shall be §to thy husband, and he shall [k]rule over thee. 17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, [l]of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: [n]cursed is the ground for thy sake; [o]in [8]toil sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; 18 thorns also and thistles shall it ‖bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; 19 in the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, [p]till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: [r]for dust thou art, and [s]unto dust shalt thou return. 20 And [the man Adam] called his wife's name [9]Eve; because she was the mother of all living. 21 And the LORD God made for Adam and for his wife [Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make] coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 And the LORD God said, [u]Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and [evil; evil:] and now, lest he put forth his hand, [w]and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever: 23 therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, [a]to till the ground from whence he was taken. 24 So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden the [d]Cherubim, Cherubims, and the flame of a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

4 1 And the man Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare *Cain, and said, I have [1]gotten a man with the help of from the LORD. 2 And again she she again bare his brother †Abel. And Abel was ‡a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. 3 And §in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of [h]the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD. 4 And Abel, he also brought of [j]the firstlings of his ‖flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD [k]had respect unto Abel and to his offering: 5 but [m]unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell. 6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? 7 [o]If thou doest well, [2]shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin coucheth lieth at the door: door. and And [p]††unto thee [3]shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him. 8 And Cain [4]told talked with Abel his brother. brother: And and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and [q]slew him. 9 And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, [r]I know not: am Am I my brother's keeper? 10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's ‡‡blood [b]crieth unto me from the ground. 11 And now [c]cursed art thou art thou cursed from the ground, earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand; 12 when thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a wanderer vagabond shalt thou be in the earth. 13 And Cain said unto the LORD, [5]§§My [e]punishment is greater [6]than I can bear. 14 Behold, [f]thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the ground earth; and [g]from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, [i]that whosoever every one that findeth me shall slay me. 15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him [l]sevenfold. And the LORD [n]appointed a sign for set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should smite kill him.

16 And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of [7]Nod, [8]on the east of Eden. 17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare *Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch. 18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methushael Methusael: and Methushael Methusael begat †Lamech. 19 And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. 20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle. 21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ. 22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, [1]the forger of every cutting instrument of artificer in [2]brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah. 23 And Lamech said unto his wives:

Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
Ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech:
For [3]†I have slain a man [4]for my wounding me,
And a young man for bruising me: ‡to my hurt.

24 [c]If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold,
Truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name [5]§Seth: For, God, said she, [6]hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew. 26 And to [d]Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name [e]Enosh ‖Enos: then began men [f] to call upon the name of the LORD.

5 [1] This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, [g]in the likeness of God made he him; [2] male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name [7]Adam, in the day when they were created. [3] And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and [i]called his name Seth: [4] [j]and the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters: [5] And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: [a]and he died.

[6] And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and [b]begat Enosh: [7] and Seth lived after he begat Enosh eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters: [8] and all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

[9] And Enosh lived ninety years, and begat ††Kenan: [10] and Enosh lived after he begat Kenan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters: [11] and all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

[12] And Kenan lived seventy years, and begat ‡‡Mahalaleel: [13] and Kenan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters: [14] and all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

[15] And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat §§Jared: [16] and Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters: [17] and all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

the LORD. 10 And the beginning of his kingdom was [a*]Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in [b]the land of Shinar. 11 Out of that land [1]he †went forth into Assyria, Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and ‡the city Rehoboth, Rehoboth-Ir, and Calah, 12 and Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city. Calah (the city).

13 [d]And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 14 and Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (whence went forth [2]the Philistines), and [e]Caphtorim. Casluhim (out of whom came Philistim,)

15 And [f]Canaan begat his firstborn, Zidon §Sidon, and Heth; Heth, 16 and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite; Girgasite, 17 and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite; Sinite, 18 and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanite Canaanites spread abroad. 19 And the border of the Canaanite Canaanites was from Zidon, Sidon, as thou comest to goest toward Gerar, unto ‖Gaza; as thou goest toward Sodom goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah Gomorrah, and Admah Admah, and Zeboiim, Zeboim, even unto Lasha. 20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, countries, and in their nations.

21 And unto Shem, Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, [3]the elder brother of Japheth, Japheth the elder, even to him also were children born. 22 The [k]sons children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arpachshad, Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram. 23 And the sons children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash. 24 And Arpachshad Arphaxad [4]begat [m]Shelah ††Salah; and Shelah Salah begat Eber. 25 [n]And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of [the] one was [5]‡‡Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. 26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, Jerah; 27 and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, Diklah; 28 and [6]Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, Sheba; 29 and [c]Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan. 30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest toward unto Sephar, the [7]mountain Sephar a mount of the east. 31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: [g]and of by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

II 1 And the whole earth was of one §language §§language, and of one [9*]speech. 2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed †from the [10]east, that they found a plain in [h]the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. 3 And ‡they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and §burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, [i]and [11]slime had they for mortar. morter. 4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, city, and a tower, [j]whose top may reach unto heaven, heaven; and let us make us a name; name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. 5 And [l]the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. 6 And the LORD said, Behold, they are one people, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this [is what] they begin to do: and now nothing will be withholden restrained from them, which they purpose have imagined to 10 [f]These are the generations of Shem. Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arpachshad Arphaxad two years after the flood: 11 and Shem lived after he begat Arpachshad Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arpachshad Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Shelah Salah: 13 and Arpachshad Arphaxad lived after he begat Shelah Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Shelah Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber: 15 and Shelah Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and [a]tell the stars, if thou be able to (tell / number) them: and he said unto him, [b]So shall thy seed be. 6 And [d]he believed in the LORD; and [f]he counted it to him for righteousness. 7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that [g]brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, [h]to give thee this land to inherit it. 8 And he said, O Lord GOD, [i]whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? 9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a (she-goat / she goat) of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. 10 And he took (unto / him) all these, and [l]divided them in the midst, and laid each (half over / piece one) against (the other / another): but [n]the birds divided he not. 11 And (the birds of prey / when the fowls) came down upon the carcases, (and / Abram) drove them away. 12 And when the sun was going down, a [o]deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him. 13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety [q]that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and [s]they shall afflict them [t]four hundred years; 14 and also that nation, whom they shall serve, [u]will I judge: and afterward [v]shall they come out with great substance. 15 (But / And) thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; [x]thou shalt be buried in a good old age. 16 (And / But) in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for [y]the iniquity of the (Amorite / Amorites) [z]is not yet full. 17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and *a (flaming torch / burning lamp) that passed between (these / those) pieces. 18 In (that / the same) day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, [c]Unto thy seed have I given this land, from [e]the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates: 19 the (Kenite, / Kenites,) and the (Kenizzite, / Kenizzites,) and the (Kadmonite, / Kadmonites,) 20 and the (Hittite, / Hittites,) and the (Perizzite, / Perizzites,) and the (Rephaim, / Rephaims,) 21 and the (Amorite, / Amorites,) and the (Canaanite, / Canaanites,) and the (Girgashite, / Girgashites,) and the (Jebusite. / Jebusites.)

16 1 [j]Now Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was [k]Hagar. 2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from (bearing; / bearing:) (go in, / go in) I pray thee, unto my (handmaid / maid); it may be [m]that I (shall / may) †[1] obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai. 3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar (her maid / her handmaid,) the Egyptian, after Abram [p]had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to (Abram her husband / her husband; Abram) to be his wife. 4 And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress [r]was despised in her eyes. 5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I (gave / have given) my (handmaid / maid) into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: [w]the LORD judge between me and thee. 6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her (that which is good in thine eyes. / ‡as it pleaseth thee.) And (when / Sarai) §dealt hardly with her, (and / she) fled from her face. 7 And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city. 17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; [b]look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the [c]Plain plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed. 18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, [1]my lord Lord: 19 behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some [2]evil overtake take me, and I die: 20 behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. 21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted *thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of this city, for the which thou hast spoken. 22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called [3]e† Zoar. 23 The sun was ‡risen upon the earth when Lot came unto entered into Zoar. 24 Then [f]the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven; 25 and he overthrew those cities, and all the Plain plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. 26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became [g]a pillar of salt. 27 And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he [h]had stood before the LORD: 28 and he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the Plain plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the land country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the Plain plain, that God [a]remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot went up out of Zoar, and [d]dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters. 31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth: 32 come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. 33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he knew perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. 34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. 35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he knew perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. 36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father. 37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: [i]the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day. 38 And the younger,

20 [1]And Abraham journeyed from thence toward the land of the South, south country, and dwelt dwelled between [b]Kadesh and Shur; Shur, and he [d]sojourned in [e]Gerar. [2] And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, [g]She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. [3] [i]But God came to Abimelech [j]in a dream of the by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, because of for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is *a man's wife. [4] Now But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, [l]Lord, wilt thou slay even also a righteous nation? [5] Said he not himself unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the †integrity of my heart and the innocency of my hands have I done this. [6] And God said unto him in the a dream, Yea, I know that in the thou integrity of thy heart thou hast done this, and didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning [q]against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. [7] Now therefore restore the man's man his wife; [s]for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, [u]and all that are thine. [8] And Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid. [9] Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and wherein what have I sinned against offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done. [10] And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing? [11] And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely [c]the fear of God is not in this place; and [f]they will slay me for my wife's sake. [12] And moreover yet indeed [h]she is indeed my sister, sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife: [13] and And it came to pass, when [k]God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, [m]say of me, He is my brother. [14] And Abimelech [n]took sheep and oxen, and menservants menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife. [15] And Abimelech said, Behold, [o]my land is before thee: dwell ‡where it pleaseth thee. [16] And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given [p]thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, [1]it he is for to thee [r]a covering of the eyes to eyes, unto all that are with thee; thee, and [2]in respect of all with all other: thus she was reproved. thou art righted. [17] And [t]Abraham So prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children. to him. 3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, [b]Isaac. 4 And Abraham [c]circumcised his son Isaac when he was being eight days old, [d]as God had commanded him. 5 And [e]Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him. 6 And Sarah said, [f]God hath [1]made me to laugh; every one that heareth laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me. 7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should give have given children suck? [g]for I have borne born him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned. 9 And Sarah [i]saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had borne born unto Abraham, [2][j]mocking. 10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, [k]Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac. 11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account because of his son. 12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah saith hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for [o]in Isaac shall thy seed be called. 13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make [p]a nation, because he is thy seed. 14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread bread, and a [3]bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of [a]Beer-sheba. 15 And the water in the bottle was spent, was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. 16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not look upon see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept. 17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is. 18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation. 19 And [h]God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink. 20 And God was with the lad, lad; and he grew; grew, and [4]dwelt in the wilderness, [l]and [4]became an archer. 21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 And it came to pass at that time, that [m]Abimelech and Phicol Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, [n]God is with thee in all that thou doest: 23 now therefore swear unto me here by God *that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with [5]my son, nor with my son's son: but [q]according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. 24 And Abraham said, I will swear. 25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of

Abraham's servant. 35 And the LORD [a]hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, flocks, and herds, and silver, silver, and gold, and menservants, menservants, and maidservants, and camels, camels, and asses. 36 And Sarah my master's wife [b]bare a son to my master when she was old: and [c]unto him hath he given all that he hath. 37 And [d]my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife for to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell: 38 but thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife for unto my son. 39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me. 40 And he said unto me, The LORD, [g]before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and [h]prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house: 41 then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give her not to thee, not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath. 42 And I came this day unto the fountain, well, and said, [l]O LORD, the LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou [h]do prosper my way which I go: 43 behold, I stand [m]by the fountain well of water; and let it it shall come to pass, that the maiden which when the virgin cometh forth to draw, to whom I shall say, draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink; 44 [o]and she shall say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son. 45 And before I had done [p]speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the fountain, well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee. 46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also. 47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: [e]and I put the ring earring upon her nose, face, and the bracelets upon her hands. 48 [f]And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, [i]the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take [i]my master's brother's daughter for unto his son. 49 And now if ye will [j]deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left. 50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot [k]speak unto thee bad or good. 51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, [n]as the LORD hath spoken. 52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, [f]he bowed himself down worshipped the LORD, to the earth unto the LORD. bowing himself to the earth. 53 And the servant brought forth *jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things. 54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, [a]Send me away unto my master. 55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us *[a] a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go. 56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master. 57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and inquire at her mouth. 58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go. 59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and [e]her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men. 60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Our Thou art our sister, be thou [g]the mother of thousands of ten thousands, millions, and [i]let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them. 61 And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way. 62 And Isaac came [1]from the way of [m]Beer-lahai-roi the well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the land of the South. south country. 63 And Isaac went out [n]† to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, there were camels the camels were coming. 64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel. 65 And For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: and therefore she took her veil, a vail, and covered herself. 66 And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. 67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was [b]comforted after his mother's [c]death.

25 [1] And Then again Abraham took another a wife, and her name was Keturah. 2 And [d]she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. 3 And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim. 4 And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abida, Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. 5 And [f]Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac. 6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts; gifts, and he [h]sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, [j]unto the east country. 7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years. 8 And Then Abraham [k]gave up the ghost, and [l]died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people. 9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael [o]his sons buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre; 10 the field [p]which Abraham purchased of the children sons of Heth: [q]there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife. 11 And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed Isaac his son. his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by [r]Beer-lahai-roi. the well Lahai-roi.

19 And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: [p]Abraham begat Isaac: 20 and Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah, Rebekah to wife, [q]the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Paddan-aram, Padan-aram, [s]the sister of Laban the Syrian, to be his wife. 21 And Isaac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren: and [t]the LORD was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived. 22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, wherefore why am I thus? And she went [v]to inquire of the LORD. 23 And the LORD said unto her,

[w]Two nations are in thy womb,
And two peoples manner of people shall be separated even from thy bowels: bowels;
And [y]the one people shall be stronger than the other people;
And [b]the elder shall serve the younger.

24 And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb. 25 And the first came forth out red, [d]all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau. 26 And after that came forth his brother, brother out, and [g]his hand had took hold on Esau's heel; and [h]his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them. 27 And the boys grew: and Esau was [j]a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, [l]dwelling in tents. 28 Now And Isaac loved Esau, because [n]he did eat of his venison: and but Rebekah loved Jacob. 29 And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came in from the field, and he was faint: 30 and Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom. 31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. 32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall the birthright do to me? 33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and [u]he sold his birthright unto Jacob. 34 And Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: so thus Esau despised his birthright.

26 1 And there was a famine in the land, beside [x]the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto [z]Abimelech king of the [a]Philistines unto Gerar. 2 And the LORD

a blessing. 13 And his mother said unto him, [a]Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them. 14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved. 15 And Rebekah took the [b]*goodly raiment of Esau her elder son, her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son: 16 and she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck: 17 and she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob. 18 And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son? 19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me. 20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God sent me good speed. brought it †to me. 21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I [i]may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not. 22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. 23 And he discerned him not, because [j]his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: [k]so he blessed him. 24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am. 25 And he said, Bring it near to me, [l]and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank. 26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son. 27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, [k]and blessed him, and said,

See, [c]the smell of my son
Is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:
28 And Therefore God give thee of [d]the dew of heaven,
And of the fatness of the earth,
And [e]plenty of corn and wine:
29 Let peoples people serve thee,
And nations [f]bow down to thee:
[g]Be lord over thy brethren,
And let thy mother's sons bow down to thee:
[h]Cursed be every one that curseth thee,
And blessed be every one he that blesseth thee.

30 And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. 31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father; father, and he said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me. 32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn, firstborn Esau. 33 And Isaac ‡trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who Who? then where is he that hath §taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed.

34 When And when Esau heard the words of his father, [a]he cried with an exceeding great and a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father.
35 And he said, Thy brother came with guile, subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.
36 And he said, [b]Is not he rightly named *Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: [c]he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?
37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, [d]I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and [e]with corn and wine have I †sustained him: and what then shall I do for now unto thee, my son?
38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And [a]Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.
39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him,

Behold, [1]‡of the fatness of the earth thy dwelling shall be ‡the shall be thy dwelling, fatness of the earth,

That [o]thou shalt shake break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 And Esau [q]hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, [s]The days of mourning for my father are at hand; [t]then will I slay my brother Jacob.
42 And the these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah; Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.
43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran;
44 and tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;
45 until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be bereaved deprived also of you both in one day?
46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, [f]I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: [g]if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these, these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

28 1 And Isaac called Jacob, [h]and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, [g]Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.
2 [j]Arise, go to [k]Paddan-aram, Padan-aram, to the house of [l]Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother.

Esau's mother. 6 Now When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob Jacob, and sent him away to Paddan-aram, Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan; 7 and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Paddan-aram: Padan-aram; 8 and Esau saw seeing [c]that the daughters of Canaan [*]pleased not Isaac his father; 9 and Esau went Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had [f]Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of [g]Nebajoth, Nebajoth, to be his wife.

10 And Jacob went out from [i]Beer-sheba, and went toward [k]Haran. 11 And he lighted upon [1]a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took one of the stones of the that place, and put it under his head, them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep. 12 And he [m]dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold [p]the angels of God ascending and descending on it. 13 And, behold, [r]the LORD stood [2]above it, and said, [s]I am the LORD, the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: [u]the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; 14 and thy seed shall be as [v]the dust of the earth, and thou shalt [3]† spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and [w]in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. 15 And, behold, [x]I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever in all places whither thou goest, and [y]will bring thee again into this land; for I will [a]not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. 16 And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is [b]in this place; and I knew it not. 17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven. 18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head, for his pillows, and set it up [d]for a pillar, [e]and poured oil upon the top of it. 19 And he called the name of that place [4]‡ [h]Beth-el: but the name of the that city was was called Luz at the first. 20 And Jacob [j]vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, 21 [l]so that I come again to my father's house in peace, peace; [5]n then shall the LORD be my God, God: 22 and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, [o]shall be God's house: and [q]of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

29 1 Then Jacob [6]§ went on his journey, and came to into [t]the land of the children ‖ people of the east. 2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying there by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a the great stone was upon the well's mouth was great. 3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in its his place. 4 And Jacob

34 1 And [h] Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. 2 And when Shechem the son of [i] Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, country, saw her; and her, he took her, and lay with her, and humbled ‡defiled her. 3 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake [3k§] kindly unto the damsel. 4 And Shechem [l] spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife. 5 Now And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter; and daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they came. were come. 6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him. 7 And the sons of Jacob came in from out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and [m] they were very wroth, because he [n] had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; [o] which thing ought not to be done. 8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her unto him to wife. 9 And make ye marriages with us; us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you. 10 And ye shall dwell with us: and [s] the land shall be before you; dwell and [a] trade ye therein, and [b] get you possessions therein. 11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, [d] Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give. 12 Ask me never so much [g] dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife. 13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father with guile, deceitfully, and spake, said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister; sister: 14 and they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for [j] that were a reproach unto us: 15 only on this condition But in this will we consent unto you: if If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised; 16 then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. 17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone. 18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son. 19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and [o] he was honoured above more honourable than all the house of his father. 20 And Hamor and Shechem his son [q] came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and [r] trade therein; for, behold, the land is for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our

35 1 And God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to [a]Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, (who / that) appeared unto thee [b]when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother. 2 Then Jacob said unto his [c]household, and to all that were with him, Put away [d]the strange gods that are among you, and [f](purify yourselves, / be clean,) and change your garments: 3 and let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, [g]who answered me in the day of my distress, and [h]was with me in the way which I went. 4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and (the rings / all their earrings) which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under [k]the [2]oak which was by Shechem. 5 And they journeyed: and [3‡](a great terror / the terror of God) was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob. 6 So Jacob came to [m]Luz, which is in the land of (Canaan / Canaan, (the same is / that is,) Beth-el), he and all the people that were with him. 7 And he built there an altar, and called the place [4†]El-beth-el: because [n]there God (was revealed / appeared) unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother. 8 (And / But) [o]Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried (below / beneath) Beth-el under [q](the / an) oak: and the name of it was called [5‡](Allon-bacuth. / Allon-bachuth.)

9 And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came (from Paddan-aram, / out of Padan-aram,) and blessed him. 10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: [u]thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but [v]Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream. 8 And it came to pass in the morning [a]that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the [1b]magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh. 9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I [2]do remember my faults this day: 10 Pharaoh was [c]wroth with his servants, [d]and put me in ward in the house of [e]the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker: 11 and [f]we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. 12 And there was a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and [g]he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. 13 And it came to pass, [i]as he interpreted to us, so it was; [3]me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged. 14 [k]Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they [l*]brought him hastily [m]out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh. 15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and [†]I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it. 16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, [q]It is not in me: [s]God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. 17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, [t]In my dream, behold, I stood upon the brink of the river: 18 and, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow: 19 and, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness: 20 and the lean and ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine: 21 and when they had [‡]eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to [1]the grave. 32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, [c]If I bring him not unto thee, then shall I / I shall bear the blame to my father for ever. 33 Now therefore, let thy servant, I pray thee, / I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren. 34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall *come on my father.

45 [1]Then Joseph could not [e]refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren. 2 And he [2]†wept aloud: and the Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard. 3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, [h]I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were ‡troubled at his presence. 4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, [j]whom ye sold into Egypt. 5 And now / Now therefore be not grieved, §nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: [k]for God did send me before you to preserve life. 6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and there are [t]yet / yet there are five years, in the which there shall be / there shall neither [m]plowing / be earing nor harvest. 7 And God sent me before you ‖to preserve you a remnant / posterity in the earth, and to save you alive / your lives [3]by a great deliverance. 8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me [a]a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and [b]ruler / a ruler over / throughout all the land of Egypt. 9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not: 10 and [d]thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast: 11 and [f]there will I nourish thee; for there are yet / yet there are five years of famine; lest thou come to poverty, thou, and thy household / thou and thy household, and all that thou hold, and all that thou hast. / hast, come to poverty. 12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is [g]my mouth that speaketh unto you. 13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and [i]bring down my father hither. 14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck. 15 And / Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants. 17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan; 18 and 46 1 And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to [b]Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifices [c]unto the God of his father Isaac. 2 And God spake unto Israel [e]in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here am I. 3 And he said, I am God, [f]the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there [g]make of thee a great nation: 4 I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely [h]bring thee up again: and [i]Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes. 5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons [l]which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. 6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and [m]came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him: 7 his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 [o]And [p]these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: [q]Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. 9 And the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and Pallu, Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. 10 And the sons of Simeon; [1]‖Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and [2]Jachin, and [3]††Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman. 11 And the sons of [s]Levi; [4]‡‡Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 12 And the sons of [t]Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Perez, Pharez, and Zerah, Zarah:

lands: 19 wherefore should we shall die before thine eyes, both we and our land? [a]buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land be not desolate. 20 So And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine was sore prevailed upon over them: and so the land became Pharaoh's. 21 And as for the people, [1]he removed them [2]to the cities from one end of the border borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof. 22 [h]Only the land of the *priests bought he not: not; for the priests had a portion from assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them; them: wherefore they sold not their land. lands. 23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land. 24 And it shall come to pass at the ingatherings, in the increase, that ye shall give a [k]fifth the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. 25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: [n]let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants. 26 And Joseph made it a statute concerning law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; [p]only except the land of the *priests alone only, which became not Pharaoh's. 27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, [r]in the land country of Goshen; [s]and they gat them had possessions therein, and were fruitful, grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: [b]so †the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years. 29 And [c]the time drew near nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now [d]I have found grace in thy sight, [e]put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, [f]and deal kindly and truly with me; [g]bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt: 30 but when I sleep I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and [i]bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said. 31 And he said, Swear unto me: me. and And he sware unto him. And [j]Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

48 1 And it came to pass after these things, that one said to told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. 2 And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed. 3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, [3l]God Almighty appeared unto me at [m]Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, 4 and said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a company of multitude of peoples people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee [o]for an everlasting possession. 5 And now thy [q]two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt,

[6] And thy issue, which thou [1]begettest after them, shall be thine; they thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance. [7] And as for me, when I came from Paddan, Padan, [e]Rachel died [2]by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was still some but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way to Ephrath (the of Ephrath; the same is Beth-lehem). Beth-lehem. [8] And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these? [9] And Joseph said unto his father, [h]They are my sons, whom God hath given me here. in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and [i]I will bless them. [10] Now [j]the eyes of Israel were *dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; [l]and he kissed them, and embraced them. [11] And Israel said unto Joseph, [m]I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath let me see thy seed also. shewed me also thy seed. [12] And Joseph brought them out from between his knees; knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. [13] And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him. [14] [q]And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, [3s]guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn. [15] And he blessed Joseph, and said, The God God, [t]before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which hath fed me all my life long unto this day, [16] [b]the angel Angel which hath [c]redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let [d]my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them [f†]grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth. [17] And when Joseph saw that his father [g]laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it [‡]displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head. [18] And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. [19] And his father refused, and said, [g]I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: how- but beit truly [k]his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become [4]a [§]multitude of nations. [20] And he blessed them that day, saying, [5]In thee shall Israel bless, saying, [n]God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh. [21] And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but [o]God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers. [22] Moreover I have given to [p]thee one [6]portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

[1] [r]And Jacob called unto his sons, and said: Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you [t]in the latter last days.

[2] Assemble yourselves, Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob;

bury my father, and I will come again. 6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear. 7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8 and all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left [b]in the land of Goshen. 9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company. 10 And they came to the threshing-floor (threshingfloor) of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there [c]they lamented (mourned) with a very great and great and very sore lamentation: and he [g]made a mourning for his father seven days. 11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous [1]mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called *Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan. 12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them: 13 for [k]his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham [n]bought with the field (field) for a possession of a buryingplace (buryingplace) of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. 15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, It may be that Joseph will (Joseph will peradventure) hate us, and will fully (certainly) requite us all the evil which we did unto him. 16 And they †sent a message (messenger) unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, 17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the transgression (trespass) of thy brethren, and their sin, (sin;) for (that) they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the transgression (trespass) of the servants of [a]the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him. 18 And his brethren also went and [e]fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants. 19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for [d]am I in the place of God? 20 And (But) as for you, ye meant (thought) evil against me; but [f]God meant it for (unto) good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. 21 Now therefore fear ye not: [h]I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake [2]‡kindly unto them.

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years. 23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children [j]of the third generation: the [l]children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were [m]born §brought up upon Joseph's knees. 24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: but (and) [o]God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land unto the land [p]which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. 25 And [q]Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. 26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they [r]embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES,

[R. V.] COMMONLY CALLED
[A. V.] CALLED

EXODUS.

1 Now [a]these are the names of the sons (children) of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob. 2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah (Judah); 3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin (Benjamin); 4 Dan (Dan), and Naphtali, Gad (Gad), and Asher. 5 And all the souls that came out of the *loins of Jacob were [g]seventy souls: and (for) Joseph was in Egypt already. 6 And [h]Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation. 7 [k]And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there arose (up) a new king over Egypt, [l]which knew not Joseph. 9 And he said unto his people, Behold, [m]the people of the children of Israel are [1]more and mightier than we: 10 [n](come, Come on,) [o]let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they (also join themselves join also) unto our enemies, and fight against us, and (so) get them up out of the land. 11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters [b]to afflict them with their [c]burdens. And they built for Pharaoh (store treasure) cities, Pithom and [e]Raamses. 12 †But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and (the more they spread abroad. grew.) And they [2f]were grieved because of the children of Israel. 13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel [i]to serve with rigour: 14 and they [j]made their lives bitter with hard (service, bondage,) in (mortar morter,) and in brick, and in all manner of service in the (field, field:) all their service, wherein they made them (serve serve, was) with rigour.

15 And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah: 16 and he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the (birthstool stools); if it be a son, then ye shall kill (him him:) but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. 17 But the midwives [p]feared God, and [q]did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive. 18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwife midwives come in unto them. 20 [a]And Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty. 21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he [c]made them houses. 22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, [e]Every son that is born ye shall cast into [g]the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

2 1 And there went [h]a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.
2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and [j]when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. 3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of [1][m]bulrushes, and daubed it with [2]slime and with pitch; and she put the child therein, therein; and she laid it in [n]the flags by the river's brink.
4 And [p]his sister stood afar off, to know wit what would be done to him. 5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash bathe herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, and she sent her handmaid maid to fetch it. 6 And when she had opened it, and she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. 7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?
8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.
9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it. 10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became [b]her son. And she called his name [3]Moses, *Moses: and she said, Because I [4][d]drew him out of the water.

11 And it came to pass in those days, [f]when Moses was grown up, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their [i]burdens: and he saw spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren. 12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, [k]he smote slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. 13 And when [l]he went out the second day, and, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?
14 And he said, [o]Who made thee †a prince and a judge over us? thinkest intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely the this thing is known. 15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But [q]Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by [r]a well.
16 Now [s]the ‡priest of Midian had seven daughters: and [t]they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. 17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and [a]watered their flock. 18 And when they came to [b]Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon (to-day? to day?) 19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and (moreover he drew water also drew water enough) for us, and [a]watered the flock. 20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may [g]eat bread. 21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses [i]Zipporah his daughter. 22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name [k*]Gershom: for he said, I have been [ll]a (sojourner stranger) in a strange land.

23 And it came to pass [n]in (the course of those many days, process of time,) that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel [p]sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and [s]their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage. 24 And [u]God heard their groaning, and God [w]remembered his covenant with [x]Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. 25 And God ([z]saw looked upon) the children of Israel, and God [a](took †had knowledge of respect unto) them.

3 1 Now Moses (was keeping kept) the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the (back backside) of the (wilderness, desert,) and came to [d]the mountain of God, (unto even to) Horeb. 2 [e]And [f]the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. 3 And Moses said, I will (turn aside now, now turn aside,) and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. 4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, [c]God called unto him [d]out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I. 5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: [e]put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. 6 Moreover he said, [f]I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for [h]he was afraid to look upon God. 7 And the LORD said, [j]I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their [m]taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; 8 and [o]I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and [q]to bring them up out of that land unto [r]a good land and a large, unto a land [t]flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of [v]the (Canaanite, Canaanites,) and the (Hittite, Hittites,) and the (Amorite, Amorites,) and the (Perizzite, Perizzites,) and the (Hivite, Hivites,) and the (Jebusite. Jebusites.) 9 (And now, Now therefore,) behold, [y]the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: (moreover I have and I have also) seen [b]the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. 10 [c]Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt. 11 And Moses said unto God, [g]Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt? 12 And he said, [h]Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be (the a) token unto thee, that I have sent thee: (when When) thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, [a]ye shall serve God upon this mountain. 13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them? 14 And God said unto Moses, [1]I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, [2][h]I AM hath sent me unto you. 15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, [3]The LORD, [k]the LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is [m]my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations. 16 Go, and [n]gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD, the LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, hath appeared unto me, saying, [p]I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt: 17 and I have said, [q]I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanite, Canaanites, and the Hittite, Hittites, and the Amorite, Amorites, and the Perizzite, Perizzites, and the Hivite, Hivites, and the Jebusite, Jebusites, unto a land [q]flowing with milk and honey. 18 And [s]they shall hearken to thy voice: and [u]thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD, the LORD God of the Hebrews, Hebrews hath [v]met with us: and now let us go, we pray, beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. 19 And I know, am sure that the king of Egypt [b]will not give you leave to, let you go, *no, not [c]by a mighty hand. 20 And [d]I will put forth, stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with [e]all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and [f]after that he will let you go. 21 And [g]I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty: 22 but every woman [i]shall ask, borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, [j]jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and [l]ye shall spoil †the Egyptians.

4 1 And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee. 2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, [o]A rod. 3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a [4]serpent; and Moses fled from before it. 4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail: (and tail. And) he put forth his hand, and laid hold of, caught it, and it became a rod in his hand: (hand:) 5 that they may [r]believe that the LORD, [t]the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee. 6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. out, behold, his hand was [a]leprous, (leprous) as white as snow. 7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. (And) And he put his hand into his bosom again; and (when he took) plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, [d]it was turned again as his other (flesh.) flesh: 8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. 9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe (even) also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river [h]*shall become blood upon the dry land. 10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O (Oh) my Lord, I am not [1†]eloquent, neither [‡]heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: (for) but [j]I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue. 11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh (a) the man dumb, or deaf, or (the) seeing, or (the) blind? (is it) have not I the LORD? 12 Now therefore go, and [n]I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt (speak.) say. 13 And he said, O (Oh) my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou [§]wilt send. 14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is (there) not Aaron (thy brother the Levite?) the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, [r]he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart. 15 And [w]thou shalt speak unto him, and [x]put (the) words in his mouth: [n]and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. 16 [b]And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and (it shall come to pass, that) he shall be, even he shall be to thee (instead of) a mouth, and [c]thou shalt be to him (as) instead of God. 17 And thou shalt take (in thine hand [e]this rod,) this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do (the) signs.

18 And Moses went and returned to [2f‖]Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace. 19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for [g]all the men are dead which sought thy life. 20 And Moses took [i]his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took [k]the rod of God in his hand. 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest (back) to return into Egypt, see that thou do (before Pharaoh all the [l]wonders) all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but [m]I will [3]harden his heart, (and) that he will shall not let the people go. 22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, [o]Israel is my son, even [p]my firstborn: 23 and I (have said) say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve (me:) me: and (thou hast refused) if thou refuse to let him (go:) go: behold, [q]I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn. 24 And it came to pass (on) by the way (at the lodging place,) in the inn, that [s]the LORD met him, [t]and sought to kill him. 25 Then [u]Zipporah took [v]a (flint,) sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and [4††]cast it at his (feet;) feet, and (she) said, Surely a (bridegroom of blood) bloody husband art thou to me. 26 So he let him alone. Then go: then she said, [1]A bridegroom of bloody husband art thou, because of the circumcision.

27 And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness [c]to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in [d]the mountain mount of God, and kissed him. 28 And Moses [e]told Aaron all the words of the LORD wherewith he who had sent him, and all [f]the signs wherewith which he had charged commanded him. 29 And Moses and Aaron [g]went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel: 30 and [h]Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. 31 And the people [i]believed: and when they heard that the LORD had [j]visited the children of Israel, and that he had [k]seen looked upon their affliction, then [l]they bowed their heads and worshipped.

5 [1]And afterward Moses and Aaron came, went in, and said unto told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold [m]a feast unto me in the wilderness. 2 And Pharaoh said, [n]Who is the LORD, that I should hearken unto obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, and moreover I will not neither will I let Israel go. 3 And they said, [p]The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword. 4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, loose let the people from their works? get you unto your [q]burdens. 5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, [r]the people of the land are now now are many, and ye make them rest from their burdens. 6 And the same day Pharaoh Pharaoh commanded the commanded same day [a]the taskmasters of the people, and [b]their officers, saying, 7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves. 8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish aught ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God. 9 *Let heavier there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard lying vain words. 10 And [a]the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw. 11 Go yourselves, ye, get you straw where ye can find it: for nought yet not ought of your work shall be diminished. 12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for instead of straw. 13 And [a]the taskmasters were urgent, hasted them, saying, Fulfil your works, †your daily tasks, as when there was straw. 14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's [a]taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, [2]and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to-day, in making brick to day, as heretofore? 15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants? 16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people. 17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD. 18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks. 19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they [1]were in evil case, when it was said, Ye shall not minish aught ought from your bricks, your bricks of your daily tasks. task. 20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh: 21 and [e]they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour [*]to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us. 22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me? 23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath evil entreated done evil to this people; [†]neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

6 1 And Then the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for [k]by with a strong hand shall he let them go, and by with a strong hand [l]shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, [m]I am [‡]JEHOVAH: [‡]the LORD: 3 and I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, as by the name of [2o]God Almighty, but [3]by my name [p]JEHOVAH I was was I not [4]known to them. 4 [q]And I have also established my covenant with them, [r]to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojournings, pilgrimage, wherein they sojourned. were strangers.

5 And moreover [“]I have I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. 6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, [m]I am Jehovah, the LORD, and [b]I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and [c]I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgements: judgments: 7 and [d]I will take you to me for a people, and [f]I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that [m]I am Jehovah the LORD your God, which bringeth you out [g]from under the burdens of the Egyptians. 8 And I will bring you in unto [h]the land, concerning which I [†]lifted up my hand the which I did §swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: [m]I am Jehovah. the LORD. 9 And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but [j]they hearkened not unto Moses for [5]‖anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land. 12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have [j]not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, [n]who am of uncircumcised lips? 13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Reuben the firstborn of Israel; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these are the families of Reuben. 15 And [b]the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon. 16 And these are the names of [c]the sons of Levi according to their generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years. 17 [f]The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimei, according to their families. 18 And [h]the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years. 19 And [i]the sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi: these are the families of the Levites according to their generations. 20 And [m]Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and seven years. 21 And [p]the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. 22 And [q]the sons of Uzziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri. 23 And Aaron took him Elisheba, the daughter of [r]Amminadab, the sister of [s]Nahshon, to wife; and she bare him [t]Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. 24 And [v]the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korahites. 25 And Eleazar Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and [w]she bare him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families. 26 These are that Aaron and Moses, [y]to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt [a]according to their hosts. 27 These are they which spake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

28 And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 that the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [d]I am the LORD: [e]speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee. 30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, [g]I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

7 1 And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee [j]a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy [k]prophet. 2 [l]Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel [go] out of his land. 3 And [n]I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and [o]multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. 4 But Pharaoh will not hearken unto you, and I that I will lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth my hosts, mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgements. 5 And the Egyptians [u]shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. 6 And Moses and Aaron did [so]; as the LORD commanded them, so did they. 7 And Moses was [x]fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

Moses and unto Aaron, saying,
9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, [b]Shew a wonder / miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it down before Pharaoh, and it shall that it become a [1]serpent. 10 And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so, so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent. 11 Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers: now and they also, the [d]magicians of Egypt, they also [e]did in like manner with their [2]enchantments. 12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.
13 [h]And Pharaoh's heart [3]was hardened, and he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; [h]as the LORD had spoken. / said.
14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is [4]stubborn, / hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.
15 [j]Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink to meet / against him / he come; and [m]the rod which was turned to a [o]serpent shalt thou take in thine hand. 16 And thou shalt say unto him, [p]The LORD, the / LORD God of the Hebrews, / Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, [q]that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou hast not / wouldest not hearkened. / hear.
17 Thus saith the LORD, In this [r]thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and [s]they shall be turned to blood. 18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall [a]loathe / lothe to drink of the water from / water of the river. 19 And the LORD said / spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and [c]stretch out thine hand over / upon the waters of Egypt, over / upon their rivers, / streams, over / upon their [5]streams, / rivers, and over / upon their pools, / ponds, and over / upon all their [*]ponds / pools of water, that they may become blood; and there shall / that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood / wood, and in vessels of stone. 20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he [f]lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the [g]waters that were in the river were turned to blood. 21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians [i]could not drink water / of the / from water of the river; and there was blood / the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt.
22 And [k]the magicians of Egypt did in like manner / so with their enchantments: and [l]Pharaoh's heart [3]was hardened, and he hearkened not / neither did he hearken unto them; [n]as the LORD had spoken. / said. 23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he [6]lay even this to heart. / set his heart to this also. 24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river. 25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

8 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, [t]that they may serve me. 2 And if thou [u]refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with [a]frogs: [3] and the river shall (bring forth frogs abundantly, swarm with frogs,) which shall go up and come into thine house, and into [b]thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy *kneadingtroughs: [4] and the frogs shall come up both (on upon) thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants. [5] And the LORD (spake said) unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, [d]Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the (streams, rivers,) over the (1streams, rivers,) and over the (ponds, pools,) and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt. [6] And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and [g]the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. [7] And [h]the magicians did (in like manner so) with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt. [8] Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, [j]Intreat the LORD, that he (may) take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and [l]I will let the people go, that they may (do) sacrifice unto the LORD. [9] And Moses said unto Pharaoh, (Have thou this glory †Glory) over me: (against what time ‡when) shall I [j]intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, (that the frogs be §to destroy the) (destroyed frogs) from thee and thy houses, (and that they may) remain in the river only? such as hath not been in Egypt since the (day it was founded foundation thereof) even until now. 19 (Now Send) therefore (send, now,) [a]hasten in and gather thy (cattle cattle,) and all that thou hast in the field; for (upon) every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die. 20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses: 21 and he that [†]regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be [e]hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. 23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and [h]the LORD sent thunder and hail, and (the) fire ran (down unto the alone upon the earth ground); and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. 24 So there was hail, and fire [2‡]mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as (had not been there was none like it) in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. 25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail [k]smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field. 26 [m]Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail. 27 And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, [p]I have sinned this time: [q]the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. 28 [r]Intreat the (LORD; for there hath been LORD (for it is enough) that enough of these there be no more) [3s‡]mighty thunder-

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and [b]spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.
34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and [2h]hardened his heart, [i]he and his servants.
35 And [j]the heart of Pharaoh [3]was hardened, and he did not neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken [†]by Moses.

3 And Moses and Aaron went came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse [a]to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me.
4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to-morrow to morrow will I bring the [c]locusts into thy border coast:
5 and they shall cover the [‡]face of the earth, that one shall not cannot be able to see the earth: and [f]they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:
6 and [g]thy they houses shall be filled, shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; as which neither thy fathers fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned, turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.
7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?
8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, [k]Go, serve the LORD your God: but [§]who are they that shall go?
9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for [n]we must hold a feast unto the LORD.
10 And he said unto them, So be Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, [o]and your little ones: look to it; for evil is [5]before you.
11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that is what ye ye did desire.

And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, [a]Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and [c]eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left. 13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all the that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. 14 And [f]the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt; very grievous were they; [h]before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. 15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they [j]did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing, either thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt. 16 Then Pharaoh *called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, [k]I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. 17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and [m]intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only. 18 And [n]he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD. 19 And the LORD turned an exceeding mighty strong west wind, which took up away the locusts, and drove †cast them [p]into the Red Sea sea; there remained not one locust in all the border coasts of Egypt. 20 But the LORD [1r]hardened Pharaoh's heart, and so that he did would not let the children of Israel go.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, [b]Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, [2‡]even darkness which may be felt. 22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a [d]thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days; days: 23 they saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: [e]but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. 24 And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and [g]said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let [i]your little ones also go with you. 25 And Moses said, Thou must also give give into our hand §us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. 26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither. 27 But the LORD [1l]hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. 28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in the that day thou seest my face thou shalt die. 29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well; well, [o]I will see thy face again no more.

Moreover the man [e]Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, [f]About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt: 5 and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant [h]that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of cattle. beasts. 6 [i]And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there hath been was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. 7 [k]But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog [1m]move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth [o]put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. 8 And [q]all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people *that follow thee: and after that I will go out. Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people [b]bowed the head and worshipped. 28 And the children of Israel went (and did away, and so did) as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 And it came to pass (pass [f]at midnight, pass, that at midnight) that [g]the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, [h]from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the *dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. 30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was [k]a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. 31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, [m]both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said. 32 "(Take both Also take) your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also. 33 And [p]the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, (to that they might) send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men. 34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their †kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. 35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and [r](they asked borrowed) of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: 36 [t]and the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that [u](they let lent unto them have what such things they asked as they required.) And they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 And [a]the children of Israel journeyed from [c]Rameses to Succoth, [d]about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children. 38 And [e‡]a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle. 39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because [i]they were thrust out of Egypt, and [j]could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual. 40 Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, (which they sojourned who dwelt) in Egypt, was [l]four hundred and thirty years. 41 And it came to pass at the end of (the) four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. 42 It is [1o§]a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: [2]this is that night of the (LORD, LORD) to be (much) observed of all the children of Israel (throughout in) their generations.

43 And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: (there There) shall no (alien stranger) eat thereof: 44 but every man's servant that is [q]bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof. 45 [s](A sojourner foreigner) and an hired servant shall not eat thereof. 46 In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth (aught ought) of the flesh abroad out of the house; [v]neither shall ye break a bone thereof. 47 [w]All the congregation of Israel shall [3‖]keep it.

males; but [a]all the firstborn of my sons/children I redeem. 16 [b]And it shall be for a sign/token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: [d]for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them [g]not by/through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people [i]repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt: 18 but God led the people about, by/through the way of the wilderness by/of the Red Sea/sea: and the children of Israel went up *armed/harnessed out of the land of Egypt. 19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, [l]God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you. 20 And [n]they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. 21 And [p]the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud/cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; that they might/to go by day and by night: 22 He took not away [1]the pillar of the cloud by day, and/nor the pillar of fire by night, departed not from before the people.

14 [1]And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn back and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before/over against Baal-zephon: over against/before it shall ye encamp by the sea. 3 And/For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in. 4 And [e]I will [2]harden Pharaoh's heart, and/that he shall follow after them; and I [e]will get me honour/be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; [f]and/that the Egyptians shall/may know that I am the LORD. And they did so. 5 And it was told the king of Egypt that the people were fled: and [h]the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was changed towards/turned against the people, and they said, What/Why is this we have done, have done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? 6 And he made ready his [3]chariot, and took his people with him: 7 and he took [k]six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over all/every one of them. 8 And [c]the LORD [4]hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: for/and [m]the children of Israel went out with an high hand. 9 And/But [o]the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them [q]encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon. 10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel [r]cried out unto the LORD. 11 [s]And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to bring/carry us forth out of Egypt? 12 Is not this the walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. 30 Thus the LORD [b]saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and [e]Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. 31 And Israel saw the [that] great [1*]work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians, [Egyptians:] and the people feared the LORD, [LORD,] and [g]they believed [in] the LORD, and [in] his servant Moses.

15 1 Then [j]sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, morrow is [a]a solemn rest, a the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake, bake to day, and seethe that which ye will seethe; and all that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning. 24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and [e]it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein. 25 And Moses said, Eat that to-day; to day; [a]for to-day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field. 26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, day is which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none. 27 And it came to pass on the seventh day, pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none. 28 And the LORD said unto Moses, [i]How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws? 29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. 30 So the people [l]rested on the seventh day. 31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof [1][m]Manna: and it was [n]like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. 32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Let an omerful commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. 33 And Moses said unto Aaron, [r]Take a pot, and put an omerful omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. 34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up [b]before the Testimony, to be kept. 35 And the children of Israel [c]did eat the manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat the manna, [d]until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan. 36 Now an omer is [f]the tenth part of an ephah.

7 And Moses [n] went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and [o] kissed him; and they asked each other of their [‡‡] welfare; and they came into the tent. 8 And Moses told his father in law [p] all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had [§§] come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them. 9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, [in that whom] he had delivered [them] out of the hand of the Egyptians.
10 And Jethro said, [s] Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. 11 Now I know that [c]the LORD is greater than all gods: yea, for in the thing wherein they [d]dealt proudly against he was above them. 12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law [g]before God. 13 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood about by Moses from the morning unto the evening. 14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand about by thee from morning unto even? 15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because [k]the people come unto me to inquire of God: 16 [l]when they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between a man *one and his neighbour, another, and [n]I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws. 17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good. 18 †Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for the this thing is too heavy for thee; [p]thou art not able to perform it thyself alone. 19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou [s]for the people to God-ward, and [t]bring thou that thou mayest bring the causes unto God: 20 and thou shalt teach them the statutes and the ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them [w]the way wherein they must walk, and [a]the work that they must do. 21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people [b]able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating unjust covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens: 22 and [e]let them judge the people at all seasons: [f]and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge themselves: so shall it be easier for thyself, and [h]they shall bear the burden with thee. 23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be [i]able to endure, and all this people also shall shall also go to their place in peace. 24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said. 25 And [j]Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. 26 And [m]they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. 27 And Moses let his father in law depart; and [o]he went his way into his own land.

unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel; 4 [a]Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how [c]I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself. 5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be [e]a peculiar treasure unto me [1]from among all peoples: above all people for [f]all the earth is mine: 6 and ye shall be unto me [i]a kingdom of priests, and [j]an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel. 7 And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set laid before them their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him. 8 And [p]all the people answered together, and said, [q]All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses reported returned the words of the people unto the LORD. 9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee [s]in a thick cloud, [t]that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and may also [v]believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD. 10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and [x]sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them [y]wash their garments, clothes, 11 and be ready against the third day: for the third day [z]the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai. 12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: [c]whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death: 13 no There hand shall touch [2]him, shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the [3]*[b]trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount. 14 And Moses [d]went down from the mount unto the people, [x]and sanctified the people; [y]and they washed their garments. clothes. 15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against [g]the third day: [h]come not near a woman. at your wives. 16 And it came to pass on [g]the third day, when it day in was the morning, that there were [k]thunders and lightnings, and [l]a thick cloud upon the mount, and [m]the voice of a the trumpet exceeding loud; and so that all the people that were was in the camp [n]trembled. 17 And [o]Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount. 18 And [r]mount Sinai was altogether on smoke, a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and [u]the whole [4]mount quaked greatly. 19 And when [m]the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and [w]God answered him by a voice. 20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, to on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up. 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, [†]charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD [a]to gaze, and many of them perish. 22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, [b]sanctify themselves, lest the LORD [d]break forth upon them. 23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people can-

16 [n]Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 [p]Thou shalt not covet [q]thy neighbour's house, [s]thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

18 And all the people saw [u]the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the (voice / noise) of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they ([5]trembled, / removed,) and stood afar off. 19 And they said unto Moses, [x]Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. 20 And [z]Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to [a]prove you, and [b]that his fear may be before (you, / your faces,) that ye sin not. 21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto [e]the thick darkness where God was.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye (yourselves) have seen that I have [a]talked with you from heaven. 23 [b]Ye shall not make other gods with me; gods of silver, or gods of gold, ye shall not make unto you. neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold. 24 An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: [c]in every place all places where I [1]record my name I will come unto thee thee, and I [d]will bless thee. 25 And [e]if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, [g]thou shalt not *build it of hewn stones stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it. 26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

21 1 Now these are [j]the judgements judgments which thou shalt set before them.

2 [l]If thou buy an Hebrew [2]servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing. 3 If he come came in [†]by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he be were married, then his wife shall go out with him. 4 If his master give have given him a wife, and she bear have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself. 5 But And [q]if the servant [‡]shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free: 6 then his master shall bring him unto [3§]God, and the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall [t]bore his ear through with an awl aul; and he shall serve him for ever.

7 And if a man [u]sell his daughter to be a [4]maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do. 8 If she [§]please not her master, [5]who hath espoused betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange people nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her. 9 And if he espouse have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters. 10 If he take him another wife; her [6]food, her raiment, and [f]her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish. 11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out for nothing, free without money.

12 [h]He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall surely be be surely put to death. 13 And [i]if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then [k]I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee. 14 And But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; [m]thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 And [n]he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 And [o]he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found [p]in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 And [r]he that [7‖]curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 And if men contend, strive together, and one smiteth the other smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keep keepeth his bed: 19 if he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for [8††]the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

seventy of the elders of Israel:
10 and [a]they saw the God of Israel; Israel: and there was under his feet as it were [1]a paved work of a [d]sapphire stone, and as it were the very body of heaven for in his clearness.
11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: and also they beheld saw God, and [j]did eat and drink.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, [l]Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee [o]the tables of stone, and the law a law, and the commandment, commandments which I have written, written; that thou mayest teach them. 13 And Moses rose up, and [r]Joshua his minister: his minister Joshua: and Moses went up [s]into the mount of God. 14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you:
and, behold, Aaron and [u]Hur are with you: whosoever hath if any man have any a cause, matters to do, let him come near unto them. 15 And Moses went up into the mount, and [v]the a cloud covered the mount. 16 And [w]the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.
17 And the appearance sight of the glory of the LORD was like [z]devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.
18 And Moses entered went into the midst of the cloud, and went gat him up into the mount: and [a]Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

a stiffnecked people: lest [a] I consume thee in the way. 4 And when the people heard these evil tidings, [c] they mourned: and [d] no man did put on him his ornaments. 5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, [f] Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now [d] put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee. 6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp; and [m] he called it The tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one [n] which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp. 8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood, [q] every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle. 9 And it came to pass, when Moses entered into the tabernacle, [t] the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses. 10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the door of the tabernacle: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man at his tent door. 11 And [w] the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but [y] his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 And Moses said unto the LORD, See, [b] thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know [1] whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, [e] I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight. 13 Now therefore, I pray thee, [e] if I have found grace in thy sight, [h] shew me now thy ways, that I may know thee, to the end that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is [i] thy people. 14 And he said, [j] My presence shall go with thee, and [k] I will give thee rest. 15 And he said unto him, [l] If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. 16 For wherein now shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight, I and thy people? [o] is it not in that thou goest with us? [p] so that we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth?

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: [r] for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. 18 And he said, [s] Shew me, I pray thee, thy glory. 19 And he said, [u] I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and [v] I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy. 20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for [x] there shall no man see me, and live. 21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock: 22 and it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put 34 1 And the LORD said unto Moses, [g]Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: [i]and I will write upon (the / these) tables the words that were (on / in) the first tables, [k]which thou brakest. 2 And be ready (by / in) the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me [m](on / in) the top of the mount. 3 And [n]no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount. 4 And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand (the) two tables of stone. 5 And the LORD [t]descended in the cloud, [1]and stood with him there, and [v]proclaimed [2]the name of the LORD. 6 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, [c]The LORD, (the LORD, a God full of / The LORD God,) (compassion / merciful) and [y]gracious, (slow to anger, / longsuffering,) and (plenteous / abundant) in [z]mercy (goodness) and truth; 7 [b]keeping mercy for thousands, [c]forgiving iniquity and transgression and (sin: / sin,) and [e]that will by no means clear the guilty; [f]visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, (upon / into) the third and (upon / to) the fourth generation. 8 And Moses made haste, and [i]bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

28 and the spice, and the oil for oil; for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. 29 a The children of Israel brought a freewill offering willing unto the LORD; every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

30 d And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; 31 and he hath filled him with the spirit of God, f in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; 32 and to devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, 33 and in the cutting of stones for setting, stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to work in all manner of cunning workmanship. work. 34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. 35 Them hath he f filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of workmanship, work, of the [1]engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any workmanship, work, and of those that devise cunning works. work.

36 1 And Bezalel and Oholiab shall work,
Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and j every wise hearted man, in whom the LORD hath put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all the manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD hath had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezalel Bezaleel and Oholiab, Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one b whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it: 3 and they received of Moses all c the offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him e freewill free offerings every morning. 4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they wrought made; 5 and they spake unto Moses, saying, g The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make. 6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for h the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing. 7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 i And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work made of the tabernacle with made ten curtains; curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, with cherubim the work of the scarlet: cherubims of cunning cunning workman work made he them. 9 The length of each one curtain was eight and twenty twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of each one curtain four cubits: all the curtains had one were all of measure. one size. 10 And he coupled the five curtains one to unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one to unto another. 11 And he made loops of blue upon on the edge of the one curtain [2]from the selvedge in the coupling: like-thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoint [a]the altar of [the] burnt offering, and all [its] vessels, and sanctify the altar: [b]and [the altar shall be] it shall be an altar [*] most holy. 11 And thou shalt anoint the laver [a]and [its base,] his foot, and sanctify it. 12 [d]And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the [tent of meeting,] tabernacle of the congregation, and [shalt] wash them with water.
13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy [garments;] garments, and [thou shalt] anoint him, and sanctify [him,] him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. 14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and [put coats upon] clothe them with them [coats:] coats: 15 [g]and thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: and [their] their anointing shall [be to them] surely be [j]an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.
16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.
17 And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that [n]the tabernacle was reared up. 18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and [laid its] fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up [its] his pillars. 19 And he spread [abroad] the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.
20 And he took and [r]put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the [mercy-seat] mercy seat above upon the ark: 21 and he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and [u]set up the veil of the [screen,] covering, and [screened] covered [v]the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses. 22 [w]And he put the table in the tent of [meeting,] the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the [veil.] vail. 23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD [had] commanded Moses. 24 [c]And he put the candlestick in the tent of [meeting,] the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. 25 [e]And he [1]lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. 26 [f]And he put the golden altar in the tent of [meeting] the congregation before the [veil:] vail: 27 and he burnt [thereon] sweet incense of [sweet] spices; [thereon]; as the LORD commanded Moses. 28 [h]And he [put] set up the screen of the hanging [at] to the door of the tabernacle. 29 [i]And he [set] put the altar of burnt offering [at] by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of [meeting,] the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and [k]the [meal] meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses. 30 [l]And he set the laver between the tent of [meeting] the congregation and the altar, and put water [therein,] there, to wash withal. 31 And Moses and [m]Aaron and his sons [o]washed their hands and their feet [thereat;] thereat: 32 when they went into the tent of [meeting,] the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they [washed:] washed; as the LORD commanded Moses. 33 [p]And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the [screen] hanging of the [gate of the court.] court gate. [q]So Moses finished the work.
34 Then [the] a cloud covered the tent of [meeting,] the congregation, and [t]the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. 35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of [meeting,] the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. 36 And [x]when unto all the people. 24 And [b]there came forth from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: and when all the people saw it, which when all the people saw, [c]they shouted, and [d]fell on their faces.

10 1 And [f]Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, [g]took each of them his censer, either and put fire therein, and laid put incense thereon, and offered [i]strange fire before the LORD, which he had not commanded them. commanded them not. 2 And there [j]came forth fire from went out before the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. 3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them [l]that [1]come nigh me, and before all the people [m]I will be glorified. [o]And Aaron held his peace. 4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of [p]Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Draw Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp. 5 So they drew went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said. 6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, [2][s]Let not the hair of your heads go loose, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; that ye die not, lest ye die, and that he be not [u]wroth with lest wrath come upon all the congregation people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled. 7 [v]And ye shall not go out from the door of the tent of meeting, tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: [w]for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying, 9 [a]Drink no Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tent of meeting, that ye die not tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations: 10 and [3]that ye may [e]put difference between the holy and the common, unholy, and between the unclean and the clean; 11 and [3][h]that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

12 And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take [k]the meal meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for [n]it is most holy: 13 and ye shall eat it in [a] the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the offerings sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for [q]so I am commanded. 14 And [r]the wave breast and the heave thigh shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they are given as be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the children of Israel. 15 [t]The heave thigh shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, as a due by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

A.V. * Heb. driven.

43 [a]The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them; and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they rejected my judgements, and because their soul abhorred my statutes. 44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, [b]I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to [c]break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God: 45 but I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, [d]whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt [e]in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

46 [g]These are the statutes and judgements and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel [h]in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

27 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall [1]accomplish a vow, [2]the persons shall be for the LORD by thy estimation. 3 And thy estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after [l]the shekel of the sanctuary. 4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be thirty shekels. 5 And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. 6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver. 7 And if it be from sixty years old and upward; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. 8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall be set present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men offer an oblation unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy. 10 [f]He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. 11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer an oblation unto the LORD, then he shall set the beast before the priest: 12 and the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: *as thou the priest valuest it, valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be. 13 [j]But if he will indeed redeem it, then he shall add [k]the fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand. 15 [m]And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add [k]the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

R.V. [1] Or, make a special vow [2] Or, according to thy estimation of persons unto the LORD, then thy estimation &c.

A.V. * Heb. according to thy estimation, O priest, &c.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of the field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: the sowing of a *an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.
17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy estimation it shall stand.
18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall [d] reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and an abatement shall be made from thy estimation.
19 [f] And if he that sanctified the field will indeed redeem it, then he shall add [g] the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.
20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more:
21 but the field, [j] when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field [k] devoted; [l] the possession thereof shall be the priest's.
22 And if [the] a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, [m] which is not of the fields of his possession;
23 [o] then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubile: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.
24 [q] In the year of the jubile the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land belongeth.
25 And all thy estimations shall be according to [s] the shekel of the sanctuary: [a] twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.
26 Only [b] the † firstling among beasts, which is made a firstling to the LORD, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox or sheep: it is the LORD'S.
27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall ransom it according to thine estimation, [c] and shall add unto it the fifth part thereof: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.
28 Notwithstanding, [e] no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD.
29 [h] None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be ransomed; but he shall surely be put to death.
30 And [i] all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD'S: it is holy unto the LORD.
31 And if a man will at all redeem aught of his tithes, he shall add unto it the fifth part thereof.
32 And concerning all the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever [n] passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD.
33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, [p] neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

five hundred: 29 and Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the prince captain of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan: 30 and And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred. 31 All they that were numbered of in the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. [c]They shall set forth go hindmost by with their standards.

32 These are they that those which were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses the house of their fathers: all those that were numbered of the camps according to throughout their hosts were [e]six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. 33 But [g]the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses. 34 Thus did And the children of Israel; Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, Moses: [j]so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one by after their families, according to their fathers' houses. the house of their fathers.

3 1 Now these These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sinai. 2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstboru, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, [o]the priests which were anointed, [p]* whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office. 4 [q]And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the presence sight of Aaron their father.

5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 6 [a]Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him. 7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tent tabernacle of the congregation, meeting, [b]to do the service of the tabernacle. 8 And they shall keep all the furniture instruments of the tent of meeting, tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, [b]to do the service of the tabernacle. 9 And [d]thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are [1][f]wholly given unto him [2]on the behalf out of the children of Israel. 10 And thou shalt [3]appoint Aaron and his sons, and [h]they shall keep wait on their priesthood priest's office: and [i]the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 12 And I, behold, [k]I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the womb matrix among the children of Israel; and Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine: 13 for Because [l]all the firstborn are mine; for [m]on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine they shall be; shall they be: I am the LORD.

14 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi by their fathers' houses, after the house of their fathers, by their families: [r]every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them. 16 And Moses numbered them according to the *word of the LORD, as he was commanded. 17 [a]And these were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. 18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families; [b]Libni and Shimei. 19 And the sons of Kohath by their families; [c]Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 20 And the sons of Merari by their families; [e]Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimeites: these are the families of the Gershonites. 22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred. 23 [j]The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward. 24 And the prince of the fathers' house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael. 25 And [k]the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting shall be [l]the tabernacle, and [m]the Tent, [n]the covering thereof, and [o]the screen for the door of the tent of meeting, 26 and [p]the hangings of the court, and [r]the screen for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and [v]the cords of it for all the service thereof.

27 And of Kohath was the family of [y]the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. 28 According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary. 29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward. 30 And the prince of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites shall be [d]Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. 31 And their charge shall be [f]the ark, and [g]the table, and [h]the candlestick, and [i]the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and [o]the screen, and all the service thereof. 32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be prince of the princes over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari. 34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred. 35 And the prince of the fathers' house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: they shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward. 36 [q]And [1]the charge appointed under the custody and of the sons of Merari shall be [s]the boards of the tabernacle, and [t]the bars thereof, and [u]the pillars thereof, and [w]the sockets thereof, and all the instruments thereof, and all the service thereof; that serveth thereto, 37 and [x]the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and [z]their pins, and [a]their cords. 38 And But those that pitch before the tabernacle eastward, toward the east, even before the tent according to the commandment (word) of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

46 All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the princes (chief) of Israel numbered, by (after) their families, and by their fathers' (after the house of their) houses, 47 [a] from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entered in (came) to do the work of service, (service of the ministry,) and the work (service) of bearing burdens (of the burden) in the tent of (tabernacle of the) meeting, (congregation,) 48 even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore. 49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, [e] every one according to his service, and [1] according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, [f] as the LORD commanded Moses.

5 [1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [2] Command the children of Israel, that they [h] put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath [j] an issue, and whosoever is [k] unclean (defiled) by the dead: [3] both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camp, (camps,) [l] in the midst whereof I dwell. [4] And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

[5] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [6] Speak unto the children of Israel, [n] When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that soul (person) be guilty; [7] [p] then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and [q] he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him in respect of (against) whom he hath been guilty. LORD. 12 And the Levites [a]shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and offer thou thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites. 13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for a wave an offering unto the LORD. 14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and [f]the Levites shall be mine. 15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tent of meeting tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for a wave an offering. 16 For they are [g]wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; [i]instead of all that openeth the such as open every womb, even even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me. 17 [k]For all the firstborn among of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote the every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself. 18 And I have taken the Levites instead of for all the firstborn among of the children of Israel. 19 [g]And I have given the Levites as [1*]a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tent tabernacle of the meeting congregation, and [n]to make an atonement for the children of Israel: [o]that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary. 20 Thus did And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto did to the Levites: Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses touching concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them. 21 And [b]the Levites purified themselves from sin, were purified, and they washed their clothes; and [d]Aaron offered them for a wave as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them. 22 And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tent tabernacle of the meeting congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 24 This is that which is it that belongeth unto the Levites: [h]from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in [3†j]to wait upon the service in the work of the tent of tabernacle of the congregation meeting: 25 and from the age of fifty years they shall [4‡]cease waiting upon the work, service thereof, and shall serve no more; more: 26 but shall minister with their brethren in the tent of meeting, tabernacle of the congregation, [l]to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Gad was [a]Eliasaph the son of [c]Deuel. 21 And the Kohathites set forward, [d]bearing the sanctuary: and *[f]the other did set up the tabernacle against they came. 22 And [g]the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their hosts armies: and over his host was [j]Elishama the son of Ammihud. 23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was [j]Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. 24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was [m]Abidan the son of Gideoni. 25 And [n]the standard of the camp of the children of Dan, Dan set forward, which was [p]the rearward rereward of all the camps, camps set forward according to throughout their hosts: and over his host was [q]Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. 26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was [r]Pagiel the son of Ochran. Ocran. 27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was [t]Ahira the son of Enan. 28 †[v]Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their hosts; armies; and when they set forward.

29 And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of [z]Reuel Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, [b]I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for [d]the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel. 30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred. 31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou shalt mayest be to us [b]instead of eyes. 32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that [e]what good soever goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 And they set forward departed from [h]the mount of the LORD three days' journey; journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD [i]went before them in the three days' journey, to seek search out [k]a resting place for them. 34 [l]And the cloud of the LORD was over upon them by day, when they set forward from went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, [o]Rise up, O LORD, O LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee. 36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the ten thousands of the ‡many thousands of Israel.

11 1 And [s]the people were as murmurers, when the people [1]speaking evil in the ears of §complained, ‖it displeased the LORD: and when the LORD heard the LORD heard it, it; and [u]his anger was kindled; and [w]the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and devoured consumed them that were in the uttermost part parts of the camp. 2 And [x]the people cried unto Moses; [y]and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, and the fire was quenched abated. 3 And the name of that place was called he called the name of the place [2]††[a]Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

9 seemeth it but [a] a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath [b] separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself; himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them; them? 10 and that he hath brought thee near near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee? thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?
11 Therefore For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: [g] and Aaron, what is he what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?
12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: and they which said, We will not come up:
13 is it [j] a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of [k] a land flowing that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but thou must needs except thou [l] make thyself also altogether a prince over us?
14 Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land flowing that floweth with milk and honey, nor or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou [1*] put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.
15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, [n] Respect not thou their offering: [o] I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.
16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy congregation company [q] before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to-morrow: to morrow:
17 and [r] take ye every man his censer, and put incense upon in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, [t] two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.

19 And Korah assembled gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tent tabernacle of meeting the congregation: [c] and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.
20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,
21 [d] Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them [e] in a moment.
22 And they [f] fell upon their faces, and said, O God, [h] the God of the spirits of all flesh, [i] shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?
23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.
25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.
26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, [m] Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.
27 So they gat them up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood [p] at in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little ones. children.

14 [t]And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto [v]the king of Edom, Thus saith [w]thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that hath [†]befallen us: 15 [y]how our fathers went down into Egypt, [z]and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; [a]and the Egyptians evil entreated vexed us, and our fathers: 16 and [b]when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and [a]sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border: 17 [d]let us pass, I pray thee, through thy land country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyard, the vineyards, [f]neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go along by the king's high way, we will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy border. borders. 18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass through by me, lest I come out with the sword against thee. against thee with the sword. 19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go up by the high way: [i]and if I we and my drink of thy water, I and my cattle, cattle drink of thy water, [j]then will I give the price thereof: let me I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, pass go through on my feet. 20 And he said, [l]Thou shalt not pass go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand. 21 Thus Edom [m]refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel [p]turned away from him.

22 And they journeyed from [q]Kadesh: and the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto [s]mount Hor. 23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in [s]mount Hor, by the border coast of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron [u]shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because [x]ye rebelled against my [‡]word at the waters water of Meribah. 25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor: 26 and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son:

18 The well, which the princes digged, princes digged the well, Which the nobles of the people delved, digged it, ‡With the sceptre, and by the direction of the lawgiver, with their staves.

And from the wilderness they journeyed went to Mattanah: 19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth: 20 and from Bamoth to in the valley valley, that is in the ‡field country of Moab, to the top of §Pisgah, which looketh down upon toward ²⁹the desert. ‖Jeshimon.

21 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22 Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn aside into into field, or into vineyard the vineyards; we will not drink of the water waters of the wells: well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we have passed be past thy border. borders. 23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, wilderness: and he came to Jahaz Jahaz: and he fought against Israel. 24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong. 25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the towns villages thereof. 26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon. 27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say,

Come ye to into Heshbon,
Let the city of Sihon be built and established prepared:
28 For a fire is there is a fire gone out of Heshbon,
A flame from the city of Sihon:
It hath devoured consumed Ar of Moab,
The and the lords of the high places of Arnon.
29 Woe to thee, Moab!
Thou art undone, O people of Chemosh:
He hath given his sons as that fugitives, escaped,
And his daughters daughters, into captivity, captivity
Unto Sihon king of the Amorites.
30 We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon,
And we have laid them waste even unto Nophah,
Which reacheth unto Medeba.
31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites. 32 And Moses sent to spy out Jazer, Jaazer, and they took the towns villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.
33 And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.
34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. 35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him remaining alive: and they possessed his land.

22 1 And the children of Israel journeyed, set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab beyond on this the side Jordan at by Jericho.

2 And [a]Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. 3 And [b]Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab [1]was distressed because of the children of Israel. 4 And Moab said unto [d]the elders of Midian, [e]Now shall [2]this multitude / company lick up all that is / are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab / the Moabites at that time. 5 [f]And he sent messengers / He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor, / Beor to [g]Pethor, which is by the River, / river to / river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the [3]*face of the earth, and they abide over against me: 6 [h]come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I know / wot that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed. 7 And the elders of Moab and [d]the elders of Midian departed with [l]the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak. 8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam. 9 [o]And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee? 10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying, 11 Behold, the people that is / there is a people come out of Egypt, it / which covereth the face of the earth: now, come / come now, curse me them; peradventure [†]I shall be able to fight against / overcome them, and shall drive them out. 12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for [c]they are blessed. 13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you. 14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us. 15 And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they. 16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, [‡]Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me: 17 [i]for I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me / I will do: [j]come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people. 18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, [k]If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, [m]I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. 19 Now therefore, I pray you [n]tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will speak / say unto me more. 20 [o]And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; [p]but only / yet the word which I speak / shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do. 21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab. 22 And God's anger was kindled because

25 And Balaam rose up, and went and [a]returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

25 1 And Israel abode in [c]Shittim, and [d]the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab: Moab. 2 for And [g]they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods; gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. 3 And Israel [1]joined himself unto [2]Baal-peor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. 4 And the LORD said unto Moses, [j]Take all the chiefs heads of the people, and [k]hang them up unto before the LORD before against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turn turned away from Israel. 5 And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, [n]Slay ye every one his men that have were joined themselves joined unto Baal-peor.

6 And, behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, while they who were [r]weeping at fore the door of the tent tabernacle of the meeting. congregation. 7 And [t]when Phinehas, [u]the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the midst of among the congregation, and took a spear velin in his hand; 8 and he went after the man of Israel into the pavilion, tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. 9 And those that died by in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 11 Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that while he [b]was jealous with my jealousy zealous *for my sake among them, so that I consumed not the children of Israel in [e]my jealousy. 12 Wherefore say, [f]Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace: 13 and it shall he shall be unto him, have it, and to [h]his seed after him, even the covenant of [i]an everlasting priesthood; because he was jealous zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel. 14 Now the name of the man of Israel Israelite that was slain, even who that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a fathers' †chief house among the Simeonites. 15 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of [o]Zur; he was head of over a the people people, and of a fathers' chief house in Midian.

16 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 17 [p]Vex the Midianites, and smite them: 18 for they vex you with their [q]wiles, wherewith they have beguiled you in the matter of [s]Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the a prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain on in the day of the plague in the matter of Peor. for Peor's sake.

26 1 And it came to pass after [v]the plague, that the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying, 2 [w]Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by throughout their fathers' houses, house, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel. 3 And Moses and Eleazar the priest spake with Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting, tabernacle of the congregation, [b] for a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

32 [1] Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of [f] Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle; [2] the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying, [3] [j] Ataroth, and [k] Dibon, and Jazer, and [1] Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and [2] Sebam, Shebam, and [l] Nebo, and [3] Beon, [4] the land Even the country [m] which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle: [5] And they said, If Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession; possession, and bring us not over Jordan. [6] And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to the war, and shall ye sit here? [7] And wherefore *discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them? [8] Thus did your fathers, [s] when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. [9] For when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

And we went over [w]the brook Zered. 14 And the days space in which we came from [y]Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over [w]the brook Zered, were was thirty and eight years; [b]until all the generation of the men of war were consumed wasted out from the midst of the camp, among the host, as the LORD sware unto them. 15 Moreover For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, among the host, until they were consumed.

16 So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people, 17 that the LORD spake unto me, saying, 18 Thou art this day to pass over to pass over through Ar, the border of Moab coast of Moab, this day: 19 and when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, [d]vex distress them not, nor contend meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon for a possession: for any possession; because I have given it unto [h]the children of Lot for a possession. 20 (That also is was accounted a land of [r]Rephaim: Rephaim giants: giants aforetime; but in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummim Zamzummims; 21 [j]a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead: 22 as he did for to the children of Esau, which dwell dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed [q]the Horites Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day: 23 and [r]the Avvim Avims which dwelt in villages as far as [s]Gaza, Hazerim, even unto Azzah, [t]the Caphtorim, Caphtorims, which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.) 24 Rise ye up, take your journey, and [v]pass over the valley of river Arnon behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of [x]Heshbon, and his land: ‖begin to possess it, and [z]contend with him in battle. 25 This day will I begin to put [a]the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the peoples nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear the report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of [c]Kedemoth unto Sihon king of [x]Heshbon [d]with words of peace, saying hateth him, he will repay him to his face. 11 [a]Thou shalt therefore keep the commandment, commandments, and the statutes, and the judgements, judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

12 [c]And Wherefore it shall come to pass, because *if ye hearken to these judgements, judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep with unto thee [f]the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy fathers: 13 and he will [h]love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: [i]he will also bless the fruit of thy body womb, and the fruit of thy ground, land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, kine, and the young of thy flock, flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee. 14 Thou shalt be blessed above all peoples people: [l]there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. 15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness; sickness, and [he] will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee, thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. 16 And [r]thou shalt consume all the peoples people which the LORD thy God shall deliver unto thee; [t]thine eye shall not have no pity pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be [u]a snare unto thee. 17 If thou shalt say in thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? 18 [w]thou shalt not be afraid of them: thou but shalt well [x]remember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt; 19 the great [1]temptations which thine eyes saw, [z]and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the peoples people of whom thou art afraid. 20 Moreover [b]the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and [2]hide themselves, perish from before thee. 21 Thou themselves from thee, be destroyed. shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is [d]in the among midst of thee, [e]a great God and a you, a mighty and terrible. 22 [g]And the LORD thy God will cast †put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them [3]at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee. 23 [j]But the LORD thy God shall deliver them up before ‡unto thee, and shall discomfit destroy them with a great discomfiture, mighty destruction, until they be destroyed. 24 And [k]he shall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt make destroy their name to perish from under heaven: their name [n]there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them. 25 The graven images of their gods [p]shall ye burn with fire: thou [q]shalt not covet desire the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be [s]snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God: God: 26 and thou Neither shalt not shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, and become a devoted lest thou be a cursed thing like unto it: it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; [v]for it is a devoted cursed thing.

8 1 All the commandment commandments which I command thee this day [y]shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers. 2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God hath led thee [a]these forty years in the wilderness, that he might to day, that the LORD thy God is he which [a]goeth over before thee; as [b]a devouring fire; he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: [c]so shalt thou drive them out, and make them to perish quickly, as the LORD hath spoken unto thee. 4 [e]Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath thrust them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee. 5 [h]Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go in to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform [k]the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. 6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people. 7 Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: [r]from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD. 8 Also [t]in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you. 9 [u]When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount [x]forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water: 10 And [z]the LORD delivered unto me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire [d]in the day of the assembly. 11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant. 12 And the LORD said unto me, [f]Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are [i]quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. 13 [j]Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is [p]a stiffnecked people: 14 [l]let me alone, that I may destroy them, and [m]blot out their name from under heaven: and [n]I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. 15 [o]So I turned and came down from the mount, and [q]the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. 16 And [s]I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God; ye had made you a molten calf: [i]ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. 17 And I took hold of the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes. 18 And I [v]fell down before the LORD, [w]as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water; because of all your sins which ye sinned, [y]in doing that which was evil wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. 19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. [b]But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also. 20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time. 21 And [d]I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, grinding and ground it very small, even until it was as fine small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount. 22 And at [g]Taberah, and at [h]Massah, and at [i]Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath. 23 And Likewise [l]when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and [o]ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. 24 [q]Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you. 25 So Thus I fell down before the LORD the forty days and forty nights that nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you. 26 [w]And I prayed I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin: 28 lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, [a]Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised unto them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. 29 [c]Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy great mighty power and by thy stretched out arm.

eyes have seen [a]all the great work acts of the LORD which he did. 8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandment commandments which I command thee you this day, that ye may [c]be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go over to possess it; 9 and [e]that ye may prolong your days upon in the land, [g]which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, [h]a land flowing that floweth with milk and honey. 10 For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs: 11 [j]but the land, whither ye go over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven: 12 a land which the LORD thy God 1* careth for; for: [m]the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, [q]to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, 14 that [t]I will give you the rain of your land in its his due season, [v]the former first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. 15 [y]And I will give †send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, and that [z]thou shalt mayest eat and be full. 16 Take heed to yourselves, lest that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and [d]serve other gods, and worship them; 17 and [f]the anger of the LORD then the LORD'S wrath be kindled against you, and he [g]shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest [b]ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you. 18 Therefore [d]shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul; soul, and [f]ye shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and that they shall be for may be as frontlets between your eyes. 19 And ye shall teach them your children, talking speaking of them, them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. 20 [i]And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates: 21 [k]that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, upon in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, [l]as the days of the heavens above heaven upon the earth. 22 For if [n]ye shall diligently keep all this commandment these commandments which I command you, to do it; them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and [o]to cleave unto him; 23 then will the LORD [p]drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall [r]possess nations greater greater nations and mightier than yourselves. 24 [s]Every place whereon the sole soles of your foot feet shall tread shall be yours: [u]from the wilderness, wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto [w]the 2hinder uttermost sea shall be your your border. coast be. 25 [x]There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay [a]the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, [c]as he hath spoken said unto you.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put [g]the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal. 30 Are they not beyond Jordan, behind the way on the other side of the going down of the sun, where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside [j]the oaks of Moreh? champaign plains

31 For ye are to pass over Jordan shall to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein. 32 And ye shall observe [o]to do all the statutes and the judgements judgments which I set before you this day.

12 1 [q]These are the statutes and the judgements, judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD, the LORD God of thy fathers, hath given fathers giveth thee to possess it, [r]all the days that ye live upon the earth. 2 [s]Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall *possess served their gods, [t]upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree: and ye shall break down †overthrow their altars, and dash in pieces break [u]their [2]pillars, and burn their [v]Asherim groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods; gods, and ye shall destroy their name the names of them out of that place. 4 [y]Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But unto [a]the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come: 6 and thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and [d]your tithes, and the heave offering offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and [e]the firstlings of your herd herds and of your flock flocks: 7 and [f]there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and [h]ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee. 8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, [k]every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes: eyes. 9 For For ye are not as yet come to [m]the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD thy your God giveth thee. you. 10 But when [n]ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God causeth giveth you to inherit, [p]and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety; 11 then it shall come to pass that there shall be a [a]the place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there, there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, [d]your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all ‡your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD: 12 and [h]ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your gates, gates; forasmuch as [x]he hath no portion part nor inheritance with you. 13 [z]Take heed to 18 [a]I will raise them up a prophet (Prophet) from among their brethren, like unto thee (thee;), and [b]will put my words in his mouth (mouth;), and [c]he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him. 19 And [d]it shall come to pass, that whosoever will [f]not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. 20 [g]But the prophet, which shall speak a presume word presumptuously to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that same (that) prophet shall die. 21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken? 22 [j]When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken (spoken:, but) [g]the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously (presumptuously:), thou shalt not be afraid of him.

19 1 When [m]the LORD thy God (hath) shall cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou *succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses; 2 [n]thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it. 3 Thou shalt prepare thee (a) the way, and divide the coasts (borders) of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth (causeth) thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer (manslayer) may flee thither. 4 And this is the case of [p]the slayer (manslayer,) which shall flee thither (thither and) that he may live: whoso (Whoso) killeth his neighbour unawares (unawares, and hated him ignorantly, whom he hated) not †in time past; 5 as when a man goeth into the wood (forest) with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the ‡head slippeth from [2]the §helve, and ‖lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of these cities (those cities,) and live: 6 lest [e]the avenger of (the) blood pursue the slayer (manslayer,) while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and smite him mortally (slay him†), whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not †in time past. 7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee. 8 [h]And if the LORD thy God enlarge thy border (coast,) [i]as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and [k]give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers; 9 if thou shalt keep all this commandment (these commandments) to do it (them,) which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; [l]then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three: 10 that [3]innocent blood be not shed in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee. 11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, [o]and smite him ††mortally that he die (die;), and he flee (fleeth) into one of these cities: 12 then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. 13 [q]Thine eye shall not pity him, [r]but thou shalt put away [4]the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

[a]to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, [b]thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
12 [d]Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law: 13 and that their children, [h]which have not known any thing, [i]may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, [k]as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, [o]Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that [p]I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation. 15 And [s]the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood [1]over the door of the tabernacle. 16 And the LORD said unto Moses, [o]Behold, thou shalt *sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and [u]go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will [w]forsake me, and [x]break my covenant which I have made with them. 17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and [z]I will forsake them, and [b]I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come upon them; so that they will say in that day, [d]Are not these evils come upon us, because [f]our God is not among us? 18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that [c]they are turned unto other gods. 19 Now therefore write ye [e]this song for you, and [f]teach it thou the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be [g]a witness for me against the children of Israel. 20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, [j]that flowing with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and [l]waxen fat; [m]then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and [n]despise provoke me, and [x]break my covenant. 21 And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen come upon them, that this song shall testify before against ‡them as [q]a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for [r]I know their imagination which they §go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware. 22 So Moses Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel. 23 [t]And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, [v]Be strong and of good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware unto them: and [y]I will be with thee.

24 And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end [a]of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, 25 that Moses commanded [c]the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, 26 Take this book of the law, [e]and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your G

48 And the LORD spake unto Moses that selfsame day, saying,
49 Get thee up into m this mountain of Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab,
that is over against Jericho;
and behold the land of Canaan,
which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession: 50 and

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA.

1 Now it came to pass after the death of Moses the [b]servant of the LORD, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' [c]minister, saying, 2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel. 3 [f]Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, to you have I given it, as I spake unto Moses. 4 [g]From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast. 5 [k]There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: [l]as I was with Moses, so [m]I will be with thee: [n]I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. 6 [o]Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt cause this people to inherit the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give them. 7 Only be thou strong and [q]very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, [r]which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest have good success whithersoever thou goest. 8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but [a]thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt have good success. 9 Have not I commanded thee? [d]Be strong and of a good courage; [e]be not affrighted, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 Then Joshua commanded the [h]officers of the people, saying, 11 Pass through the midst of the camp, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for [i]within three days [j]ye are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 And to the Reubenites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying, 13 Remember the word which [p]Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and will give you this land. 14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall abide in the land which Moses gave you beyond Jordan; but ye shall pass over before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them; 15 [t]until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath

3 [1] And Joshua rose up early in the morning, morning; and they removed [d]from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel; Israel, and they lodged there before they passed over. [2] And it came to pass [e]after three days, that the officers went through the midst of the camp, host; [3] and they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and [h]the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. [4] [i]Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go; go: for ye have not passed this way ‡heretofore. [5] And Joshua said unto the people, [k]Sanctify yourselves: for to-morrow to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you. [6] And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, [m]Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people. [7] And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to [n]magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, [o]as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee. [8] And thou shalt command [p]the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the waters water of Jordan, [r]ye shall stand still in Jordan.

Get thee up; wherefore art thou thus *liest thou allen thus upon thy face? 11 Israel hath sinned; yea, and they have even also [b]transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: yea, for they have even taken of the [c]devoted thing; accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have even put it put it even among their own stuff. 12 [d]Therefore the children of Israel cannot could not stand before their enemies, but they turned turn their backs before their enemies, because they are become were accursed: I will not neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the devoted thing accursed from among you. 13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, [e]Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow: morrow: for thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, There is a devoted an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the devoted accursed thing from among you. 14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought near [m]by according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come near by according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come near by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come near man by man. 15 [n]And it shall be, that he that is taken with the devoted accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath [o]transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought [†]folly in Israel.

16 So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel near by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: 17 and he brought near the [1]family of Judah; and he took the family of the [a]Zerahites Zarhites: and he brought near the family of the Zerahites Zarhites [2]man by man; and Zabdi was taken: 18 and he brought near his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. 19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, [e]give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, and [3][g]make confession unto him; and [h]tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me. 20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Of a truth Indeed [k]I have sinned against the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: 21 when I saw among the spoil spoils a goodly [4]Babylonish mantle, garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a [‡]wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it. 22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it. 23 And they took them from out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel; Israel, and they [§]laid them down out before the LORD. 24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the mantle, garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them up unto [q]the valley of Achor. 25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou [r]troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. Israel [a]stoned him with stones; stones, [b]and they burned them with fire, and after they had stoned them with stones. 26 And they raised over him [c]a great heap of stones, stones unto this day; and day. So [d]the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of [1*]Achor, unto this day.

8 [1] And the LORD said unto Joshua, [f]Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, [g]I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land: [2] and thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst [i]unto Jericho and her king: only [j]the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: set lay thee an ambush for the city behind it. [3] So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand men, the mighty men of valour, and sent them forth away by night. [4] And he commanded them, saying, Behold, [k]ye shall lie in ambush wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready: [5] and I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, [l]as at the first, that we will flee before them; them, [6] and (For they will come out after us, us) till we have [†o]drawn them away from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first; first: so therefore we will flee before them: them. [7] and Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and take seize possession of upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. [8] And it shall be when ye have seized upon taken the city that ye shall set the city on fire fire according to the word commandment of the LORD shall ye do: [c]see, do. See, I have commanded you. [9] And Joshua Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to the ambushment, lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

[10] And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and mustered numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the chiefs captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them. 25 And Joshua said unto them, [b]Fear not, nor be dismayed; dismayed, be strong and of good courage: [d]for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight. 26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and put them to death, slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. 27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and [g]they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had hidden themselves, been hid, and laid great stones on the in the cave's mouth of the cave, unto which remain until this very day.

28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof; thereof he [1]utterly destroyed them destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein, therein; he left let none remaining remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah [j]as he had done did unto the king of Jericho.

29 And Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto [k]Libnah, and fought against Libnah: 30 and the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he left let none remaining remain in it; and he but did unto the king thereof [j]as he had done did unto the king of Jericho.

31 And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto [a]Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it: 32 and the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 Then Horam king of [c]Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 And Joshua passed from from Lachish Joshua passed Lachish, unto Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto [f]Eglon him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it; it: 35 and they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he [1]utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto [h]Hebron; and they fought against it: 37 and they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but he [1]utterly destroyed it, destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to [l]Debir; and fought against it: 39 and he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and [1]utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to the king thereof. her king.

R.V. [1] Heb. devoted.

40 So Joshua smote all the land, the hill country, country of the hills, and the South, and the lowland, of the vale, b and the slopes, of the springs, and all their kings; kings: he left none remaining: remaining, c but he [1] utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, Israel commanded. 41 And Joshua smote them from e Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of g Goshen, even unto Gibeon. 42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, j because the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, Israel fought for Israel. 43 k And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

11 1 And it came to pass, when m Jabin king of Hazor had heard thereof, those things, that he n sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, 2 and to the kings that were on the north, in north of the hill country, mountains, and in of the p Arabah plains south of q Chinneroth, and in the lowland, valley, and s in [2] the heights borders of t Dor on the west, 3 And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the u Jebusite in the hill country, mountains, and to the v Hivite under w Hermon in the land of x Mizpah. Mizpeh. 4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even z as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many. 5 And when all these kings met together; and were *met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight with against Israel. 6 And the LORD said unto Joshua, a Be not afraid because of them: for to-morrow at to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt d hough their horses, and burn their a chariots with fire. 7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom d suddenly, suddenly; and they fell upon them. 8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they who smote them, and chased them unto †f great Zidon, and unto ‡h Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of i Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining. 9 And Joshua did unto them l as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 And Joshua turned back at that at that time turned time, back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for o Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms. 11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, [3] utterly destroying them: r there was none left that breathed. not §any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire. 12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and he smote them with the edge of the sword, and he [1] utterly destroyed them; them, c as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. 13 But as for the cities that stood y on their still ‖in their mounds, strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn. 14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any that breathed. to breathe. 15 b As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, c so did Moses command Joshua: Joshua, e and so did Joshua; [4] he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, [b]the hill country, hills, and all the South, south country, and [e]all the land of Goshen, [f]and the lowland, valley, [f]and the Arabah, plain, [g]and the hill country mountain of Israel, and the lowland valley of the same; 17 Even from *the [1]mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto [h]Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under [l]mount Hermon: [n]and all their kings he took, and smote them, and put them to death. slew them. 18 Joshua made war [o]a long time with all those kings. 19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took all they took in battle. 20 For it was of the LORD [u]to harden their hearts, to that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might [3]utterly destroy them, destroy them utterly, and that they [4]might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 And Joshua came at that time, at that time came Joshua, and cut off [a]the Anakim Anakims from the hill country, mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country mountains of Judah, and from all the hill country mountains of Israel: Joshua [5]utterly destroyed them destroyed them utterly with their cities. 22 There was none of the Anakim Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, [c]in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain. there remained. 23 So Joshua took the whole land, [e]according to all that the LORD spake said unto Moses; [f]and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel [g]according to their divisions by their tribes. [i]And the land had rest rested from war.

12 1 Now these are the kings of the land, whom which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land beyond on the other side Jordan toward the sunrising, rising of the sun, from [a]the valley of river Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all [c]the Arabah plain eastward on the east: 2 [d]Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge upon the bank of the valley of river Arnon, and [h]the city that is in from the middle of the valley, river, and from half Gilead, even unto the [j]river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon; 3 and [e]the from Arabah [n]unto the plain to the sea of Chinneroth, Chinneroth eastward, east, and unto the sea of the Arabah, plain, even the Salt Sea, salt sea eastward, on the east, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and from on [†]the south, under [p]the slopes of Pisgah. [‡]Ashdoth-pisgah: 4 and the border coast of [q]Og king of Bashan, which was of the remnant of [s]the Rephaim, giants, that who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, 5 and ruled reigned in [v]mount Hermon, and [w]in Salecah, Salcah, and in all Bashan, [x]unto the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. 6 Them did [z]Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel smote them: smite and Moses the servant of the LORD [b]gave it for a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

7 And these are the kings of the land, country whom which Joshua and the children of Israel smote beyond on this side Jordan westward, on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the [d]mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir; and Joshua gave it which Joshua gave unto the tribes of Israel for a possession [g]according to their divisions; 8 [h]in the hill country, mountains, and in the lowland, valleys, and in the Arabah, plains, and in the slopes, springs, and in the wilderness, and in the South south country; [j]the Hittite, Hittites, the Amorite, Amorites, and the Canaanite, Canaanites, the Perizzite, Perizzites, the Hivite, Hivites, and the Jebusite, Jebusites: 9 [k]the king of 6 Then the children of Judah drew nigh came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the [i]Kenizzite Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest [j]the thing that the LORD spake said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning thee in Kadesh-barnea. 7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD [n]sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy espy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart. 8 Nevertheless [o]my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God. 9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, [r]Surely the land [s]whereon thy foot hath feet have trodden shall be an thine inheritance to thee inheritance, and to thy children thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God. 10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, [u]as he spake, said, these [v]forty and five years, from the time that even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel walked *wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day [v]fourscore and five years old. 11 [x]As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, and both [c]to go out out, and to come in. 12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the [e]Anakim Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: it may if so be that be the LORD will be with me, and then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD spake. said. 13 And Joshua [g]blessed him; him, and he gave [h]Hebron unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance. 14 Therefore Hebron Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, Kenezite unto this day; day, [k]because that he wholly followed the LORD, the LORD God of Israel. 15 [l]Now And the name of Hebron beforetime before was [2]Kiriath-arba; Kirjath-arba; which Arba was the greatest a great man among the Anakim. 4 and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah; 5 and Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah; 6 and Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities with their villages: 7 Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities with their villages: 8 and all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramah of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. 9 b Out of the part of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance in the midst of their inheritance. within the inheritance of them.

10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid: 11 and their border went up westward, even toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth; and it reached to the brook that is before e Jokneam; 12 and it turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrising unto the border of Chisloth-tabor; and it went out to Daberath, and went up to Japhia; 13 and from thence it passed along eastward to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin; and it went out at Rimmon which stretcheth unto Neah; 14 and the border turned about it on the north side to Hannathon: and the goings out thereof were at the valley of Iphtah-el; 15 and Kattath, and Nahalal, and h Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-lehem: twelve cities with their villages. 16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, even for the children of Issachar according to their families. 18 And their border was unto toward Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and a Shunem; 19 and Hapharaim, and Shion, and Anaharath; 20 and Rabbith, and Kishion, and Ebez; 21 and Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez; 22 and the border reached coast reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh; and the goings out of their border were at Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages. 23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities with their villages.

24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families. 25 And their border was Helkath and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph 26 and Allammelech, and Amad, and Mishal; and it reached to c Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath; 27 and it turned toward the sunrising to Beth-dagon, and reached to Zebulun, and to the valley of Iphtah-el northward to Beth-emek Jiphthah-el toward the north side of Beth-emek and Neiel; and it went out to f Cabul on the left hand, 28 and Ebron and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even unto g great Zidon. 29 and the border turned then the coast turneth to Ramah and to [2]the fenced city of †Tyre; and the border turned coast turneth to Hosah; and the goings out outgoings thereof were at the sea [3]by the region of from the coast to Achzib. 30 Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages. 31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 The sixth lot came out for the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali

41 [b] All the cities of the Levites in the midst of within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.
42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus it was with were all these cities.
43 [d] So And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. 44 [f] And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: [g] and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; [h] the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. 45 [i] There failed not aught ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

22 1 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, 2 and said unto them, Ye have kept [k] all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, [m] and have hearkened unto obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you: 3 ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. 4 [f] And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he spake unto promised them: therefore now turn return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, [o] which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond on the other side Jordan. 5 [p] Only But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded charged you, [a] to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.
6 So Joshua [c] blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.
7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given inheritance possession in Bashan: [c] but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren beyond on this side Jordan westward. Moreover And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them, 8 and he spake unto them, saying, Return with much wealth riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: [j] divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.
9 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go [l] unto the land country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the commandment word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. 10 And when they came unto the region about borders of Jordan, that is are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to. 11 And the children of Israel [n] heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the forefront of over against the land o

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond on the other side Jordan; [a]and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, and that ye possessed might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. 9 [b]Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought warred against Israel; Israel, [c]and he sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you: 10 [d]but I would not hearken unto Balaam; [d]therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand. 11 [e]And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: [f]and the men of Jericho fought against you, [f]the Amorite, Amorites, and the Perizzite, Perizzites, and the Canaanite, Canaanites, and the Hittite, Hittites, and the Girgashite, Girgashites, the Hivite, Hivites, and the Jebusite Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. 12 And I sent [l]the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but [m]not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. 13 And I gave I have given you a land whereon thou hadst for which ye did not laboured, not labour, [n]and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell therein in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat. 14 [p]Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and [r]put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD. 15 [s]And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, [t]choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether [r]the gods which your fathers served that were beyond on the the River, other side of the flood, or [x]the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: [z]but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. 16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; 17 for the LORD our God, he it is that brought us and our up and our fathers up fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of [1]bondage, and that which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the peoples people through the midst of whom we passed: 18 and the LORD drave out from before us all the peoples, people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore we also will will we also serve the LORD; for he is our God. 19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD; LORD: for he is [g]an holy God; he is [h]a jealous God; [i]he will not forgive your transgression transgressions nor your sins. 20 [j]If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then [k]he will turn and do you evil, hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good. 21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD. 22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that [o]ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses. 23 Now therefore [q]put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD, the LORD God of Israel. 24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and unto his voice will we hearken. obey. 25 So Joshua [u]made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a [v]statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

And he Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, [q]I will never break my covenant with you: 2 [r]and And ye shall make no covenant league with the inhabitants of this land; [b]ye shall break throw down their altars: but ye have not hearkened unto obeyed my voice: why have ye done this? 3 Wherefore I also said, [c]I will not drive them out from before you; but they [4]shall be [e]as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you. 4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. 5 And they called the name of that place [5§]Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 Now And when Joshua had sent let the people away, go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land. 7 [h]And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that [‖]outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work works of the LORD, that he had wrought did for Israel. 8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old. 9 And they buried him in the border of [k]his inheritance in []Timnath-heres, [l]in the hill country mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the mountain of the hill Gaash. 10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the work works which he had wrought done for Israel.

land of Egypt, [a]and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples people that were round about them, [c]and bowed themselves down unto them; them, [e]and they provoked the LORD to anger. 13 And they forsook the LORD, [f]and served Baal and the Ashtaroth. 14 [h]And the anger of the LORD was kindled hot against Israel, [i]and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, [j]and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, [l]so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. 15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had spoken, said, [m]and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were sore greatly distressed. 16 [o]And Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, [p]which *delivered saved them out of the hand of those that spoiled them. 17 And yet they hearkened not would not hearken unto their judges, for but [q]they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves down unto them: [r]they turned aside quickly out of the way wherein their fathers walked, which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so. 18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, [t]then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: [v]for it repented the LORD because of [w]their groaning groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them. 19 But And it came to pass, [y]when the judge was dead, that they turned back, returned, and †corrupted themselves more dealt more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; ‡they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way. 20 [b]And the anger of the LORD was kindled hot against Israel; and he said, Because this nation that this people hath [d]have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice; 21 [g]I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died: 22 that by through them [k]I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not. 23 So Therefore the LORD §left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

3 1 [n]Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan; 2 only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as beforetime before knew nothing thereof; 3 namely, [s]the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Zidonians, Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath. 4 And they were for [u]to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. 5 And the children of Israel dwelt [x]among [2]the Canaanites; the Hittite, Canaanites, Hittites, and the Amorite, Amorites, and the Perizzite, Perizzites, and the Hivite, Hivites, and the Jebusite: Jebusites 6 [z]and they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

while they tarried, and passed beyond [a] the [1] quarries, and escaped unto Seirah, Seirath. 27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that [b] he blew a trumpet in [c] the hill country, mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill country, mount, and he before them. 28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: [f] for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took [h] the fords of Jordan [2] against the Moabites, toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over. 29 And they smote, slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, every lusty man, and every man, all *lusty, and all men of valour; and there escaped not a man. 30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh. 10 And Barak called [q] Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh; and there went up, he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber [t] the Kenite had severed himself from [5] the Kenites, even from the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and had pitched his tent as far as unto the plain of Zaanaim, [7] oak in [x] Zaanannim, which is by Kedesh.

Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which [a]the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: [b]is not the LORD gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. 15 [c]And the LORD discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and so that Sisera lighted down from off his chariot, and fled away on his feet. 16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the [1]Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell by upon the edge of the sword; and there was not *a man left.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. 18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And he came unto her; and, when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent-pin nail was in his temples. 23 [d]So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. 24 And the hand of the children of Israel prevailed more §prospered, and and more prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

11 And the angel of the LORD came, there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under the (an) [1]oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash [d]the Abiezrite (Abi-ezrite): and his son *[e]Gideon was beating out (threshed) wheat in the winepress, †to hide it (by) from the Midianites. 12 And [h]the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, [i]The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour. 13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my lord, (Lord,) if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be [k]all his wondrous works (miracles) [l]which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath cast us off, (forsaken us,) and delivered us into the hand of (hands of the) Midianites. 14 And the LORD [2]looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midian (Midianites): [o]have not I sent thee? 15 And he said unto him, [p]Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, ‡[r]my [3][s]family is the poorest (poor) in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. 16 And the LORD said unto him, [u]Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man. 17 And he said unto him, [v]If now I have found grace in thy sight, then [w]shew me a sign that it is (that) thou talkest with me. 18 [y]Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my [4]§present, and lay (set) it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again. 19 And Gideon went in, [b]and made ready ‖a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of meal (flour): the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the [1]oak, and presented it. 20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them [f]upon this rock, and [g]pour out the broth. And he did so. 21 Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; [j]and there went (rose) up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; (cakes. with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, hands, [b]lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me. [3] Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, [e]Whosoever is fearful and trembling, afraid, let him return and [1]depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

[4] And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go. [5] So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink. [6] And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. [7] And the LORD said unto Gideon, [j]By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place. [8] [2]So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the men of the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, but and retained the those three hundred men: and the camp host of Midian was beneath him [a]in the valley.

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the host hosts of [h]the children of the east: for there fell [†]an hundred and twenty thousand men [i]that drew sword. 11 And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of [j]Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host; host: for the host was [l]secure. 12 And Zebah and when Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them; [k]and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and [2‡]discomfited all the host. 13 And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle from before the ascent of Heres. sun was up, 14 And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he [3§]described for unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, seventy even threescore and seven seventeen men. 15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning with whom ye did taunt upbraid me, saying, [p]Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary? 16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he [4‖]taught the men of Succoth. 17 [b]And he brake beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city. 18 Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at [d]Tabor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one []resembled the children of a king. 19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: [g]as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you. 20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth. 21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, [k]and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the crescents [m]the [††]ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast saved us out of delivered us from the hand of Midian. 23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: [n]the LORD shall rule over you. 24 And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the [5]earrings of his spoil. prey. 12 And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come unto/against me to fight against/in my land? 13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, [c]Because Israel took away my land, when he/they came up out of Egypt, from [d]Arnon even unto [e]Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably. 14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon: 15 and he said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah:/Jephthah, [f]Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon: 16 but when they/Israel came up from Egypt, and Israel walked through the wilderness [i]unto the Red Sea,/sea, and [j]came to Kadesh; 17 then [l]Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: [m]but the king of Edom would not hearken/hearkened not. thereto. And in like manner he/they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel [p]abode in Kadesh. 18 Then he walked/they went along through the wilderness, and [q]compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and [r]came by the east side of the land of Moab, and [s]they pitched on the other side of Arnon;/Arnon, but they came not within the border of Moab,/Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab. 19 [u]And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land unto/into my place. 20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his border/coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. 21 And the LORD, the/LORD God of Israel,/Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. 22 And they possessed all the border/coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan. 23 So now the LORD, the/LORD God of Israel,/Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess them/it? 24 Wilt not thou possess that which [g]Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? [h]So whomsoever the LORD our God hath dispossessed/shall drive out from before us, them will we possess. 25 And now art thou any thing better than [k]Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them?/them, 26 While Israel dwelt [n]in Heshbon and her [1]towns, and [o]in Aroer and her [1]towns, and in all the cities that are/be along by the side/coasts of Arnon, three hundred years; wherefore/years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time? 27 I/Wherefore therefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: [s]the LORD, the Judge,/LORD the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon. 28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

34 And Jephthah came to [g] Mizpah Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him [h] with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; [§] beside her he had neither son nor daughter. 35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that [i] he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, [k] and I cannot go back. 36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD; LORD, do unto to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon. 37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may depart and go ‖ go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions. fellows. 38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she departed, she and went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains. 39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, [d] who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she had not known knew no man. With the jawbone (jaw) of an ass have I smitten (slain) a thousand men.
17 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand (hand); and [1]that place [b]was called (called that place) [2*]Ramath-lehi. 18 And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, [d]Thou hast given this great deliverance (by) into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised (uncircumcised?). 19 But God clave (the) an hollow place that (is) was [b]in [3]Lehi, in †the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, [e]his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore [4]the name thereof was called (he called the name thereof) [5]‡ En-hakkore, which is in Lehi, (Lehi) unto this day. 20 And he judged Israel [g]in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

16 1 (And Samson went / Then went Samson) to [h]Gaza, and saw there §an harlot, and went in unto her. 2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they [i]compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were ‖quiet all the night, saying, [6]Let (In be till morning light, then the morning, when it is day,) we (will shall) kill him. 3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and (laid hold of took) the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and (plucked them up, went away with them,) bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of (the mountain an hill) that is before Hebron.

4 And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman [7]††in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. 5 And [k]the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, [a]Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to [8]‡‡[c]afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver. 6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to [c]afflict thee. 7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven [9]§§green (withes withs) that were never dried, [f]then shall I (become be) weak, and be as *another man. 8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven [9]green (withes withs) which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. 9 Now (she had liers in wait there were men lying in wait,) abiding (in with) her in the (inner) chamber. And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the (withes, withs,) as a (string thread) of tow is broken when it [10]†toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known. 10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound. 11 And he said unto her, If they (only bind me bind me fast) with [j]new ropes (wherewith ‡that with no work hath been done, never were occupied,) then shall I (become be) weak, and be as another man. 12 (So Delilah / Delilah therefore) took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And (the liers in wait were there were liers in wait) abiding in the (inner) chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread. 13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou

Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought the money in their hand. 19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for [2]a man, and shaved / she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began [k]to afflict him, and his strength went from him. 20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. [29] And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house rested, stood, and *leaned upon on which it was them, borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. [30] And Samson said, Let †me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life. [31] Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him [h]between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

17 [1] And there was a man of [i]the hill country of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah. [2] And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred pieces shekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou didst utter [2]a curse, cursedst, and didst also speak it spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, [l]Blessed be my son of the LORD. be thou of the LORD, my son. [3] And when he had restored the eleven hundred pieces shekels of silver to his mother, and his mother said, I verily [3]dedicate had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make [o]a graven image and [p]a molten image: now therefore I will restore it unto thee. [4] And when Yet he restored the money unto his mother, mother; and his mother [r]took two hundred pieces shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and it was they were in the house of Micah. [5] And the man Micah had an house of [4]gods, and he made [a]an ephod, [b]and teraphim, and [5]‡[c]consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. [6] [d]In those days there was no king in Israel: Israel, but [e]every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

[7] And there was a young man out of [f]Beth-lehem-judah, Beth-lehem-judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there. [8] And the man departed out of the city, out of Beth-lehem-judah, city from Beth-lehem-judah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to [g]the hill country of mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, §as he journeyed. [9] And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place. [10] And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me [j]a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten pieces shekels of silver by the year, and ‖a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in. [11] And the Levite [k]was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons. [12] And Micah [m]consecrated the Levite, Levite; and the young man [n]became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. 2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their whole number, coasts, *men of valour, [b]from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, [c]to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: and who when they came [e]to the hill country of mount Ephraim, unto to the house of Micah, and they lodged there. 3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned aside in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what doest makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here? 4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus hath Micah dealt dealeth Micah with me, [j]and he hath hired me, and I am become his priest. 5 And they said unto him, [k]Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous. 6 And the priest said unto them, [m]Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to †[n]Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt in security, careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; for and there was one in the land, possessing ‡authority, no ‡magistrate in the land, [2]that might put them to shame in any thing, ing; and [s]they were far from the Zidonians, and had no dealings business with any man. 8 And they came unto their brethren to [u]Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye? 9 And they said, [v]Arise, and let us that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: [w]and are ye still? [x]be not slothful to go go, and to enter in to possess the land. 10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people [a]secure, and the land is large to a large land: for God hath given it into your hand hands; [d]a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 And there set forth went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men §girt appointed with weapons of war. 12 And they went up, and encamped in pitched in Kirjath-jearim, [g]in Judah: wherefore they called that place [h]Mahaneh-dan, Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind [g]Kiriath-jearim. the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there. 5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, that when they arose early in the morning, and that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, *[b]Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward ye shall go your way. 6 So And they sat down, and did eat and drink, drink, both of them together: and for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and [d]let thine heart be merry. 7 And when the man rose up to depart; but depart, his father in law urged him, him: and therefore he lodged there again. 8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; depart: and the damsel's father said, [f]Comfort thine heart, I pray thee, thee, and they tarried thee. And tarry ye until the day declineth; †until afternoon, and they did eat, eat both of them. 9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day ‡draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, §the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to-morrow to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go [1]‖home. 10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against [j]Jebus Jebus, the same is Jerusalem): which is Jerusalem; and there were with him a couple of two asses saddled; saddled, his concubine also was with him.

When And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn aside in into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it. 12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, [2]that is not of the children of Israel; but we will pass over to [a]Gibeah. 13 And he said unto his servant, Come Come, and let us draw near to one of these places; and we will lodge places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in [c]Ramah. 14 So And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were near to by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin. 15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, and he sat him down in the a street of the city: [e]for there was no man that took them into his house to lodge. lodging. 16 And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even; now the man even, which was of [g]the hill country of Ephraim, also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah: [h]but the men of the place were Benjamites. 17 And when he he had lifted up his eyes, and he saw the a wayfaring man in the street of the city: city; and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou? 18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah unto the farther toward the side of the hill country of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-judah; Beth-lehem-judah, but [3]and I am now going [i]to the house of the LORD; [e]and there is no man that taketh me into his ††receiveth me to house. 19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: [k]there is no want of any thing. 20 And the old

Up, and let us be going; but going. But none answered: then he answered. Then the man took her up upon the ass; an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place. 29 And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, [e]and divided her, [3]limb by limb, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout into all the borders coasts of Israel. 30 [i]And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: [j]consider of it, take counsel, advice, and speak. speak your minds.

20 [1]Then [k]all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled gathered together as one man, [m]from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD at [p]Mizpah. in Mizpeh. 2 And the [4q]chiefs chief of all the people, [5]even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen [s]that drew sword. 3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpah. And Then said the children of Israel said, Tell us, how was this wickedness brought to pass? 4 And [†]the Levite, the husband of the woman that was murdered, slain, answered and said, [t]I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge. 5 [u]And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night; me they night, and thought to have slain, slain me: and my concubine have they [‡]forced, and that she is dead. 6 [v]And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and [a]folly in Israel. 7 Behold, ye children of Israel, all of you, are all children of Israel; [c]give here your advice and counsel. 8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn unto into his house. 9 But now this is shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up against it by lot; by lot against it; 10 and we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to [1]Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel. 11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, *knit together as one man.

12 [g]And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the [2]tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is come to pass done among you? 13 Now therefore deliver up us the men, [h]the [3]sons children of [4]Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of [5]Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel: Israel: 15 And But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, and go out to battle against the children of Israel. 15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered on at that day time out of the cities [k]twenty and [6]six thousand men [l]that drew sword, besides beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men. 16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men [b]lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair-breadth, hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered [l]four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war. 18 And the children of Israel arose, and went up to [d]Beth-el, the house of God, and asked counsel of God; and they said, [e]Who Which of us shall go up for us first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, [e]Judah shall go up first. 19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah. 20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel set the battle put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah. 21 [f]And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites on that day twenty and two thousand men. 22 And the people, people, the men of Israel, Israel encouraged themselves, and set the their battle again in array in the place where they set put themselves in array the first day. 23 [j](And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even; even, and they asked asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I again go up draw nigh again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these [a]drew the sword.
26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto [b]Beth-el, the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even; even, and [they] offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. 27 And the children of Israel [asked] inquired of the LORD, [d](for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 and [e]Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, [f]stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for [to-morrow] to morrow I will deliver [him] them into thine hand. 29 [h]And Israel set liers in wait [against Gibeah round about.] round about Gibeah.
30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and [set] put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times. 31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began *to smite [and kill of] of the people, the people, and kill, as at other times, in the high ways, [highways,] [i]of which one goeth up to [k]Beth-el, †the house of God, and the other to [Gibeah,] Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel. 32 And the children of Benjamin said, [l]They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them [away] from the city unto the [high ways.] highways. 33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and [set] put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel [brake] came forth out of their [place,] places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah. [1]Maareh-geba. 34 And there came [over] against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: [c]but they knew not that evil [was] close upon was near them. 35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of [Benjamin] the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these [a]drew the sword.
36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to [Benjamin,] the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set [against] beside Gibeah. 37 [g]And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait ‡drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword. 38 Now [there was an] the appointed §sign between the men of Israel ‖and the liers in wait [was], that they should make a great [cloud of] flame with smoke rise up out of the city. 39 [3]And [when] the men of Israel [turned] retired in the battle, [and] Benjamin began ††to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, [j]Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle. 40 But when the [cloud] flame began to arise up out of the city [in] with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, ‡‡[m]the [whole] flame of the city [went up in smoke ascended up] to heaven. 41 And [when] the men of Israel [turned, and] turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: [n]for they saw that evil §§was come upon them. 42 Therefore the

and she was left, and her two sons. 4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years. 5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left of her two children sons and of her husband. 6 Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that [c]the LORD had visited his people [d]in giving them bread. 7 And Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah. 8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each of you to her mother's house: the LORD [h]deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with [i]the dead, and with me. 9 The LORD grant you that ye may find [j]rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept. 10 And they said unto her, Nay, but Surely we will return with thee unto thy people. 11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? have I are there yet any more sons in my womb, [n]that they may be your husbands? 12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, *if I should even have an husband to-night, so to night, and should also bear sons; 13 would ye therefore tarry †tarry for them till they were grown? would ye there-stay re stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for 1‡ it grieveth me much for your sakes, sakes for that [a]the hand of the LORD is gone forth out against me. 14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her. 15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto [b]her god gods: return thou after thy sister in law. 16 And Ruth said, §Intreat me not to leave thee, and or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: [e]thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God: 17 where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: [f]the LORD do so to me, and more also, if aught ought but death part thee and me. 18 [g]And When When she saw that she ‖was stedfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her. 19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that [k]all the city was moved about them, and the women they said, Is this Naomi? 20 And she said unto them, Call me not 2Naomi, call me 3††[l]Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me. 21 [m]I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me? 22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem [o]in the beginning of barley harvest.

2 [1] And Naomi had [a] a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of [1] wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was *[c] Boaz. [2] And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and [d] glean among the ears of corn after him [f] in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter. [3] And she went, and came, came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her †hap was to light on the portion of a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the family of kindred of Elimelech. [4] And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, [i] The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee. [5] Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this? [6] And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel [l] that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab: [7] and she said, Let me glean, I pray you, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, save that she tarried a little in the house. [8] Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither pass go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens. maidens: [9] Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn. [10] Then [n] she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thy sight, thine eyes, that thou shouldest [b] take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger? [11] And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, [e] all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore. [12] [g] The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, [h] under whose wings thou art come to take refuge. trust. [13] Then she said, ‡[j] Let me find grace favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken [2] kindly §friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not as like unto one of thine handmaidens. [14] And at meal-time Boaz said unto her, Come hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and [3] they he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and [m] was sufficed, and left thereof. [15] And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and ‖reproach her not. not: [16] And also pull out let fall also some for her from the bundles, of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave it, and let her glean, them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not. [17] So she gleaned in the field until even; even, and she beat out that she had gleaned, gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley. [18] And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought

And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to-day to day is Boaz. 20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, [c]Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindness [e]to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is nigh near of kin unto us, [1*]one of [f]our near next kinsmen. 21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, Yea, he He said unto me, me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest. 22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, and that they [†]meet thee not in any other field. 23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she dwelt with her mother in law.

the part of a kinsman to thee, [a]as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning. 14 And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could (discern, know) another. (For, And) he said, Let it not be known that (the, a) woman came (to the threshing-floor, into the floor.) 15 (And, Also) he said, Bring the (mantle, *vail) that (is, thou hast) upon thee, and hold (it, it; and) she held (it:, it,) and (he, she) measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and (he, she) went into the city. 16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, [2]Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her. 17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he (said, [3]said to me,) Go not empty unto thy mother in law. 18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not (be in, rest) until he have finished the thing this day.

4 1 (Now Boaz went, Then went Boaz) up to [e]the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the [f](near, kinsman) of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down. 2 And he took ten men [h]of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down. 3 And he said unto the (near, kinsman), Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth (the, a) parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's: 4 and †I thought to [4](disclose it unto, advertise) thee, saying, [k]Buy it before (them that sit here, the inhabitants,) and before the elders of my people. And he said, I will redeem it. 5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, [b]to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. 6 [c]And the (near, kinsman) said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: (take, redeem) thou my right (of redemption, on thee, to thyself); for I cannot redeem it. 7 [d]Now this was the (custom, manner) in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning (exchanging, changing,) for to confirm all things; a man (drew, plucked) off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was (the manner of attestation, a testimony) in Israel. 8 (So the near, Therefore the) kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for (thyself, thee.) (And, So) he drew off his shoe. 9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was [g]Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi. 10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, [b]to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day. 11 And all the people that were [i]in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL.

[A.V.], OTHERWISE CALLED, THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS.

1 Now there was a certain man of [a]Ramathaim-zophim, of [b]the hill country of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite Ephrathite: 2 and he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. 3 And this man went up out of his city [e]from year to year ††yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts [g]in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests unto of the LORD, were there. 4 And when the day came time was that Elkanah sacrificed, offered, [c]he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: 5 but unto Hannah he gave [3]‡‡a double portion: worthy portion; for he loved Hannah, Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb. 6 And her rival adversary also §§provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. 7 And as he did so year by year, *when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. 8 And Then said Elkanah her husband said unto to her,

Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? [b]am not I better to thee than ten sons? 9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon [his a] seat by [the a] door post of [d]the temple of the LORD. 10 And she was [*f]in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore. 11 And she [g]vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed [h]look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and [i]remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid [1†]a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, [k]and there shall no razor come upon his head. 12 And it came to pass, as she [‡]continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth. 13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. 14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. 15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman [§]of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but [[r]I have] poured out my soul before the LORD. 16 Count not thine handmaid for [2r]a daughter of [3]Belial: for out of the abundance of my [‖]complaint and [my provocation grief] have I spoken hitherto. 17 Then Eli answered and said, [t]Go in peace: and the God of Israel [u]grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him. 18 And she said, [w]Let [thy servant thine handmaid] find grace in thy sight. So the woman [a]went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad. 19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to [c]Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD [e]remembered her. 20 [And Wherefore] it came to pass, []when the time was come [about, about] [that after] Hannah [had] conceived, [and that she] bare a [son; son,] and [she] called his name [††]Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD. 21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, [j]went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. 22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, [l]and there abide for ever. 23 [m]And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; [n]only the LORD establish his word. So the woman [tarried abode,] and gave her son [suck, suck] until she weaned him. 24 And when she had weaned him, [o]she took him up with her, with [4]three bullocks, and one ephah of [meal, flour,] and a [5]bottle of wine, and brought him unto [q]the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young. 25 And they slew [the a] bullock, and brought the child to Eli. 26 And she said, Oh my lord, [s]as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD. 27 For this child I prayed; [v]and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him: 28 therefore [I also also I]

LORD:
For there is none beside thee:
Neither is there [j]any rock like our God.
3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly;
Let not ‡arrogancy come out of your mouth:
For the LORD is a God of knowledge,
[3]And by him actions are weighed.
4 [o]The bows of the mighty men are broken,
And they that stumbled are girded with strength.
5 They that were full have hired out themselves for bread;
And they that were hungry [4]have ceased:

18 [g]But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, [i]girded with a linen ephod. 19 Moreover his mother made him a little [robe,] coat, and brought it to him from year to year, [k]when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. 20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman [4n]for the †loan which [was] is lent to the LORD. 3 [1] [h] And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. [i] And the word of the LORD was [3] precious in those days; there was no [4] open vision. [2] And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, ([k] now and his eyes had [begun began] to wax dim, that he could not [see, see;]) [3] [m] and ere the lamp of God was not yet gone out, and Samuel was laid down to sleep, [o] in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was; [4] that the LORD called Samuel: and he [said, answered,] Here am I. [5] And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down. [6] And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou [calledst didst call] me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again. [7] [§] Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him. [8] And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou [calledst didst call] me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child. [9] Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. [10] And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel [said, answered,] Speak; for thy servant heareth. [11] And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, [g] at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. [12] In that day I will perform against Eli [j] all [that things which] I have spoken concerning his [house, from the beginning even house: ‖ when I begin, I will also] unto the [make an] end. [13] [] [j] For I have told him that I will judge his house for [ever, ever] for the iniquity which he [knew, knoweth;] [l] because his sons [5] did bring a curse upon themselves, [made themselves ††vile,] [n] and he [‡‡] restrained them not. [14] And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, [p] that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be [6] purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever. [15] And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD.

And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision. 16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he said, answered, Here am I. 17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath spoken said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: [b]God do so to thee, and *more also, if thou hide any †thing from me of all the things that he spake said unto thee. 18 And Samuel told him ‡every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, [d]It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good. 19 [e]And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, [f]and did let none of his words fall to the ground. 20 And all Israel [g]from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was §established to be a prophet of the LORD. 21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel [h]in Shiloh [i]by the word of the LORD.

4 1 And the word of Samuel ‖came to all Israel.

Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside [k]Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in [l]Aphek. 2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when 1 they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of ††the 2army in the field about four thousand men. 3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day to day before the Philistines? Let us ‡‡fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD [r]out of Shiloh unto us, that it may come that, when it cometh among us, and it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. 4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and they brought that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, [a]which 3sitteth dwelleth upon the between the cherubim cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. 5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel [c]shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. 6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp. 7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing §§heretofore. 8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods Gods? these are the gods Gods that smote the Egyptians with all manner of the 4plagues in the wilderness. 9 [j]Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, [m]as they have been to you: *quit yourselves like men, and fight. 10 And the Philistines fought, [n]and Israel was smitten, [o]and they fled every man to into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen. 11 [p]And the ark of God was taken; [q]and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, †were slain. 12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the 2army, and came to Shiloh the same day [s]with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to *us, to slay us and our people. 11 [d]They sent therefore or So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its or his own place, that it slay †us not, and our people: for there was a deadly discomfiture or destruction throughout all the city; [o]the hand of God was very heavy there. 12 And the men that died not were smitten with the [d]tumours or emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

6 1 And the ark of the LORD was in the [1]country of the Philistines seven months[2]. 2 And the Philistines called for the priests and [r]the diviners, saying, What shall we do with or to the ark of the LORD? shew or tell us wherewith we shall send it to its or his place. 3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return him [b]a [3]guilt or trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why [c]his hand is not removed from you. 4 Then said they, What shall be the guilt or trespass offering which we shall return to him? And they said, or They answered, Five golden [d]tumours or emerods, and five golden mice, [e]according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on [4]‡you all, and on your lords. 5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your [d]tumours or emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land; [g]and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure [h]he will lighten his hand from off you, [i]and from off your gods, and from off your land. 6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as [j]the Egyptians and [k]Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had [5]wrought §wonderfully among them, [l]did they not let [4]‡the people go, and they departed? 7 Now therefore take or make and prepare you [m]a new cart, and or a new cart, and take two milch kine, [n]on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them: 8 and take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put [p]the jewels of gold, which ye return him for [b]a guilt or trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go. 9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of its or his own border or coast to [q]Beth-shemesh, then ‖he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not [s]his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us. 10 And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home: 11 and out before the LORD, [a]and fasted on that day, and said there, [b]We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah. Mizpeh. 7 And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpah, Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. 8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, *Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. 9 And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering burnt offering wholly unto the LORD: and [g]Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD answered †heard him. 10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: [j]but the LORD thundered with a great [1]thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten down before Israel. 11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah, Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car. 12 Then Samuel [l]took a stone, and set it between Mizpah Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it [2]‡Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us. 13 [m]So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more within into the border coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. 14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the border coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hand hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites. 15 [c]And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. 16 And he went from year to year §in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpah, Mizpeh, and [he] judged Israel in all those places. 17 And his return was to [d]Ramah, Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: [e]and he built there there he built an altar unto the LORD.

8 [1]And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that [f]he made his sons judges over Israel. 2 Now the name of his firstborn was ‖Joel; and the name of his second, Abijah Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba. 3 And his sons walked not in his ways, [h]but turned aside after lucre, [i]and took bribes, and perverted judgement. judgment.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto [d]Ramah, Ramah, 5 and they said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: [k]now make us a king to judge us like all the nations. 6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. him, and he prophesied among them. 11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied (with among) the prophets, then the people said *one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? [b]Is Saul also among the prophets? 12 And one †of the same place answered and said, [d](And But) who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, [b]Is Saul also among the prophets? 13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And [f]Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, [g]To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were (not found, no where,) we came to Samuel. 15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you. 16 And Saul said unto his uncle, [j]He told us plainly that the asses were found. But (concerning of) the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 And Samuel called the people together [l]unto the LORD [n](to Mizpah; Mizpeh;) 18 and (he) said unto the children of Israel, [o]Thus saith the (LORD, the LORD) God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and [I] delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all (the kingdoms kingdoms, and of them) that oppressed you: 19 [q](but And) ye have this day rejected your God, who himself (saveth saved) you out of all your (calamities adversities) and your (distresses tribulations); and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore [u]present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands. 20 (So And when) Samuel [a](brought had caused) all the tribes of Israel (near, and to come near,) the tribe of Benjamin was taken. 21 (And When) he (brought the tribe of Benjamin had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come) near by their families, (and) the family of (the Matrites Matri) was (taken[1]; taken,) and Saul the son of Kish was (taken; but taken: and) when they sought him, he could not be found. 22 [c]Therefore they (asked inquired) of the LORD further, (Is there yet a man to if the man should yet) come (hither? thither.) And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff. 23 And they ran and fetched him (thence; thence:) and when he stood among the people, [e]he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. 24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him [h]whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, [3]‡[i]God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people [k]the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in [4]a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. 26 And Saul also went (to his house home) [m]to Gibeah; and there went with him (a the band) [5]host, (of men,) whose hearts God had touched. 27 But (certain [6]p sons the children) of [7]Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they told him the (words tidings) of the men of Jabesh. 6 [l]And the (spirit Spirit) of God came (mightily) upon Saul when he heard those (words, tidings,) and his anger was kindled greatly. 7 And he took a yoke of oxen, [m]and (cut hewed) them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the (borders coasts) of Israel by the (hand hands) of messengers, saying, [p]Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the (dread fear) of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out (as one man. with one consent.) 8 And when he numbered them in (Bezek; Bezek,) the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. 9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, (To-morrow, by the time To morrow, by that time) the sun (is be) hot, ye shall have [z](deliverance. †help.) And the messengers came and (told. shewed it to) the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. 10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, [b](To-morrow To morrow) we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you. 11 [b]And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people [d]in three companies; and they came into the midst of the (camp host) in the morning watch, and (smote slew) the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together. 12 And the people said unto Samuel, [f]Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? [h]bring the men, that we may put them to death. 13 And Saul said, [i]There shall not a man be put to death this day: for (to-day to day) [j]the LORD hath wrought (2[k]deliverance salvation) in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, (Come Come,) and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. 15 And all the people went to [n]Gilgal; and there they made Saul king [o]before the LORD in Gilgal; and there [n]they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. 14 But now [a]thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man [b]after his own heart, and the LORD hath appointed commanded him to be prince captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto [f]Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were *present with him, [g]about six hundred men. 16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in [h]Geba †Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. 17 And [k]the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual: 18 and another company turned the way to [p]Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh down to upon the valley of [q]Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 [r]Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears: 20 but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock; mattock. 21 [1]yet Yet they had ‡a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes; axes, and §to set sharpen the goads. 22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, [v]that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found. 23 And [c]the ‖garrison of the Philistines went out unto to the [d]pass passage of [e]Michmash.

14 1 Now it fell came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on yonder the other side. But he told not his father. 2 And Saul abode tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under the a pomegranate tree which is in [e]Migron: and the people that were with him were about [i]six hundred men; 3 and [j]Ahijah, Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, [l]Ichabod's I-chabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD priest of the LORD's [m]in Shiloh, [n]wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone. 4 And between [o]the passes, passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag sharp rock on the one side, and a rocky crag sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. 5 The ††forefront of the one crag rose up on the north in front of against Michmash, and the other was situate northward over on the south in front of ‡Geba. southward over against Gibeah. 6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these [t]uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: [u]for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few. 7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee, behold thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart. 8 Then said Jonathan, R.V. [1] Or, when the edges of the mattocks... and of the axes were blunt The Hebrew text is obscure.

A.V. * Heb. found. † Heb. Geba, ver. 3. ‡ Heb. a file with mouths. § Heb. to set. ‖ Or, standing camp.
 Or, there was a day. †† Heb. tooth.

Behold, we will pass over unto the these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them. 9 If they say thus unto us, *Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them. 10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: [a]for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be the a sign unto us. 11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth [c]out of the holes where they had hid themselves. 12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: [a]for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel. 13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew them after him. 14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were [1]half a furrow's length in an acre [†]an half acre of land, which a yoke of of land. oxen might plow. 15 And there was trembling trembling in the camp, host, in the field, and among all the people; people: the garrison, and [j]the spoilers, they also trembled: trembled, and the earth quaked; quaked: so there it was [2‡]an exceeding ‡a very great trembling. 16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude [m]melted away, and they went hither and thither. on beating down one another. 17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there. 18 And Saul said unto Ahijah, Ahiah, [3]Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was there at that time [4]with the children of Israel. 19 And it came to pass, [b]while Saul talked unto the priest, that the tumult §noise that was in the camp host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand. 20 And Saul and all the people that were with him were gathered together, ‖assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, [d]every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture. 21 Now Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines as beforetime, before that time, which went up with them [5]into the camp [6]from the country round about; about; [e]even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan. 22 Likewise all the men of Israel [f]which had hid themselves [g]in the hill country of mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. 23 [h]So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over by unto [i]Beth-aven. 24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day: [k]but for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until it be evening, and I evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food. 25 And all [7]the people came into the forest: [n]they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come unto the forest, into the wood, behold, [1]the honey dropped: dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth; mouth: for the people feared the oath. 27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: [b]wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in the an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened. 28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were *[d]faint. 29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. 30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to-day to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? [2]for now hath there had there not been been no great now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines. Philistines? 31 And they smote [of] the Philistines that day from [i]Michmash to [j]Aijalon: and the people were very [d]faint. 32 And the people [k]flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them [l]with the blood. 33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat [l]with the blood. And he said, Ye have dealt treacherously †transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day. 34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox ‡with him that night, and slew them there. 35 And Saul [a]built an altar unto the LORD: §the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said [c]the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God. 37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? [e]But he answered him not that day. 38 And Saul said, Draw nigh ye near hither, all ye [3]chiefs of the ‖chief the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day. 39 For, [g]as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, [h]though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him. 40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee. 41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, [4]Shew the right. Give a perfect lot. taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand; and, lo, I must die. 44 And Saul said, answered, [b]God do so and more also: [c]for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan. 45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: [e]as the LORD liveth, [f]there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people [1]rescued Jonathan, that he died not. 46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 Now when So Saul had taken took the kingdom over Israel, he and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, [j]and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of [k]Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, [2]he vexed them. 48 And he *did valiantly, *gathered an host, [m]and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 [o]Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishvi, Ishui, and Malchi-shua Melchi-shua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn [p]Merab, and the name of the younger [r]Michal: 50 and the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: [u]and the name of the captain of his host was †Abner Abner, the son of Ner, [w]Saul's uncle. 51 [3][x]And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of [x]Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any mighty strong man, or any valiant man, [a]he [4]took him unto him.

15 [1]And Samuel Samuel also said unto Saul, [d]The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD. 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I [5]have marked remember that which Amalek did to Israel, [g]how he set himself against laid wait for him in the way, when he came up out of from Egypt. 3 Now go and smite Amalek, and [6][h]utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; [i]but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul summoned the people, gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah. 5 And Saul came to the a city of Amalek, and [7]‡laid wait in the valley. 6 And Saul said unto [l]the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: [n]for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. 7 [q]And Saul smote the Amalekites, Amalekites from [s]Havilah as until thou goest comest to [t]Shur, that is before over against Egypt. 8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, [v]and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. 9 [y]But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and §of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not [6]utterly destroy them:

10 Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying, 11 [b]It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, [d]and hath not performed my commandments. And Samuel was wroth; it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night. 12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; morning, and it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to [f]Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a [1]monument, place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal. 13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, [h]Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD. 14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? 15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: [n]for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have [2]utterly destroyed. 16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on. 17 And Samuel said, [3]Though When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? And Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel; Israel? 18 and And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed. 19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, [q]but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst that which was evil in the sight of the LORD? 20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, [c]I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have [2]utterly destroyed the Amalekites. 21 [e]But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the devoted things, things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal. 22 And Samuel said, [g]Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, [i]to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 23 For rebellion is as the sin of [4]†witchcraft, and stubbornness is as [5]idolatry iniquity and [k]teraphim. idolatry. Because [l]thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, [m]he hath also rejected thee from being king. 24 And Saul said unto Samuel, [o]I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. 25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and [p]turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD. 26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: [r]for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, [s]and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel. 27 [t]And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his robe, mantle, and it rent. 28 And Samuel said unto him, [u]The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou. 29 And also the 1 Strength of Israel [a] will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent. 30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet [c] honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, [e] and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God. 31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him 2 delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. 33 And Samuel said, [i] As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD [k] in Gilgal.

34 Then Samuel went [l] to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to [n] Gibeah of Saul. 35 [p] And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; 3 § for Samuel mourned for Saul: [r] and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16 1 And the LORD said unto Samuel, [s] How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing [t] I have rejected him from being king reigning over Israel? [u] fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: [w] for I have provided me a king among his sons. 2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer [†] with thee, and say, [y] I am come to sacrifice to the LORD. 3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: [b] and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee. 4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city [d] came to meet him trembling, town trembled at his ‡ coming, and said, [f] Comest thou peaceably? 5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: [g] sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. 6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on 4 § [h] Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him. 7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, [j] Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the ‖ outward appearance, [m] but the LORD looketh on the heart. 8 Then Jesse called [o] Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this. 9 Then Jesse made 5 [o] Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this. 10 And Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these. 11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, [v] There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. withal [1*]of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look [upon. to.] And the LORD said, [a]Arise, anoint him: for this is he. 13 Then Samuel took [c]the horn of oil, [d]and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: [e]and the [spirit Spirit] of the LORD came [mightily] upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 [g]Now the spirit [But the Spirit] of the LORD had departed from Saul, [h]and an evil spirit from the LORD [2†]troubled him. 15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee. 16 Let our lord now command thy servants, [l]which are before thee, to seek out a [man man,] who is a cunning player on [the an] harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall [n]play with his hand, and thou shalt be well. 17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me. 18 Then answered one of the [young men, servants,] and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, [q]and a mighty [man of valour, valiant man,] and a man of war, and [3]prudent in [4speech, ‡matters,] and a comely person, [r]and the LORD is with him. 19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, [t]which is with the sheep. 20 [u]And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a [5]bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul. 21 And David came to Saul, [w]and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer. 22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight. 23 And it came to pass, [b]when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took [the an] harp, [n]and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

17 1 Now the Philistines [f]gathered together their armies to battle, and [they] were gathered together at [iSocoh, Shochoh,] which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between [Socoh Shochoh] and [j]Azekah, in [§k]Ephes-dammim. 2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched [in by] [m]the [vale valley] of [6]Elah, and ‖set the battle in array against the Philistines. 3 And the Philistines stood on [the a] mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on [the a] mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. 4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named [o]Goliath, of [p]Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. 5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was [clad armed] with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. 6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a [7*javelin ††target] of brass between his shoulders. 7 And the [8]staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: [v]and [his shield-bearer one bearing a shield] went before him. 8 And he stood and cried unto the [9]armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye [x]servants to Saul? choose you

12 [2]Now David was [e]the son of that [f]Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, [g]whose name was Jesse; and [i]he had eight sons: and the man was went among men for an old man in the days of Saul, stricken Saul. in years among men. 13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse had gone after went and followed Saul to the battle: and [k]the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. 14 [l]And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul. 15 Now But David went to and fro and returned from Saul [n]to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem. 16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and carry them run quickly to the camp to thy brethren; 18 [r]and bring carry these ten *cheeses unto the †captain of their thousand, [t]and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge. 19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, [3]were in the vale valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to [a]the [4]place of the wagons, ‡trench, as the host which was going forth to the [5]fight §fight, and shouted for the battle. 21 And For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army. 22 And David left ‖his [d]baggage carriage in the hand of the keeper of the [d]baggage, carriage, and ran to into the army, and came and saluted his brethren. 23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up [h]the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks armies of the Philistines, and spake [j]according to the same words: and David heard them. 24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled ††from him, and were sore afraid. 25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to [1][m]defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, [o]and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel. 26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away [p]the reproach from Israel? for who is this [q]uncircumcised Philistine, that he should [1][m]defy the armies of [s]the living God? 27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, [u]So shall it be done to the man that killeth him. 28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David,

55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, [b]the captain of the host, Abner, [c]whose son is this youth? And Abner said, [e]As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell. 56 And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the stripling is. 57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul [g]with the head of the Philistine in his hand. 58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, [h]I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

18 1 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, [j]that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan [k]loved him as his own soul. 2 And Saul took him that day, [l]and would let him go no more home to his father's house. 3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because [k]he loved him as his own soul. 4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his apparel, garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. 5 And David [4]went out whithersoever Saul sent him, [p]and [5*]behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and it he was good accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

18 [Now So] David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to [c]Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. 19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in [c]Ramah. 20 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as [head appointed] over them, [g]the [spirit Spirit] of God [came was] upon the messengers of Saul, [h]and they also prophesied. 21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, [h]and they [also prophesied. prophesied likewise.] And Saul sent messengers again the third time, [h]and they [also prophesied prophesied. also.] 22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to [2the a] great [3]well that is in [Secu Sechu]: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in [c]Ramah. 23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: [g]and the [spirit Spirit] of God [came was] upon him also, and he went on, [o]and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. 24 [p]And he [also stripped off his clothes, stripped off his clothes also, he also prophesied before Samuel, prophesied before Samuel in like manner,] and [4*]lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, [s]Is Saul also among the prophets?

20 [1] And David fled from Naioth [t]in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? 2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father [doeth will do] nothing either great or small, but that [b]he [5]discloseth it unto [will †shew it] me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so. 3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father [knoweth well certainly knoweth] that [d]I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly [e]as the LORD liveth, and [f]as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death. 4 Then said Jonathan unto David, [6‡]Whatsoever thy soul [7§]desireth, I will even do it for thee. 5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, [to-morrow to morrow] is [i]the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, [j]that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even. 6 [k]If thy father [miss me at all at all miss me] then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run [l]to Beth-lehem his city: for [it is there] [the is a] yearly ‖[m]sacrifice there for all the family. 7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be [very] wroth, then [know be sure] that [n]evil is determined by him. 8 Therefore thou [shalt] deal kindly with thy servant; [q]for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: [r]but notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? 9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I [should at all know knew certainly] that [n]evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? 10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me if perchance me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly? 11 And Jonathan said unto David, Come Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, The LORD, the O LORD God of Israel, be witness; when I have *sounded my father about this time to-morrow, to morrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, shall I not then send and I then send not unto thee, and disclose it unto thee? 13 [d]The LORD do †shew it thee; so to Jonathan, and more also, should and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, if I disclose it not unto then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: [f]and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father. 14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not: 15 [g]but also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth. 16 So Jonathan ‡made a covenant with the house of David, saying, [i]And Let the LORD shall even require it at the hand of David's enemies. 17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, [1]for the love that he had to §because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul. 18 Then Jonathan said unto him, [m]To-morrow to David, To morrow is the new moon: and [n]thou shalt be missed, because [o]thy seat will be [2]‖empty. 19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down [3] quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself [4]††when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by [5]the stone ‡‡Ezel. 20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark. 21 And, behold, I will send the a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. 24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat. 25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon the a seat by the wall: wall; and Jonathan stood up, arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side: side; [h]but and David's place was empty. 26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, [i]he is not clean; surely he is not clean. 27 And it came to pass on the morrow after the morrow, which new moon, which was [k]the second day, that was the second day of the month, [h]David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day? to day? 28 And Jonathan answered Saul, [n]David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem: 29 and he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he [is not come] cometh not unto the king's table. 30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, *Thou son of [a] the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own [shame,] confusion, and unto the [shame] confusion of thy mother's nakedness? 31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be [stablished,] established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, [b]for he [1]†shall surely die. 32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, [e]Wherefore [should] shall he be [put to death] slain? what hath he done? 33 [f]And Saul cast [his spear] a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that [g]it was determined of his father to [put David to death.] slay David. 34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field [2]at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him. 36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find [out] now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow [3]‡beyond him. 37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, [k]Is not the arrow beyond thee? 38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. 39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter. 40 And Jonathan gave his [weapons] §artillery unto ‖his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city. 41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose [4]out of a place toward the [South,] south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded. 42 And Jonathan said to David, [a]Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, [c]The LORD [shall] be between me and thee, [d]and between my seed and thy [seed,] seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

21 1 Then came David to [h]Nob to [i]Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech [j]came to meet David trembling, was afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? 2 And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed [the young men] my servants to such and such a place. 3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or [whatsoever] what there is ††present. 4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is [holy] *t*hallowed bread; [m]if [only] the young men have kept themselves [at least] from women. 5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days; when days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, [1]though it was but a common journey; how much more then to-day shall their vessels be holy? in the vessel. [6] So the priest gave him holy hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but [a]the shew-bread, [b]that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. [7] Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was [e]Doeg the Doeg, an Edomite, the [2]chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul. [8] And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste. [9] And the priest said, [h]The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in [j]the vale valley of [3]Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

[10] And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to [k]Achish the king of Gath. [11] And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? [m]did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying,

Saul hath slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?

[12] And David [n]laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath. [13] [k]And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and [4]†scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. [14] Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man ‡is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me? [15] Do I lack Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

22 [1] David therefore departed thence, and escaped to [c]the cave of [d]Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him. [2] [f]And every one that was in distress, and every one that §was in debt, and every one that was [5]‖[g]discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became captain a captain over them: and there were with him [i]about four hundred men.

[3] And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me. [4] And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold. [5] And the prophet [l]Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hereth. Hareth.

And he answered, (†)Here I am, my lord. 13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and [j]hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, [p]to lie in wait, as at this day? 14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who (is so) among all thy servants is so faithful (faithful among all thy servants) as David, which is the king's son in law, and (goeth at thy bidding,) is taken into thy council, and is honourable in thine house? 15 (Did I then begin) Have I to-day begun [j]to inquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant (knew) knoweth nothing of all this, (‡)[b]less or more. 16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house. 17 And the king said unto [c]the (§footmen) [3]guard that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew (when) that he fled, and did not (shew) disclose it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD. 18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, [k]and (he) slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod. 19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, [m]both men and women, children and sucklings, and (oxen,) oxen and (asses,) asses and sheep, with the edge of the sword. 20 And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named [n]Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. 21 And Abiathar (shewed) told David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests. 22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew (it) on that day, [o]when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house. 23 [q]Abide thou with me, fear (not:) not; for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: (but) for with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

[2] Therefore David [b]inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah. [3] And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we go come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? [4] Then David [b]inquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; [f]for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand. [5] And So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and slew smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

[6] And it came to pass, [i]when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand. [7] And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath [1]delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars. [8] And Saul summoned all the people called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. [9] And David knew that Saul devised secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, [m]Bring hither the ephod. [10] Then said David, O LORD, the God of Israel, thy servant hath surely certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. [11] Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down. [12] Then said David, Will the men of Keilah *deliver up me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, [e]They will deliver thee up. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon. 26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them. 27 But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have [made a raid upon ‡invaded] the land. 28 [So Wherefore] Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place [5§]Selahammahlekoth. 29 And David went up from thence, and dwelt in [the] strong holds [of at] [b]En-gedi.

24 1 And it came to pass, [c]when Saul was returned from ‖following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi. 2 Then Saul took [f]three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. 3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in [g]to cover his [feet. Now feet: and] David and his men [were 6abiding remained] in the [innermost parts sides] [h]of the cave. 4 And the men of David said unto him, [i]Behold, [Behold] the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, [and that] thou [shalt mayest] do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of []Saul's robe privily. 5 And it came to pass afterward, that [m]David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. 6 And he said unto his men, [n]The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my [lord, master,] the LORD'S anointed, to [put stretch] forth mine hand against him, seeing he is [o]the [LORD'S anointed. anointed of the LORD.] 7 So David [checked ††stayed] his [men servants] with these words, [p]and suffered them not to rise against Saul. [And But] Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. 8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David [bowed stooped] with his face to the earth, and [did obeisance. bowed himself] 9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore [hearkenest hearest] thou [to] men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? 10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to-day into mine hand in the cave: [a]and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; [c]for he is the LORD'S anointed. 11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that [f]there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee, though yet [g]thou [1]huntest after my soul to take it. 12 [i]The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. 13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, Out of the wicked Wickedness proceedeth cometh forth wickedness from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. 14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? [q]after a dead dog, [q]after a flea. 15 [i]The LORD therefore be judge, and give sentence judge between me and thee, and see, and [s]plead my cause, and [2*]deliver me out of thine hand. 16 And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, [t]Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. 17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: [v]for thou hast rendered unto rewarded me good, whereas I have rendered unto rewarded thee evil. 18 And thou hast declared shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had [†]delivered me up into thine hand, thou killedst me not. 19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day. 20 And now, behold, [b]I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand. 21 [d]Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, [e]that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. 22 And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up [h]unto the hold.

1 [j]And Samuel died; and all Israel gathered themselves the Israelites were gathered together, [k]and lamented him, and buried him [l]in his house [m]at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to [n]the wilderness of Paran.

2 And there was a man in [o]Maon, whose [3‡]possessions were in [p]Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: [r]and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. 3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and the woman was she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of [u]the house of Caleb. 4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal [r]did shear his sheep. 5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and [§]greet him in my name: 6 and [4]thus shall ye say [1]to him that liveth in prosperity, [b]Peace be both [unto to] thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast. [7] And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: [now] thy shepherds [have now been which were] with us, [and] we [2]did them no hurt, [hurt them not,] [c]neither was there [aught ought] missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. [8] Ask thy young men, and they will [tell shew] [thee: wherefore thee. Wherefore] let the young men find favour in thine [eyes: eyes:] for we come [h]in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine [hand, hand,] unto thy servants, and to thy son David. [9] And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and [3†]ceased. [10] And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, [i]Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? [j]there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master. [11] Shall I then take [k]my bread, and my water, and my [4‡]flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto [men of men,] whom I know not whence they be? [12] So David's young men turned [on] their way, and went [back, again,] and came and told him [according to all all those] [these words. sayings.] [13] And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David [p]about four hundred men; [p]and two hundred [q]abode by the stuff. [14] But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to [5]salute our master; and he [6§flew upon railed on] them. [15] But the men were very good unto us, and we were not [7]hurt, [c]neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields: [16] they were [d]a wall unto us both by night and [by] day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. [17] Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; [f]for evil is determined against our master, and against all his [house household]: for he is such [g]a [8]son of [9]Belial, that [one a man] cannot speak to him. [18] Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two [10]bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred ‖clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses. [19] And she said unto her [young men, servants,] Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal. [20] And it was so, as she rode on [her the] ass, [and that she] came down by the covert of the [mountain, hill, that, and,] behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them. [21] Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, [m]so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: [n]and he hath [returned requited] me evil for good. proach from the hand of Nabal, [a]and hath kept back his servant from evil: and the evil-doing of Nabal hath for the LORD hath returned the [c]the LORD returned wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and [d]spake concerning communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. 40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David hath sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. 41 And she arose, [h]and bowed herself with her face on to the earth, and said, Behold, thine handmaid is let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. 42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went *followed after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. 43 David also took Ahinoam of [k]Jezreel; [l]and they were also became both of them his wives. 44 But Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to †Phalti Palti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

26 1 [m]And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert Jeshimon? 2 Then Saul arose, and went down to [s]the wilderness of Ziph, having [t]three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. 3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. 4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come of a certainty in very deed. 5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and [b]Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay within in [e]the ‡place of the wagons, trench, and the people pitched round about him. 6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to [f]Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, [g]Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. 7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within [e]the ‡place of the wagons, trench, with his spear stuck in the ground [i]at his head: bolster: and but Abner and the people lay round about him. 8 Then said Abishai to David, [j]God hath §delivered up thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at one stroke, once, and I will not smite him the second time. 9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can put stretch forth his hand [n]against the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless? 10 And David said said, furthermore, [o]As the LORD liveth, [p]the LORD shall smite him; [5]or [q]his day shall come to die; [r]or he shall go down descend into battle, and perish. 11 [u]The LORD forbid that I should put stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed: but now take, I pray thee, but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is [v]at his head, bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go. 12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's head bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither did any awake awaked: for they were all asleep; because [w]a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them. 13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them: 14 and David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king? 15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept watch over thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. 16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. And now, see, where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was [e]at his head. 17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, [f]Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king. 18 And he said, [h]Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand? 19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it be the LORD that hath stirred thee up against me, let him [2†‡][i]accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; [j]for they have driven me out this day that I should [3]not cleave unto [l]the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. 20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth away from before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek [4o]a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains. 21 Then said Saul, [a]I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my life was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. 22 And David answered and said, Behold [5]the spear, O king! let then one of the young men come over and fetch it. 23 [b]And the LORD shall render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: forasmuch as the LORD delivered thee into my hand to-day, and I would not put forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed. 24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. 25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do mightily, and also shalt still [g]prevail. So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 1 And David said in his heart, I shall now [§]perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand. 2 And David arose, and he passed over, and he with [k]the six hundred men that were with him, [m]unto Achish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath. 3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with [n]his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife. 4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

5 And David said unto Achish, If now [b]I have I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities some town in the [1]country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee? 6 Then Achish gave him [c]Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 [d]And *the number of the days time that David dwelt in the [1]country of the Philistines was †a full year and four months. 8 And David [g]and his men went up, and made a raid upon invaded [i]the Geshurites, and [j]the ‡[2]Girzites, Gezrites, and [k]the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, [3]which were of old, [m]as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt. 9 And David smote the land, and saved left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel; apparel, and he returned, and came to Achish. 10 And Achish said, [4]§Whither have ye [r]made a raid to-day road to day? And David said, Against the South south of Judah, and against the South south of [t]the Jerahmeelites, and against the South south of [u]the Kenites. 11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so hath been will be his manner all the while he hath dwelt dwelleth in the [1]country of the Philistines. 12 And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel ‖utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

28 1 And it came to pass in those days, [a]that the Philistines gathered their [5]hosts armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me in the host, to battle, thou and thy men. 2 And David said to Achish, Therefore Surely thou shalt know what thy servant will can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

3 Now [e]Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him [f]in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away [h]those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. 4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched [l]in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched [n]in Gilboa. 5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. greatly trembled. 6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, [o]the LORD answered him not, neither [p]by dreams, nor [q]by Urim, nor by prophets. 7 Then said Saul unto his servants, [s]Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at [v]En-dor. 8 And Saul [w]disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and went, he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, [x]Divine unto me, I pray thee, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring

And the woman said unto Saul, I see [2]a god coming up saw gods ascending out of the earth. 14 And he said unto her, *What form is he of? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and [g]God is departed from me, and [h]answereth me no more, neither †by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. 16 And Samuel said, Then said Samuel, [i]Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and [3]is become thine adversary enemy? 17 And the LORD hath [4]wrought for done ‡to himself, him, as he spake by §me: and for [j]the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David. But his servants, together with the woman, constrained compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. 24 And the woman had a fatted fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it; it, and she took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof: 25 and she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

1 [a]Now the Philistines gathered together all their hosts armies to [b]Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by [c]the a fountain which is in [d]Jezreel. 2 And [e]the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: and but David and his men passed on in the rearward rereward [f]with Achish. 3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me [i]these days days, or these years, [j]and I have found no fault in him since he fell away unto me unto this day? 4 But And [e]the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make the man this fellow return, that he may go back again [k]to his place where which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, [m]lest in the battle he become be an adversary to us: for wherewith should this fellow he reconcile himself unto his lord master? should it not be with the heads of these men? 5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying,

[p]Saul hath slain slew his thousands,

And David his ten thousands?

6 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, [q]As Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and [r]thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless *the lords favour thee not. 7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou †displease not the lords of the Philistines. 8 And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been before ‡with thee unto this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king? 9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, [g]as an angel of God: notwithstanding [e]the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. 10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning [h]with the servants thy master's of thy lord servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart. 11 So David rose up early, he and his men rose and his men, up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to [d]Jezreel.

1 And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to [l]Ziklag on the third day, that [n]the Amalekites had [o]made a raid upon the South, invaded the south, and upon Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire; 2 and had taken captive the women and all that were captives, therein, both small and great: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them off, away, and went on their way. 3 And So when David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives. 4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. 5 And David's [s]two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the

7 [c]And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David. 8 [e]And David inquired of the LORD, saying, [1]If I pursue after this [f]troop, shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, [g]and without fail recover all. 9 So David went, he and [h]the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed. 10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: [j]for two hundred stayed behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor: 11 and they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water; 12 and they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, [k]his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights. 13 And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick. 14 [n]We made an invasion upon the South of [a]the Cherethites, and upon that which belongeth to Judah, and upon the South of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire. 15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this troop? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this troop. 16 And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, [2]because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. 17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of [†]the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels and fled. 18 [i]And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives. 19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: [i]David brought back all. 20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil. 21 And David came to [l]the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide [l]at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near [3]to the people, he [4‡][m]saluted them. 22 Then answered all the

[A.V.], OTHERWISE CALLED, THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS.

1 Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned [a]from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag; 2 it came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, [b]a man came out of the camp from Saul [c]with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that [e]he fell to the earth, and did obeisance. 3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. 4 And David said unto him, †[g]How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. 5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead? 6 And the young man that told him said, [j]As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and the horsemen followed hard after him. 7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, ‡Here am I. 8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite. 9 He said unto me again, [d]Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for §anguish hath taken hold of me; because my life is yet whole in me. 10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: [f]and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord. 11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and [h]rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him: 12 and they mourned, and wept, [i]and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. 14 And David said unto him, How wast thou not [b]afraid to (put stretch) forth thine hand to destroy [d]the LORD'S anointed? 15 And [e]David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died. 16 And David said unto him, [g]Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain [d]the LORD'S anointed.

17 And David [i]lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son: 18 (and Also) he bade them teach the children of Judah the (song use) of the bow: behold, it is written in [k]the book *(of [1]Jashar. Jasher.)

19 [2]Thy glory, O Israel, (The beauty of Israel) is slain upon thy high (places! places:)

[l]How are the mighty fallen!

20 [m]Tell it not in Gath, [o]Publish it not in the streets of (Ashkelon Askelon);
[p]Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
Lest the daughters of [q]the uncircumcised triumph.

21 [s]Ye mountains of Gilboa,
Let there be no (dew nor dew, neither let there be rain) rain, upon you, (neither nor) fields of offerings:
For there the shield of the mighty (was is) [3]vilely cast away,
The shield of Saul, as though he had [4]not been [v]anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain,
from the fat of the mighty,
[x]The bow of Jonathan turned not back,
And the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and †pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not (divided; divided:)
They were [a]swifter than eagles,
They were [c]stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in (scarlet scarlet, with) [5](delicately, other delights),
[f]Who put (on) ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 [h]How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle!
O [6](Jonathan is Jonathan, thou wast) slain (upon thy in thine) high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan:
Very pleasant hast thou been unto me:
[j]Thy love to me was wonderful,
Passing the love of women.

27 [h]How are the mighty fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!

2 [1]And it came to pass after this, that David [n]inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto [r]Hebron. 2 So David went up thither, and [t]his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail (the wife of Nabal's Nabal) the Carmelite. 3 And [u]his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. 4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David [w]king over the house of Judah.

David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, [a]Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him. 6 And now the LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing. 7 Now therefore Therefore now let your hands be strong, strengthened, and *be ye valiant: for Saul your lord your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

8 Now But [c]Abner the son of Ner, captain of †Saul's host, had taken took [1‡]Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to [e]Mahanaim; 9 and he made him king over Gilead, and over the [2]Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. 10 (Ish-bosheth Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years.) years. But the house of Judah followed David. 11 [f]And the §time that David was king in Hebron over [g]the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. 13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met [3]them ‖together by [h]the pool of Gibeon; Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. 14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men, men I pray thee, arise now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then they there arose and went over by number; number twelve for of Benjamin, and for which pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. 16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called [4]Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon. 17 And the battle was very sore there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David. 18 And the there were [b]three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was [d]as light ††of foot [5‡‡]as a wild roe. 19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left §§from following Abner. 20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Is it thou, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, It is I. I am. 21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his [6*]armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him. 22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother? 23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him ‡in under the belly, the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down

And Joab and his men went all night, and the day brake upon them at Hebron. they came to Hebron at break of day.

3 1 Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: and but David waxed stronger and stronger, but and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 a And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of b Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; 3 and his second, ‡Chileab, of b Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah c the daughter of Talmai king of d Geshur; 4 and the fourth, e Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; 5 and the sixth, Ithream, of by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner 2 made himself strong in for the house of Saul. 7 Now And Saul had a concubine, whose name was g Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, h Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine? 8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I j a dog's head that belongeth to Judah? This day do head, which against Judah do shew I shew kindness kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, and yet that thou chargest me this to day with 3 a fault concerning this woman. woman? 9 i God do so So do God to Abner, and more also, if, except, m as the LORD hath sworn to David, I do not even so even so I do to him; 10 to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, n from Dan even to Beer-sheba. 11 And he could not answer Abner another word, a word again, because he feared him.

Then said Abner unto him, Go, return: and return. And he returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, In times past ye sought for David Ye sought for David §in times past to be king over you: 18 now then do it: [g]for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. 19 And Abner also spake in the ears of [h]Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin. 20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast. 21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and [l]will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a covenant league with thee, and that thou mayest [a]reign over all that thy soul thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace. 22 And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from [2]a foray, pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. 23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. 24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone? 25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know [f]thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest. 26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they which brought him back again from the [3]well of Sirah: but David knew it not. 27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the in midst of the gate to speak with him ‖quietly, [i]and smote him there [j]in the belly, under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. 28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner: 29 [k]let it fall upon rest on the head of Joab, and upon on all his father's house; and let there not ††fail from the house of Joab [m]one that hath an issue, or that

Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, [b]which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed. 9 And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, [f]As the LORD liveth, [g]who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, 10 [i]when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, *thinking to have brought good tidings, [j]I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him

But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it [m]in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

5 1 Then [o]came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, [r]we are thy bone and thy flesh. 2 In times past, also in time past, when Saul was king over us, [s]it was thou that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, [t]Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be [1]a prince over Israel. 3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; [u]and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron [a]before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and [c]he reigned forty years. 5 [c]In Hebron he reigned over Judah [d]seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah. 6 [e]And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, [2]Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: ‡thinking, David cannot come in hither. 7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: [k]the same is the city of David. 8 And David said on that day, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites, let him get up to the watercourse, up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, [3]and smite the lame and the blind, [4]that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and captain. § Wherefore they say, [5]There are the blind and the lame; he cannot come into the house. 9 And David dwelt in the strong hold, and called it [k]the city of David. And David built round about from [n]Millo and inward. 10 And David ‖went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

11 [p]And [q]Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David an house. 12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

he called the name of the place [1]Perez-uzzah, unto this day. 9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, How shall the ark of the LORD come unto me? 10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside [b]into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 11 And the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: [d]and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household. 12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom [h]into the city of David with joy. 13 And it was so, that when [j]they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, [k]he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. 14 And David [l]danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was [m]girded with a linen ephod. 15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. 16 And it was so, as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart. 17 And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it [r]in its place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had [†]pitched for it: [t]and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. 18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and peace offerings, [a]he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. 19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. [c]So all the people departed every one to his house. 20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who [e]uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the [g]vain fellows [‡]shamelessly uncovereth himself! 21 And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, [i]which chose me above thy father, and above all his house, to appoint me prince over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD. 22 And I will be yet more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: but [§]of the handmaids which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour. 23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

7 1 [n]And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD [o]had given him rest from all his enemies round about; 2 that the king said unto [p]Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell [q]in an house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth [s]within curtains. 3 And Nathan said to the king, [u]Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee. 4 And it came to pass the same night, that the word of the LORD came unto

1 [a]And it came to pass
10 after this, that the king of the children of Ammon lied, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. 2 And David said, Then said David, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of [b]Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. So And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon. 3 But And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, *Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? 4 So Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, [f]even to their buttocks, and sent them away. 5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them; for them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. 6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they were become odious to stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of [g]Beth-rehob, and [i]the Syrians of Zobah, Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of of king [k]Maacah with a thousand men, and the men of [l]Tob of †Ish-tob twelve thousand men. 7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of [m]the mighty men. 8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and [i]the Syrians of Zobah, Zoba, and of Rehob, and [l]the men of Tob Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. 9 Now when When Joab saw that [1]the front of the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians: 10 and the rest of the people he committed delivered into the hand of [2]Abishai his brother, and he that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon. 11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee. 12 [c]Be of good courage, and [d]let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and [e]the LORD do that which seemeth him good. 13 So Joab And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him drew nigh him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him. 14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they then likewise fled fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. 15 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together. 16 And [3]Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond ‡[h]the River river: and they came to Helam, with Helam; and §[j]Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer at their head. went before them. 17 And when it was told David; and David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. II 1 [c]And it came to pass, [d]at the return of the year, *after the year was expired, at the time when kings go out forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged [g]Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 And it came to pass at in an eventide, eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon [h]the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman bathing washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. 3 And David sent and inquired after the woman. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem [2]that day, and the morrow. 13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; [k]and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with [f]the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house. 14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David [n]wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. 15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the [3]††hottest battle, and retire ye ‡‡from him, [o]that he may be smitten, and die. 16 And it came to pass, when Joab [4]kept watch upon observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto [f] place where he knew that valiant men were. 17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some 12 [1] And the LORD sent [b] Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, [c] There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. 2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds: 3 but the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own morsel, §meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. 4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him, him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. 5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, [e] As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this is [2]worthy to thing ‖shall surely die: 6 and he shall restore the lamb [g] fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, [h] I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; 8 and I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added moreover have given unto thee such and such things. 9 [a]Wherefore hast thou despised the word commandment of the LORD, [b]to do that which is evil in his sight? [c]thou hast smitten killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and [d]hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. 10 Now therefore, therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. 11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. 12 For thou didst it secretly: [g]but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. 13 [h]And David said unto Nathan, [i]I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, [j]The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die. 14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD [k]to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die. 15 And Nathan departed unto his house.

And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick. 16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David *[n]fasted, and went in, [o]and lay all night upon the earth. 17 And the elders of his house arose, and stood beside went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. 18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he hearkened not would not hearken unto our voice: [1]how will he then [†]vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead? 19 But when David saw that his servants whispered together, David perceived that the child was dead: and therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. 20 Then David arose from the earth, [e]and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel; apparel, and [he] came into the house of the LORD, [f]and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required require, they set bread before him, and he did eat. 21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread. 22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, [l]Who knoweth can tell whether the LORD will not GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live? 23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, [m]but he shall not return to me. 24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and [p]she bare a son, and [2]he called his name [‡]Solomon. and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of [a]the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee. 14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: [but but,] being stronger than she, [he] forced her, and lay with her. 15 Then Amnon hated her [with exceeding great hatred; for *exceedingly; so that] the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone. 16 And she said unto him, [1c]Not so, because There is no cause: this [great wrong] in [putting] me [forth] away is [worse] greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her. 17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. 18 And she had [2]a [d]garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her. 19 And Tamar [f]put ashes on her head, and [g]rent her garment of divers colours that was on [her; her,] and [h]she laid her hand on her head, and went [her way, crying aloud as she went. on crying.] 20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath [3†]Amnon thy brother been with thee? but [now hold hold now] thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; [take not this thing to heart. ‡regard not this thing.] So Tamar remained [§]desolate in her brother Absalom's house. 21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth. 22 And Absalom spake unto [his brother] Amnon [j]neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had [b]sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. 24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I [pray beseech] thee, and his servants go with thy servant. 25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all [now] go, lest we be [burdensome chargeable] unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. 26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee? 27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. 28 [And Now] Absalom [had] commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye [now, now] when Amnon's [e]heart is merry with [wine; wine,] and when I say unto you, Smite [Amnon, Amnon;] then kill him, fear not: ‖have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be []valiant. 29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man [††]gat him up upon his mule, and fled. 30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that [tidings] came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left. 31 Then the king arose, and [g]rent [tare] his garments, and [i]lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent. 32 And [k]Jonadab the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the *appointment of Absalom this hath been †determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. 33 Now therefore let not my lord the king [d]take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead. 34 [f]But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him. 35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons are come: ‡as thy servant said, so it is. 36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept §very sore. 37 [i]But Absalom fled, and went to [j]Talmai, the son of ‖Ammihud, king of [k]Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 [i]So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. 39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for [n]he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

14 1 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that [o]the king's heart was toward Absalom. 2 And Joab sent to [p]Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel, I pray thee, and [a]anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead: 3 and go in to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab [b]put the words in her mouth. 4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, [c]she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, ††[e]Help, O king. 5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, [g]Of a truth I am I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead. 6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was ‡‡none to part them, but the one smote the other, and killed him. 7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew, and so we will [h]destroy the heir also: thus shall they and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor [l]remainder §§upon the face of the earth. 8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee. 9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, [m]the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless. 10 And the king said, Whosoever saith aught unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more. 11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that [q]the avenger thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood destroy not to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. said, [a]As the LORD liveth, [b]there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth. 12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak [a one] word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on. 13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou [devised thought] such a thing against [d]the people of God? for [in speaking this word the king is the king doth speak this thing] as one which is [guilty, faulty,] in that the king doth not fetch home again [e]his banished [one]. 14 For we must needs die, and are [f]as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; []neither doth God [take away life, respect any person:] [but deviseth yet doth he devise] means, [g]that [he that is his] banished be not [an outcast expelled] from him. 15 Now therefore [seeing] that I am come to speak [this word of this thing] unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his [servant. handmaid.] 16 For the king will hear, to deliver his [servant handmaid] out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of [j]the inheritance of God. 17 Then thine handmaid said, [Let, I pray thee, the The] word of my lord the king [shall now] be [1†]comfortable: for [k]as [2]an angel of God, so is my lord the king [3‡]to discern good and bad: [and therefore] the LORD thy God [will] be with thee. 18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, [aught the thing] that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. 19 And the king said, [Is Is not] the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, [o]As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from [aught ought] that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, [c]and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid: 20 to [change the face of the matter fetch about this form of speech] hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of [2][l]an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth. 21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, [4]I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again. 22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and [did obeisance, bowed himself,] [h]and [blessed §thanked] the king: and Joab said, [To-day To day] thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath [performed fulfilled] the request of [5‖]his servant. 23 So Joab arose and went to [i]Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. 24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, [but and] let him not see my face. So Absalom [turned returned] to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 [Now But] in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: [k]from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. 26 And when he polled his head, ([now for] it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he [m]polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred [shekels, shekels] after the king's weight. 27 And [n]unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she

28 And So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem; Jerusalem, and he saw not the king's face. 29 Then Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again a the second time, but he would not come. 30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is *near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire. 31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire? 32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from [c]Geshur? it were better it had been good for me to be to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; [f]and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me. 33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king [h]kissed Absalom.

15 1 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom [i]prepared him a chariot chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. 2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside [l]the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a suit which should come controversy †came to the king for judgement, judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. 3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but ‡there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee. 4 Absalom said moreover, [a]Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice! 5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him. 6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgement judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass [b]at the end of after [1]forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron. 8 For thy servant [d]vowed a vow [e]while I abode at Geshur in [2]Syria, saying, If the LORD shall indeed bring me again bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will [3]serve the LORD. 9 And the king said unto him, [g]Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron. 10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom is king reigneth in Hebron. 11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, [j]that were invited, called; and they went [k]in their simplicity; simplicity, and they knew not any thing. 12 And Absalom [4]sent for [m]Ahithophel the Gilonite, [n]David's counsellor, from his city, even from [o]Giloh, while he offered the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people [p]increased continually with Absalom.

him, Curse David; who then shall David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? 11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, [b]my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more may this now may this Benjamite now do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him. 12 It may be that the LORD will look on [1]the mine wrong done unto me, [2]affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing of me this day. 13 So And as David and his men went by the way: and way, Shimei went along on the hill hill's side over against him, and [g]cursed as he went, and threw stones [2]at him, and [†]cast dust. 14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, [h]came [3]weary; weary, and he refreshed himself refreshed themselves there.

15 [i]And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. 16 And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, [‡]David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, [4]‡[l]God save the king, God save the king. 17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? [m]why wentest thou not with thy friend? 18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide. 19 And again, [o]whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence. 20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give your counsel counsel among you what we shall do. 21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto [a]thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall [c]the hands of all that are with thee be strong. 22 So they spread Absalom a tent [d]upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines [e]in the sight of all Israel. 23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the [5]§oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel [f]both with David and with Absalom.

17 1 Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: 2 and I will come upon him while he is [j]weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and [k]I will smite the king only: 3 and I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace. 4 And the saying ‖pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now [n]Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith. 6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his ††saying? if not, not; speak thou. 7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath ‡‡given this is not time is not good. 8 Hushai said moreover, Thou good at this time. knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be [1*][a]chafed in their minds, [b]as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. 9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, [2]when some of them be [†]overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. 10 And even he that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly [g]melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men. 11 But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together unto thee, [i]from Dan even to Beer-sheba, [k]as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and [3‡]that thou go to battle in thine own person. 12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one. 13 Moreover, if he [4]be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there. 14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. [m]For the LORD had [§]appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 [n]Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. 16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night [5]at the fords of the wilderness, but in any wise pass over; lest the king be [d]swallowed up, and all the people that are with him. 17 [6]Now [e]Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by [f]En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a maidservant used to go and tell them; and they went and told king David. 18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in [h]Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down. 19 [j]And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known. 20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. 21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and said unto David, [l]Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you. 22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

24 Then David came to [f]Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. 25 And Absalom set made [g]Amasa over captain of the host instead of Joab: Joab. Now which Amasa was the son of a man, a man's son, whose name was ‡‖Ithra the an Israelite, that went in to §Abigal Abigail the daughter of ‖[h]Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother. 26 And So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that [i]Shobi the son of Nahash of [j]Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and [l]Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and [m]Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, 28 brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, lentiles, and parched pulse, 29 and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and [o]weary, and thirsty, [p]in the wilderness.

18 1 And David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. 2 And David sent forth the people, a third part a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of [a]Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also. 3 [e]But the people said, answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not ††care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: [3]but now thou art ‡‡worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou be ready to §§succour us out of the city. 4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people went came out by hundreds and by thousands. 5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. [k]And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. 6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the [n]forest wood of Ephraim. in thine eyes. 28 For all of my father's house were [a]but [1*]dead men before my lord the king: [b]yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet [that I should to] cry any more unto the king? 29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I [say, have said,] Thou and Ziba divide the land. 30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come [again] in peace unto his own house.

31 And [c]Barzillai the Gileadite came down from [Rogelim; Rogelim,] and [he] went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. 32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and [f]he had provided the king [with of] sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. 33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will [sustain feed] thee with me in Jerusalem. 34 And Barzillai said unto the king, †[h]How [many are the days of the years of my life, long have I to live,] that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem? 35 I am this day [j]fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and [bad evil]? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet [l]a burden unto my lord the king? 36 Thy servant [would but just go will go a little way] over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward? 37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and [of] my mother. But [behold, behold] thy servant [c]Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee. 38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt [2‡]require of me, that will I do for thee. 39 And all the people went over [Jordan, and Jordan. And when] the king [went over: and was come over,] [d]the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40 [So Then] the king went [over on] to Gilgal, and §Chimham went [over on] with him: and all the people of Judah [brought the king over, conducted the king,] and also half the people of Israel. 41 And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and [have] [g]brought the king, and his household, [over Jordan,] and all David's men with [him, over Jordan]? 42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is [i]near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift? 43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have [k]ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye ‖despise us, [3]that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? 20 [1] And there happened to be there [a] a man of [1] Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew [the a] trumpet, and said, [b] We have no [portion part] in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [c] every man to his tents, O Israel. [2] So [all the men every man] of Israel went up from [following after] David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

[3] And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women [g] his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in [*] ward, and [provided them with fed them;] sustenance, but went not in unto them. So they were [†] shut up unto the day of their death, [2‡] living in widowhood.

[4] Then said the king to [h] Amasa, [Call §Assemble together] me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present. [5] So Amasa went to [call assemble together] the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him. [6] And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou [k] thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and [‖] escape [out of our us.] sight. [7] And there went out after him Joab's men, and the [m Cherethites Cherethites,] and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. [8] When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa [came to meet went before] them. And [Joab was girded with his apparel of war Joab's garment that he had put on was] that he had put on, and thereon was [girded unto him, and upon it] a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out. [9] And Joab said to Amasa, [Is it Art] well with thee, [thou in health,] my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with [his the] right hand [d] to kiss him. [10] But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: [e] so he smote him therewith [f] in the [belly, fifth rib,] and shed out his bowels to the ground, and [] struck him not again; and he died. [And So] Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. [11] And [there stood by one of] him one of Joab's young men, [Joab's men stood by him,] and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him [follow go after] Joab. [12] And Amasa [lay wallowing wallowed] in [his] blood in the midst of the [high way. highway.] And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he [carried removed] Amasa out of the [high way highway] into the field, and cast a [garment over cloth upon] him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. [13] When he was removed out of the [high way, highway,] all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. [14] And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto [i] Abel, and to [i Beth-maacah, Beth-maachah,] and all [j] the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. [15] And they came and besieged him in [i] Abel of [Beth-maacah, Beth-maachah,] and they [l] cast up a [mount bank] against the city, and [††] it stood [against the rampart in the trench]: and all the people that were with Joab [3‡‡] battered the wall, to throw it down. [16] Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

24 1 [h]And [i]again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and *he moved David against them, saying, them to say, [k]Go, number Israel and Judah. 2 And For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, †Go now to and fro through all the tribes of Israel, [m]from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the sum number of the people. 3 And Joab said unto the king, [o]Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and may that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing? 4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. 5 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in [s]Aroer, on the right side of the city that is lieth in the middle midst of the ‡valley 2river of Gad, and unto toward [u]Jazer: 6 then they came to Gilead, and to the §land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to [w]Dan-jaan, and round about to [x]Zidon, 7 and came to the [z]strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the [a]Hivites, and of [a]the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, at even to Beer-sheba. 8 So when they had gone to and fro through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9 And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men [g]that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 And [j]David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, [l]I have sinned greatly in that I have done: but and now, O LORD, put away, I beseech thee, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done [n]very foolishly. 11 And For when David rose was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto [p]the prophet Gad, David's [q]seer, saying, 12 Go and speak say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I [3]offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. 13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall [r]seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thy foes thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or shall that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? now advise thee, advise, and consider see what answer I shall return to him that sent me. 14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; [v]for his mercies are [4]‖great: and let me not fall into the hand of man. 15 [y]So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from [b]Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men. 16 And when [c]the angel stretched out his hand but the king knew her not.

5 Then [a]Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will *be king: [b]and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.
6 And his father had not displeased him [1]††at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he was also a very goodly man; [c]and he was born after Absalom.

11 Then Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that [a]Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?
12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.
13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, [n]Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign?
14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.
15 And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king.
16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, ††What wouldest thou?
17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, [n]Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.
18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; [3]and thou, now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:
19 [j]and he hath [2]slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, [e]and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but [l]Solomon thy servant hath he not called.
20 And [4]thou, my lord the lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.
21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall [m]sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted [5]‡‡offenders.
22 And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.
23 And they told the king, saying, Behold, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.
24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? 25 For he is gone down this day, [b]and hath [1]slain oxen and fatlings fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, *[d]God save king Adonijah. 26 [e]But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. 27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy [2]servants servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him? 28 Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar? 42 While And while he yet spake, behold, [o]Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said, said unto him, Come in; [p]for thou art a worthy valiant man, and bringest good tidings. 43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king: 44 and And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and [a]the Cherethites Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule: 45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in [e]Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard. 46 [f]And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom. 47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, [1]Thy God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne: and And the king [k]bowed himself upon the bed. 48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, [m]which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it. 49 And all the guests that of were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way. 50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon; Solomon, and he arose, and went, [q]and caught hold on [r]the horns of the altar. 51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath laid caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me [2]this to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword. 52 And Solomon said, If he shall will shew himself a worthy man, [u]there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die. 53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and did obeisance bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

2 1 Now [b]the days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying, 2 [c]I go the way of all the earth: [d]be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man; 3 and keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgements, judgments, according to that which as it is written in the law of Moses, [g]that thou mayest [3*]prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself: 4 that the LORD may [i]establish continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, [j]If thy children take heed to their way, [l]to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, [n]there shall not [†]fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. 5 Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah [o]did unto to me, even and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, [p]unto Abner the son of Ner, [s]and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and [4‡]shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. 6 Do therefore [t]according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to [5]the grave in peace. 7 But shew kindness unto the sons of [v]Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be [w]of those that eat at thy table: [x]for so they came to me when I fled from because of Absalom thy oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? 44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest [b]all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall [d]return thy wickedness upon thine own head; 45 But king Solomon shall be blessed, [h]and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever. 46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell upon him, that he died. [l]And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 1 And [n]Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into [o]the city of David, until he had made an end of [p]building his own house, [q]and the house of the LORD, [r]and the wall of Jerusalem round about. 2 Only [s]the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days. 3 And Solomon [u]loved the LORD, [v]walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; [x]for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar. 5 [a]In Gibeon [b]the LORD appeared to Solomon [c]in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. 6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great *mercy, according as [f]he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, [a]that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. 7 And now, O LORD my God, [c]thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: [e]and I am but a little child: I know not [f]how to go out or come in. 8 [g]And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, [i]that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. 9 [j]Give therefore thy servant an †understanding heart [k]to judge thy people, that I may [m]discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people? 10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. 11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself ‡long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding §to [4]discern judgment; 12 behold, [t]I have done according to thy words: lo, [w]I have given thee a wise and an [1]understanding heart; so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. 13 [y]And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, [z]both riches, and honour: so that there [5]‖shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days. 14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, [d]as thy father David did walk, then [e]I will lengthen thy days. 15 And Solomon [g]awoke, and, behold, it was a dream: and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, [b]and stood before him. 17 And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. 18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house. 19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it. 20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. 21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. 22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king. 23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. 24 And the king said, Fetch me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. 25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for [a]her bowels *yearned upon her son, and she said, Oh my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, It shall be neither mine nor thine; but divide it. 27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof. 28 And all Israel heard of the judgement which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that [c]the wisdom of God was †in him, to do judgement.

4 1 So king Solomon was king over all Israel. 2 And these were the princes which he had; Azariah the son of Zadok, ‡[d]the priest; 3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, ‖§scribes; [e]Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder; 4 and [f]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host: and [g]Zadok and Abiathar were the priests: 5 and Azariah the son of Nathan was over [h]the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was ‖principal officer, and [i]the king's friend: 6 and Ahishar was over the household: and [j]Adoniram the son of Abda was over [k]the levy. 7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man had to make provision for a month in the year. 8 And these are their names: Ben-hur, in ††the hill country of Ephraim: 9 Ben-deker, ‡‡in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan: 10 Ben-hesed, §§in Arubboth; to him pertained Socoh, and all the land of Hepher: 11 Ben-abinadab, *in all the height of Dor; he which had Taphath the 5 [1] And *[a] Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: [b] for Hiram was ever a lover of David. [2] And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, [3] [d] Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house for unto the name of the LORD his God [e] for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. [4] [f] But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side; side, so that there is neither adversary, adversary nor evil occurrent. [5] And, behold, I † purpose to build an house for unto the name of the LORD my God, [h] as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build the an house for unto my name. [6] Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants; servants: and I will give thee unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt say †appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Zidonians. Sidonians. [7] And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. [8] And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard the message ‡considered the things which thou hast sentest sent unto me: to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of [1] fir. [9] My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will make them into rafts to go by sea convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt §appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up discharged there, and thou shalt [2] receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, [c] in giving food for my household. [10] So [3] Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar cedar trees and timber of fir fir trees according to all his desire. [11] And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand [4]‖ measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of [5] pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. [12] And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, [g] as he promised him him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

[13] And king Solomon raised [i] a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. [14] And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: [j] and Adoniram was over the levy. [15] And Solomon had [k] threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand that were hewers in the mountains; [16] besides Beside the Solomon's [l] chief chief of Solomon's officers that which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, [m] which bare rule ruled over the people that wrought in the work. [17] And the king commanded, [n] and they [6] hewed out brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house with wrought stone. [18] And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the °Gebalites did fashion did hew them, and the ††stone-squarers: them, and so they prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6 [1] [a]And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, Zif, which is the second month, that [c]he [1*]began to build the house of the LORD. [2] [d]And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits. [3] And the porch before [2]the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house. [4] And for the house [h]he made [3†]windows of fixed lattice-work. narrow lights. [5] And [‡]against the wall of the house [j]he built §chambers stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and [l]of [4]the oracle: and he made [m]‖chambers side-chambers round about: [6] the nethermost chamber story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for on the outside he made rebatements in without the wall of the house he made the house narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened have hold in the walls of the house. [7] [p]And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready [5]at the quarry: and before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. [8] The door for the [6]middle chamber side-chambers was in the right [7††]side of the house: and they went up with by winding stairs into the middle chamber, chambers, and out of the middle into the third. [9] [b]So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house [‡‡]with beams and boards planks of cedar. [10] And then he built chambers the stories against all the house, each five cubits high: and [9]they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

[11] And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, [12] Concerning this house which thou art in building, [e]if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, judgements, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform establish my word with thee, [f]which I spake unto David thy father: father. [13] And [g]I will dwell among the children of Israel, [i]and will not forsake my people Israel.

[14] [k]So Solomon built the house, and finished it. [15] And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar; [10]from cedar, §§both the floor of the house unto house, and the walls of the cieling, cieling: and he covered them on the inside with wood: wood, [n]and he covered the floor of the house with boards planks of [11]fir. [16] [o]And he built twenty cubits on the sides hinder part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor unto house, both the floor and the walls with boards the [12]walls of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for an the oracle, even for [q]the most holy place. [17] And the house, that is, the temple before the oracle, it, was forty cubits long. [18] And there was the cedar on of the house within, within was carved with [13*]*r*knops and [†]open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen. LORD, he is LORD God; God, and that there is none else. 61 [a]Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day. 62 [b]And [c]the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. 63 And Solomon offered for a the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. 64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; LORD: for there he offered the burnt offering, offerings, and the meal offering, meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because [j]the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offering, offerings, and the meal offering, meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings. 65 So Solomon held And at that [k]the feast at that time, time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the [m]entering in of Hamath unto [o]the brook river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. 66 On the eighth day he sent the people away, away: and they *blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto done for David his servant, and to for Israel his people.

9 1 [r]And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, [t]and the king's house, and [u]all Solomon's [1]desire which he was pleased to do, 2 that [v]the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon. 3 And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, [d]to put my name there for ever; and [e]mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. 4 And as for thee, if thou wilt [f]walk before me, [g]as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgements; judgments: 5 [h]then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom over upon Israel for ever; according ever, as I [2]promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel. 6 [i]But if ye shall turn away at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but shall go and serve other gods, and worship them: 7 [l]then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; [n]and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; [p]and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples: people: 8 [3]and though at this house be so house, which is high, yet shall every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, [q]Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house? 9 And they shall answer, Because [s]they forsook the LORD their God, which who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid have taken hold on upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought all this evil upon them. upon them all this evil.

10 [a]And it came to pass at the end of [b]twenty years, wherein when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, LORD, and the king's house, 11 (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. 12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they *pleased him not. 13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And [1]he called them the land of [‡]Cabul, [†]Cabul unto this day. 14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 And this is the [2]reason of [m]the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and [o]Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and [p]Hazor, and [q]Megiddo, and Gezer. 16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain [r]the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a portion present unto [t]his daughter, Solomon's wife. 17 And Solomon built Gezer, and [u]Beth-horon the nether, 18 and Baalath, and [3]Tamar Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, 19 and all the store cities cities of store that Solomon had, and [w]the cities for his chariots, and the cities for [y]his horsemen, and [‡]that which Solomon [z]desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. 20 As for And all the people that were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which 11 1 Now But [a]king Solomon loved many strange women, 2‡‡together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites; 2 of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, [d]Ye shall not go among in to them, neither shall they come among in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love. 3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and [f]his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, [g]as was the heart of David his father. 5 For Solomon went after [i]Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after §§[k]Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. 6 And Solomon did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and *went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.
7 Then did Solomon build an high place for [m]Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the mount that is before Jerusalem, and for [o]Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. 8 And so likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.
9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because [q]his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, [r]which had appeared unto him twice, 10 and [t]had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded. 11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this [1*]is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, [b]I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. 12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. 13 Howbeit [c]I will not rend away all the kingdom; but [d]I will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake [e]which I have chosen.

14 And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom. 15 For it came to pass, [g]when David [2]was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, and he had smitten after every male in Edom; 16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:) 17 that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child. 18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to [k]Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land. 19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. 20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. 21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt [a]that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, †Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. 22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, ‡Nothing: howbeit let me depart go in any wise.

23 And God raised up another adversary unto him, Rezon the son of Eliada, which had fled from his lord [f]Hadadezer king of Zobah: 24 and he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, [h]when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. 25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 And [i]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [j]an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, he also lifted up his hand against the king. 27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: [m]Solomon built Millo, and [3§]repaired the breach of the city of David his father. 28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon saw the young man that he ‖was industrious, and he made him ruler over all the [4]charge of the house of Joseph. 29 And it came

[a]Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed. 6 And king Rehoboam took counsel (consulted) with the old men, that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return (and said, How do ye advise that I may answer) to this people? 7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever. 8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men (men,) which they had given him, and took counsel (consulted) with the young men that were grown up with him, (and) that which stood before him: 9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye (ye,) that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that which thy father did put upon us lighter? 10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say (speak) unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say (speak) unto them, My little finger shall (is) be thicker than my father's loins. 11 And now whereas [h]my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. 12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed (bade,) saying, [k]Come to me again the third day. 13 And the king answered the people *roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men (old men's counsel) which they had given (gave) him; 14 and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, [h]My father made your yoke heavy, but (and) I will add to your yoke: my father (also) chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. 15 Wherefore (So) the king hearkened not unto the people; for [b]it was a thing brought about of the cause was from the LORD, that he might establish (perform) his word, (saying,) which [c]the LORD spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite unto (to) Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 16 And (So) when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying; What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [d]to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents. 17 But [e]as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. 18 Then king Rehoboam sent [f]Adoram, who was over the levy (tribute); and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. And (Therefore) king Rehoboam †made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. 19 [g]So Israel ‡rebelled against the house of David (David) unto this day. 20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was returned, (come again,) that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but [i]the tribe of Judah only.

21 [j]And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, (and) with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto [a]Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 23 Speak unto Rehoboam Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the [c]rest remnant of the people, saying, 24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; [e]for this thing is of from me. So they They hearkened unto therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned and went to their way, depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 Then Jeroboam [g]built Shechem in the hill country of mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and he went out from thence, and [i]built Penuel. 26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David: 27 if this people [l]go up to offer sacrifices do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah; Judah, and they shall kill me, and return go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. 28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and [n]made two calves of gold; gold, and he said unto them, [1]It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; Jerusalem: [p]behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. 29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan. 30 And [q]this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before [2]the one, even unto Dan. 31 And he made [r]houses an house of high places, and [s]made priests from among all of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. 32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto [b]the feast that is in Judah, and he [3]went up unto *offered upon the altar; altar. so So did he in Beth-el, 4 †sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el [d]the priests of the high places which he had made. 33 And he So [3]went up unto *offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el on the fifteenth day in of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised [5]of his own heart; heart: and he ordained a feast for unto the children of Israel, Israel: and [3]went up unto he offered upon the altar, ‡to burn ‡and burnt incense.

altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. 6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, [b]Intreat now the favour face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God intreated besought *the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. 7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and [d]I will give thee a reward. 8 And the man of God said unto the king, [e]If thou wilt give me half thine house, [f]I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: 9 for so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Thou shalt eat Eat no bread, nor drink water, ‡neither return nor turn again by the same way that thou camest. 10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

But [i]Ahijah could not see; for his eyes [††]were set by reason of his age. 5 And the LORD said unto [i]Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing inquire of thee for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman. 6 And it was so, when [i]Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with [‡‡]heavy tidings.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty and four years. 34 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, [b]and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

16 1 And Then the word of the LORD came to [d]Jehu the son of [e]Hanani against Baasha, saying, 2 Forasmuch as I [f]exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee [1]prince over my people Israel; and [h]thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; 3 behold, I will utterly [k]sweep away take the posterity of [l]Baasha, and his house; and I will the posterity of his house; and make thy house [m]like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 4 [n]Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the field fields shall the fowls of the air eat. 5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 6 And So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in [p]Tirzah; Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead. 7 And moreover also by the hand of the prophet [d]Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, both because of even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, to provoke in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, Jeroboam; and because [r]he smote killed [2]him.

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years. 9 And his servant [a]Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him: now him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, [c]which was over the household Arza *steward of his house in Tirzah: 10 and Tirzah. And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead. 11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he smote slew [g]all the house of Baasha: he left him [i]not a single one man child, that pisseth against a wall, [†]neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. 12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, [j]according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha [‡]by [d]Jehu the prophet, 13 for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and wherewith by which they made Israel to sin, to provoke in provoking the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, Israel to anger with their vanities. 14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

people, and said, How long [a]halt ye between two *opinions? [b]if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. 22 Then said Elijah unto the people, [d]I, even I only, am left remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are [e]four hundred and fifty men. 23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under. under: 24 And call ye on the name of your god, gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that [h]answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, †It is well spoken. 25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your god, gods, but put no fire under. 26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, ‡hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that §answered. And they ‖leaped about upon the altar which was made. 27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either ††he is musing, talking, or he ‡‡is gone aside, pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. 28 And they cried aloud, and [o]cut themselves after their manner with [3]knives and lances, lancets, till §§the blood gushed out upon them. 29 And it was came to so, pass, when midday was past, that and they prophesied until the time of [c]the *offering of the evening oblation; but sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any [4]†that regarded. 30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me; me. and And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was [f]thrown broken down. 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, [g]Israel shall be thy name. name: 32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD; LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain [5]two measures of seed. 33 [i]And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid it him on the wood. And he wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and [j]pour it on the burnt offering, sacrifice, and on the wood. 34 And he said, Do it the second time; time. and And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time; time. and And they did it the third time. 35 And the water ‡ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water. 36 And it came to pass at the time of [k]the offering of the evening oblation, sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, O LORD, LORD, [l]the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that [m]thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that [n]I have done all these things at thy word. 37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may
